1984 "Heritage of Ashe Co. NC" Vol. 1 (975.6835 D3h, SLC 9/5/92; have copy page; extract from Gerry D. 6/29/92)

No.267: Family of Peter Graybeal Sr. came to Elks Cross Roads, called Todd after 1880, Ashe Co. NC, from Botetourt Co. VA bef. 1800 ... Family traditions connect Peter's family to York, Berks, and Lancaster Cos. PA before they came to VA. It is known they spoke and read in their native tongue (Dutch) after they arrived in Ashe Co. Peter's wife, Christina Wampler Graybeal, ... One son, John Graybill, born in MD, Feb. 1, 1780, remained in VA for a time. He married (1) Rachel Duncan in 1805 in Montgomery Co. VA, and after her death married (2) Idress Hines in Wythe Co. VA in 1816. Then John with his family of 13 children moved to Monroe Co. IN. Three other sons, Henry, Peter Jr. (b. Dec. 1, 1783) and David, found wives in Ashe Co. and remained there to raise families and live out their lives ... In 1815, Peter Sr. and Christina W. Graybeal left Ashe Co. with their son, Michael, his wife Mary (Polly) Stoker, and two young children, their dau. Barbara, her husband David Stoker (brother of Polly) and their Stoker in-laws ... to Jackson Co. OH. Peter Graybeal Sr., believed to be the son of John, born Lancaster Co. PA 1755, died at Vega, Bloomfield Twp, Jackson Co. OH 1845; his wife Christina born Frederick Co. MD in 1760, d. Jackson Co. OH 1844; both buried Vega Cemetery; name on markers is Graybill. --Myrtle Graybeal Brown.

From the above, I believe it likely that Robert Duncan Jr., son of Robert of Botetourt Co. VA, married twice, first to Catherine Darr and 2nd to Mrs. Elizabeth Lyons. The 1850 census in Knox Co. TN lists his household as:
Pg. 382, #1396 Elizabeth Lammis/Lammie (Lammed?) 46 VA -- $400(?)
Martha L. 14, Harriet J. 12, Elizabeth A. 19 VA
Robert Duncan 65 VA; Elizabeth 65 VA

I have never found the deed for the rest of Robert Duncan's 340 acres, but I have usually only looked for deeds from a Duncan -- the deeds should be checked for all the married daughters, as well as the administrator.

The only lead I have to the parents of this Robert Duncan, wife Catherine, is a statement by Nancy Reba Roy (who died in 1979) that he was the son of Robert Duncan, wife Anne Gallop, who died in 1793 in Culpeper Co. VA. That Robert (d.1793) did have a son Robert, and there is nothing to show it could not be the Robert in Botetourt Co. VA d.1787.

"Will Abstracts of Culpeper Co. VA (1791-1803), Will Book D" by Sparacio (MAD's book; extracted; typed by Evelyn)

D-91/3: 7 June 1788, will of Robert (R) Duncan of Culpeper Co., Par. of St. Mark; to son Robert Duncan one negro woman named Gosha, son Charles Duncan one negro woman named Jumbo, son Sammy Duncan one negro man named Jimmy, son Joseph Duncan one negro woman named Moll, these former gifts now confirmed; son John Duncan already received 50 lbs in lieu of negro; son Gollop Duncan two negro women named Judah & Jailey. Had formerly lent daughter Phillis Barbee wife of John Barbee one negro woman named Sarah which has since born a female child named Jenny, I now give the two negroes Sarah & Jenny and their several increase to my great granddaughter Lucinda Bradford, dau. of Enoch Bradford by his late wife Rosey Bradford who was dau. to my aforesaid dau. Phillis Barbee. Had formerly lent to my dau. Ann Pope wife of Thomas Pope one negro boy named Joe, I now confirm. I lent to my dau. Mary who was then intermarried with Joseph Hackley one negro girl named Jenny, the said Joseph Hackley departing this life, my said dau. Mary then intermarried with Thomas Grinnan soon after which period I took possession of the said negro Jenny and in lieu of a negro gave and executed a Deed for a parcel of land to the said Thomas Grinnan and Mary his wife, and I do again declare I never let my said dau. Mary have the said negro Jenny on no other conditions than on loan during pleasure. I formerly gave and delivered to my dau. Rosey Jett wife of James Jett two negroes, a man Will and a girl Winny, I confirm them. I formerly gave and delivered to my dau. Lavina Lightfoot wife of John Lightfoot one negro woman named Lucy, I confirm them. Wife Ann Duncan keep possession of the Lease and lot of land whereon I now live during her life or widowhood or so long as she may chuse to live thereon and at the end of either the periods, the Lease and lot to pass to my son Gollop Duncan his heirs or legal representatives.

As further provision for my wife Ann Duncan's support during her life or widowhood, the remainder of my negroes not heretofore disposed of in this will or otherways and all my household furniture, stocks and all my Estate of every kind (except as before excepted) shall be under direction of my Executors and at the end of either of the two periods, then the remainder of my Negroes shall be equally divided amongst my Eleven following children or their heirs or representatives (to wit) Robert Duncan, John Duncan, Charles Duncan, Sammy Duncan, Joseph Duncan, Gollop Duncan, Mary Grinnan, Phillis Barbee, Ann Pope, Rosey Jett, and Lavina Lightfoot; and as some difficulty may arise to effect the same, the court to appoint so many disinterested persons as they may judge necessary to value the negroes and divide them into eleven lots as equal as possible. At the same time, the remaining household furniture, stock, etc. be sold and the money divided among the eleven children. Execs. son in law James Jett and John

Lightfoot & my son Gollop Duncan. Wit. William Lawson, John Amiss, Amos Crane. Proved 21 Oct. 1793 by James Jett on oaths of John Amiss and Amos Crane. (pg. 28-30)

There are numerous researchers (I think) who are interested in this Robert Duncan through his daughters, but the only researcher who is a descendant of Robert d.1787 Botetourt Co. VA was Mr. Al Drew. However, a letter I sent him to E-12, Box 175, Lake Tapawings, Blue Springs, MO 64015, was returned by the post office in Dec. 1992 as forwarding order expired. Another address shown in my files is 638 Welt Street, Weston, MO 64098-1244, which may or may not be current. Mr. Drew descended from a William Duncan, b.1820, who is believed to be the son of Robert Duncan Jr. & Elizabeth Lyons, and therefore likely a grandson of Robert & Cattron (Catherine) Duncan.

If you have an IBM-type computer and use a word processing program, I'll share a copy of my Duncan files in Botetourt Co. VA and Culpeper Co. VA if you'll send me a formatted disk and tell me what word processing program you use.

Can't think of anything else for now, so guess I had best close.

Regards
Mary Ann

March 7, 1996

Dear Zandra,

Thank you for your letter of Feb. 16, 1996, postmarked March 2, about your search for the family and descendants of Robert Duncan of Botetourt Co. VA. I'll make a note about the "Ireland" birthplace for Mary Duncan, Robert's daughter who married John Beckner, as published in a book on Beckner's.

You asked about "five children" mentioned in Robert Duncan's will in Botetourt Co. VA in 1787; his wife was Catherine or "Cettron". He said he wanted his money and land to go to his five children (my commas added and spelling modernized) Mary, Ester, Rachel, Robert, and Nancy who were under age. He said his five daughters Margaret, Elizabeth, Rebecca, Isabel and Janet were to receive only 5 shillings each. This totals ten children, and might indicate that the last five daughters named had already received something from him, probably as dower when they married.

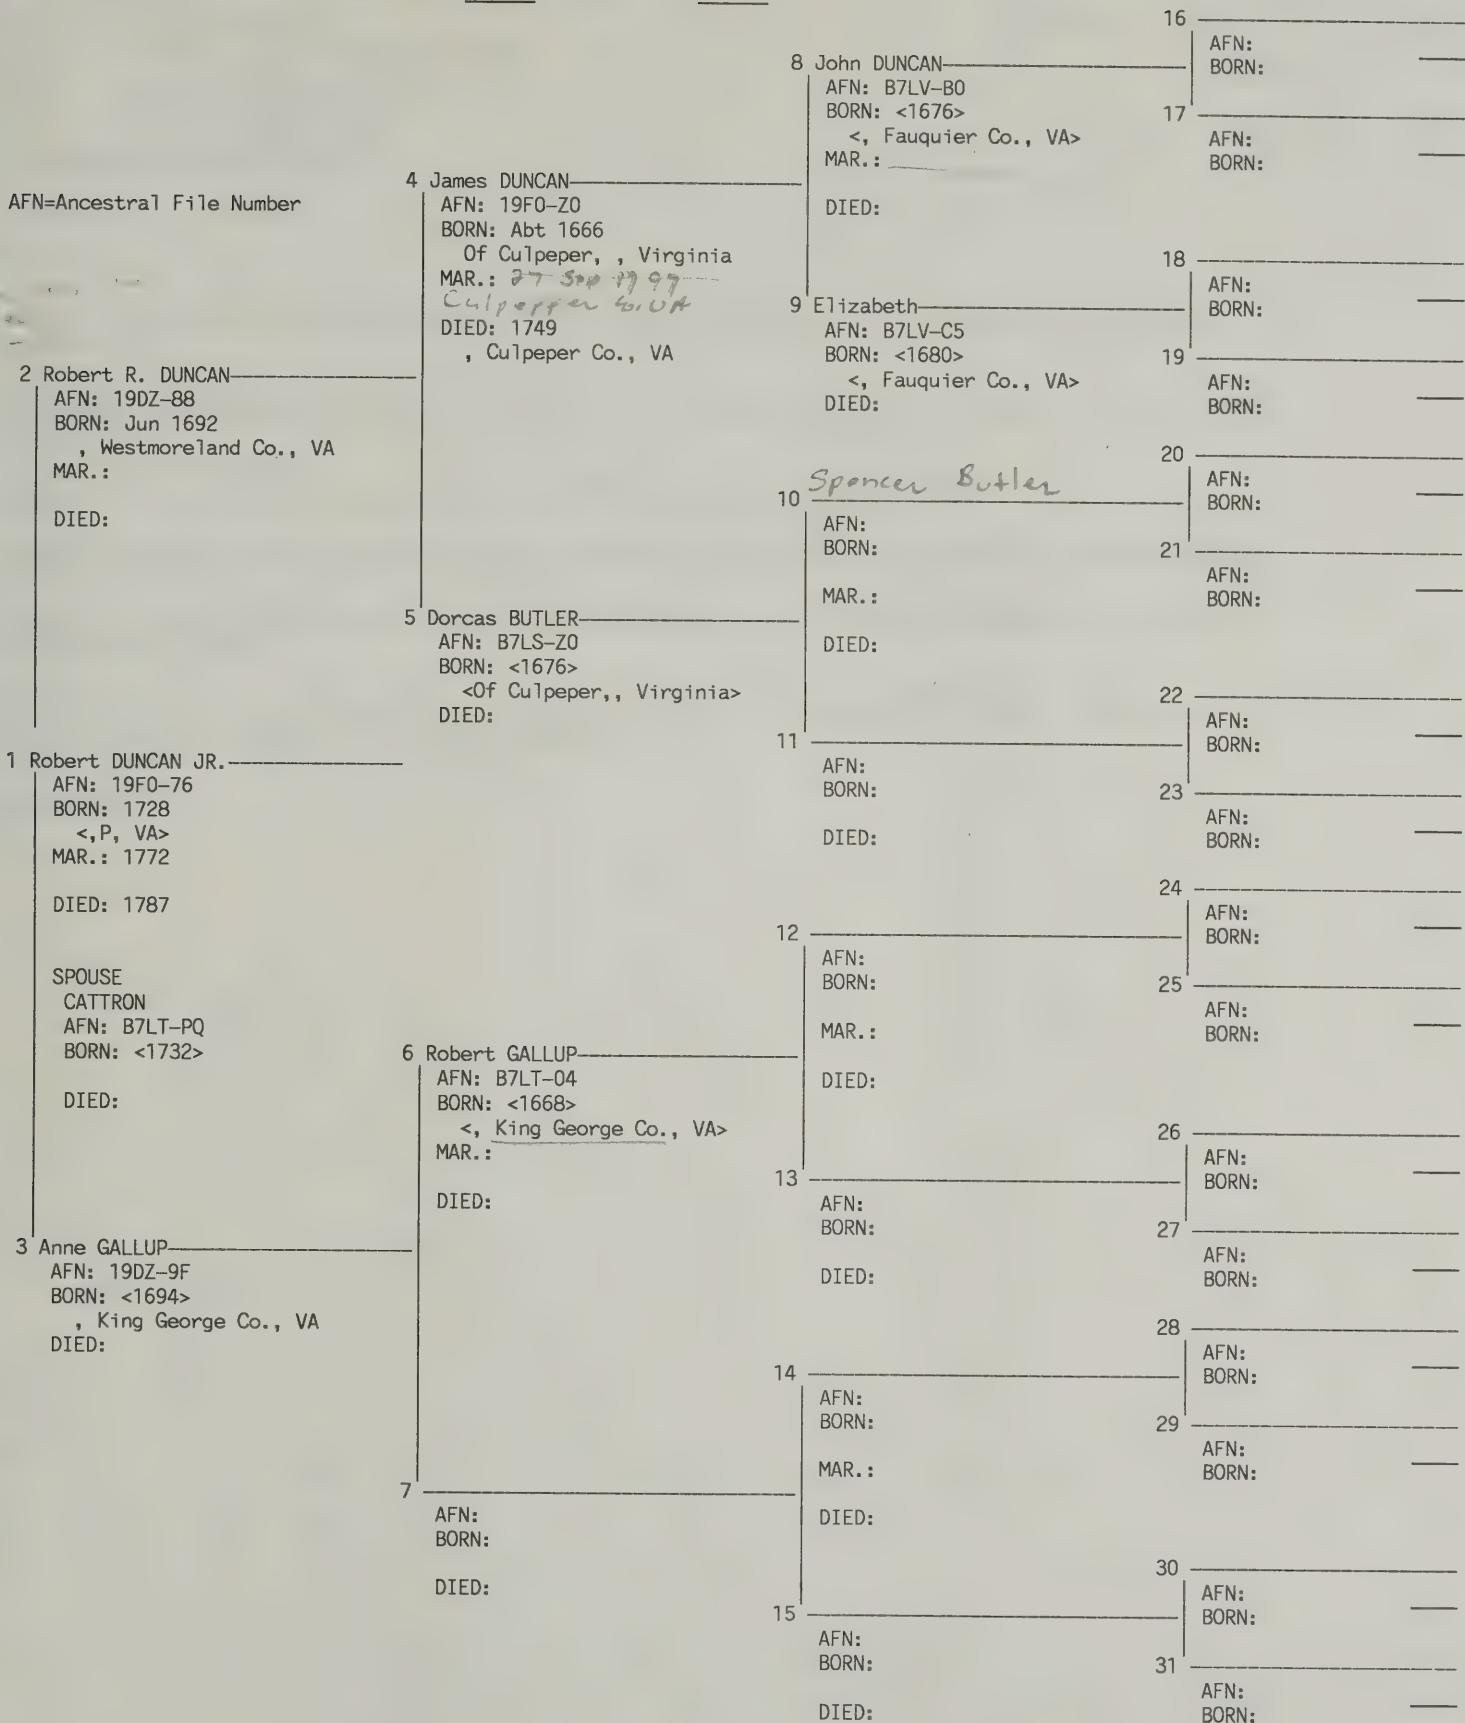

Nothing new has turned up here on your family of Duncans since I last wrote you in April of 1995. However, the first of this year, I took a leave of absence from Duncan research for a couple of years.

Good luck in your research.

Regards
Mary Ann

Hi,

I have a few references to Robert Duncan, which you may already have (saw your post on the Duncan Genforum.)

In the Marriage Records of Botetourt County, VA, Vol III, compiled by Charles T. Burton and Mrs. Vicie W. Fowler, is :

Robert Dunkin is on a 1785 enumeration of Botetourt County, VA, and says there were 7 white persons in his house, he had one dwelling and one other building.

Some Duncan Families of Eastern Tennessee
Before 1800

Revised 1991 By

Mary Ann Dobson

Original 1979 version by Alice Young Duncan and Mary Ann Dobson

- One Robert Duncan lived in East TN in 1816; he was a soldier in the War of 1812 from Jan. 10 to May 25, 1814, in the 2nd Regiment, Mounted Gunmen, (Brown's), E. TN Volunteers, and signed a power of attorney on 13 May 1816 to William B. Carnes to receive his pay (Military Record from Evelyn Sigler; index from Mrs. Mildred Hofer). This Robert Duncan cannot be the Robert Duncan who died before 17 Oct. 1814 (7.4.); he might possibly be Robert Duncan (8.10.) who lived in Washington Co. TN. However, it is likely he was the Robert Duncan just below who was in Knox Co. TN in 1816.
- One Robert Duncan was born 1785 VA, son of Robert and Catherine Duncan (Botetourt Co. VA Will Book A, pg. 255, June 1787); married 1st Catherine Darr, daughter of Joseph Darr, on 18 Oct. 1804 in Botetourt Co. VA; married 2nd Mrs. Elizabeth Lyons on 21 Nov. 1809 in Montgomery Co. VA. Elizabeth was born 1785 VA, the widow of William Lyons of Blacksburgh whose will was recorded in July 1808 in Montgomery Co. VA Will Book 1, pg. 346. Robert Duncan was appointed the guardian of Polly, Jane and Betsy Lyons, infant children of William Lyons, in 1816 in Knox Co. TN (Knox Co. TN Guardian Book 0, pg. 127, 156, 157, 174; Montgomery Co. VA Will Book 2, pg. 416). Robert and his family were in Knox Co. TN in 1830 (pg. 370), 1840 (pg. 26), and 1850 (pg. 382). His son William Duncan was born 1820 TN; married 1st Margaret McCloud on 12 March 1840 in Knox Co. TN; married 2nd Sarah Tindell on 23 Nov. 1847 in Knox Co. TN; was in Knox Co. TN in 1850 (pg. 207/414), Benton Co. MO in 1860 (pg. 85) and 1870 (pg. 23), and in Benton Co. AR in 1880 (pg. 18; 1860-80 census from Al Drew). This family is being researched by Mr. Albert L. Drew, E-12, Box 175, Lake Tapawings, Blue Springs, MO 64015.

Some of the children of Robert Duncan are identified in a deed from his heirs Joseph Duncan, Evan E. Duncan, Robert D. Duncan, William Wormsley and wife Jennett, and Alexander Y. Davis, when they sold his land on 29 March 1847 (Roane Co. TN Deed Book K1, pg. 127-129, from Michele Duncan to Judy Player) and others are from the data of Mr. Oscar H. Hurt (from Mrs. Bobbie McDowell):

- 7.4.1. Evan E. (Evans?) Duncan, born 7 Aug. 1795 in Sullivan Co. TN; married 1st Elizabeth Price on 18 May 1817 who died 19 April 1818; married 2nd Elizabeth Jenkins on 7 Dec. 1820 (bond date) in Roane Co. TN; Elizabeth died in 1831 and he married 3rd Mary Ann Jenkins in 1831 in Roane Co. TN by Gray Haggard MG; died 15 Sept. 1862 Roane Co. TN (War of 1812 Pension Application). Mary Ann lived in Knox Co. TN in 1881, Post Office Vancouver in Loudon Co. TN, and drew a widow's pension approved 3 Dec. 1881 (Index to War of 1812 Pension Applications); she was born 28 March 1812, died 10 May 1891 (Florence Johns Mackey). Evan E. Duncan and his third wife, Mary Ann, are buried at Hickory Creek Cemetery, Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, Knox Co. TN.

Hello, Jerry ! That Farmer line beginning in England & coming in thru VA sounds like one that supposedly could be the ancestors of my Thomas Farmer who came out of VA into NC in about 1730-40 with his mother & her 2nd husband named Bynum. Married unknown woman in Johnston co. NC who had all his children & died before he left Johnston Co. for Chowan Co. I am interested in more on the VA parts of his line. Does my info connect with yours? Do you need more? I think I've got a possible father's name for my Thomas but that is where things start to get fuzzy. Any help greatly appreciated !

TO: ZANDRA HORN (FWNB12A)
FROM: JUDITH PICKETT (BBBV26A)
SUBJECT: FARMER

Hello, Zandra ! Sorry, I made a mistake in giving Thomas (V) as wife Agnes Nicholson. She was married to Thomas (IV) and was the mother of Thomas (V). Thomas (IV) married an unknown woman who bore his children (John, Mary, William, Ann, Joseph, Thomas) before dying before 1754 when Thomas (IV) moved to Chowan Co. with his children & marrying there to Ruth Parker, a widow.

My records show Thomas (IV) & Agnes Nicholson having 4 sons (Thomas V, James, William, Isaac) & a daughter Elizabeth. Was your Mary another daughter of Tom & Aggie? I need to add her to my chart.

Thanks for your reply. Let's keep exchanging info. Judy

FROM: JUDITH PICKETT (BBBV26A)
SUBJECT: FARMER

Hello Jerry ! My info came from a book called "In America Since 1607" & covered such names as Hollingsworth, Farmer, & Judkins (ancestors, descendants, & many related families). The author was Walter I. Farmer, the editor was Margaret Farmer Planton. Published 1987 by Gateway Press, Inc. in Baltimore. Chapter 5, ancestors of Joseph Farmer, begins with a Thomas Farmer b.abt 1594 in Engl. who came to VA in 1616 (tells some more about him & gives some sources) & says his children were Thomas Farmer & Samuel Farmer but no info on who his wife might have been (claims too manyh records lost). Gives info & sources on Samuel which boils down to the tiny fact he was still living in 1650. Some discussion about where these guys lived-just which & where Charles City was & is.

Then book goes on with info on the 2nd Thomas Farmer (son of the immigrant) giving him the designation "II" to show where he comes in the line. Not much on him either, but his death record & his son's names: Thomas ("III") & Henry. Some info on Henry: that his 1st wife (name unknown) gave him sons (Benj., Wm., Thos., John, & Henry) & his 2nd wife was Hester Bass, widow of Wm. Bass & his deeding land & dying, then says see "Desc. of Thomas Farmer" by Col. Ellery Farmer for further info on this line.

Next is more info on Thomas Farmer III b. Charles Parish, md Ann ___?___ & was a foot soldier & moved to Surry Co. VA & probably died before 1701. His children were Samuel & Thomas IV. Samuel's ownership of land in Nansemond Co. in 1704 is noted.

Then more info on Thomas IV : b. 1681 in Charles Parish, York Co. VA, md. abt 1704 in Surry Co. to Agnes Nicholson, dau of George & Mary Nicholson, d. 1723 & his widow, Agnes, md (2) 1728, James Bynum & they took their combined families to Edgecombe Co, NC, in abt 1733. The children of Thomas IV Farmer were Thomas "V" (b. 1705, md 2x, 1st unknown, 2nd Ruth Parker, d. 1762 Chowan Co. NC), James (b. 1707, d. 1761, established the Farmer line in Johnston Co., research done on this line by Hugh B. Johnston Jr. of Wilson NC), William (b. 1709, owned land Craven Co.), Isaac (b. 1711, md. Elizabeth ___?___, d. 1770, inherited father's land in Wilson Co --lots on this line in IGI), Elizabeth (b. Surry Co. as were her bros., md. Nicholas Porter who d. 1749). Some quotes from Hugh Johnston's work about the sources of info on Thomas IV.

Next is much info on Thomas "V" Farmer who md. Agnes Nicholson. He was a Quaker & so was Agnes. Lots of info reported from Quaker records, land records, will. Children as listed in his will are John (mine- b.abt 1724 probably in Surry Co., md. Rachel ____?____, had 9 children one of whom is my 3ggmother Rachel, not found his death yet), Mary (b.abt 1726, still alive in 1760), William (b.abt 1728, md. 1750 to a Catherine (Cooper?) & moved to Wrightsboro GA in 1788), Ann (b.abt 1730, still alive in 1760), Joseph (b.abt 1732 in probably Craven Precinct NC, md. Mary Henley, had 13 children -- lots on this line in IGI), Thomas (b.abt 1734, last mentioned in Qkr recs 1770). There follows more source quotes from deed books, Qkr recs, & will. This stuff is VERY well documented - NICE!!

Hope this is of some use to you folks!!

Essex, England. Signed Mary Farmer. Original in file. Received 7 mo. 24, 1725."

From the context I knew this to mean that Ann had just moved from England and a relative here sponsored her so she could transfer her membership from the Essex Meeting to the one here.

And then some were Baptists: From Chronicles of Pennsylvania 1688-1748: The Baptists and the Presbyterians had had a quarrel. The Presbyterians failed to keep their offer to hold a conference. In December 1698, nine Baptists--viz: John Holmes, John Farmer and wife, etc. coalesced into a church for the communion of Saints. John Farmer and wife were from the congregation of Rev. Hanserd Knollys in London.

Early Farmer immigrants to Virginia, according to George Cabell Grier, Clerk of Virginia State Land Office*were:

Farmer, John 1655 by John Hinman, Northampton Co.

Farmer, John 1654 by John Watson and John Boznall or Bognall or Bagnall, Westmoreland Co.

Farmer, John 1652 Peter Knight, Gloucester Co.

Farmer, Mary 1652 Peter Parfitt and William Hatcher, Lancaster Co.

Farmer, Richard 1650 Andrew Munrow. Northumberland Co.

John Farmer settled in Accomac Co. 1639

Richard Farmer settled in Northumberland Co. in 1650

John Farmer settled in Gloucester Co. 1652

Mary Farmer settled in Lancaster Co. 1553

John Farmer settled in Westmoreland Co. 1654

John Farmer settled in Northampton Co. 1655

There seemed to have been two points of arrival in the New World for the Farmer clan. One, New England and the other, Virginia. (This seemed to be true of the Ball family also.) One of the very best sources of information about the Virginia Farmers was the book Descendants of Thomas Farmer Who Came to Virginia in 1616 by Ellery Farmer, Col. of U.S. Army and West Point grad mentioned above.

From that book: "Immigrants named Farmer settled in New England about 1672. James Farmer's family was the first of the name to appear in Pennsylvania about 1685. Farmer immigrants from England came to the Carolinas before the Revolution. Many early Virginia Farmers migrated to North Carolina. One of the oldest hotels in Western North Carolina was built at Flat Rock, Henderson Co. by Henry C. Farmer before 1850. Now called Woodfield Inn, it is still a popular hotel and a show place!"

Thomas Farmer came to Virginia in 1616. He was among the 5,000 settlers living there at that time. The Mayflower arrived in Massachusetts in 1620, four years after Thomas Farmer arrived in Virginia. Ellery Farmer wrote "An early Virginia Farmer was one of the first martyrs to the cause of liberty. He was convicted and executed in 1676 for treason against King Charles II during Bacon's Rebellion."

Thomas Farmer was on the muster rolls of Charles City County for 1623 and 1624. These early Farmers were able-bodied and not of the servant class. Chesterfield County records are rich on descendants of Thomas Farmer in the 17th and 18th centuries. Thomas Farmer became a resident of Henrico Co. when the Neck of Land became part of that county in 1632.

The fourth generation down from Thomas was Benjamin Farmer who died 1757. He moved to Lunenburg Co. Virginia and had a son named Stephen. Our first known ancestor was Stephen who was born 1765 in Charlotte Co. Virginia. We can almost make a connection geographically and chronolog-

3 John, 3 William and 3 Henry II. This she did for two generations except for 3 Henry Farmer II. She traced his descendants thru his son 4 Elam and his grandson 5 Hezekiah to his great grandson 6 Benjamin Farmer.

Mrs. Pierrepont proved the line of descent from 1 Thomas Farmer, the immigrant ancestor, to 6 Benjamin Farmer to be:

- 1 Thomas Farmer, b. in England in 1586 or 1594.
- 2 Henry Farmer I, b. in Henrico Co., Va., about 1657 (Henrico records, Book 5, p. 317).
- 3 Henry Farmer II, b. in Henrico Co., Va., before 1696, d. 1753.
- 4 Elam Farmer, b. in Henrico Co., Va., about 1725, d. 1784.
- 5 Hezekiah Farmer, b. in Chesterfield Co., Va., about 1760, d. 1826.
- 6 Benjamin Farmer, b. in Chesterfield Co., Va., 1783, d. in Kentucky, June 8, 1837.

2 Henry Farmer I and his sons lived in the eastern part of Chesterfield Co. on Proctor's Creek near Farrars Island. Later generations lived in the central part of the Co. By 5 Hezekiah's time many of them lived in the northwestern part of the Co., known as the Skinquarter section, twenty miles northwest of the Court House. In the latter part of the eighteenth century the Farmers began moving west and south to other Virginia counties and to other states.

The writer inspected two monuments erected on Farrars Island many years ago by the Association for The Preservation of Virginia Antiquities. One of the monuments commemorates the location of a town named Henricopolis for Henry, Prince of Wales, which was established by Colonial Governor Thomas Gates in 1611. After the Indian Massacre of March 1622 the town ceased to exist. The other monument commemorates the location of the "Plantation of the College Lands" which had been set aside by the London Company in the 1620s for the establishment of a college. The college lands extended from the falls in the James River, along the northern bank of the river southward ten miles, to "The Neck of Land" (Farrars Island). In 1618 the colonists obtained a charter from King James I for the "University of Henrico". It was never more than an ideal, a tract of wild land and a charter from the King of England. After the Indian Massacre at Henricopolis in 1622 the plan for the University was put aside and not revived until 1692, when King William and Queen Mary established William and Mary College at Williamsburg, Va.

Henrico County, named in honor of Henry, Prince of Wales, is the county in which Richmond is situated. Richmond is located at the falls (head of navigation) in the James River ten miles up from Farrars Island. Henrico Co., established in 1632, originally comprised the present Henrico and Chesterfield counties, but in 1749 Chesterfield was made a separate county. The James River separates the two counties. The records of 1 Thomas Farmer's descendants are Henrico Co. records until 1749, after which they are Chesterfield records for they lived across the James River from Farrars Island in the part of Henrico Co. that became Chesterfield Co.

INTRODUCTION

This is a genealogical record of descendants of Thomas Farmer of "The Neck of Land" which is now known as Farrars Island and is a part of Henrico County, Virginia.

The writer knew from the family Bible of Benjamin Farmer of Franklin County, Kentucky, that he is the great grandson of Benjamin Farmer. The Bible gives the date and place of Benjamin Farmer's birth as September 13, 1783, in Chesterfield County, Va., his marriage as October 15, 1807, in Chesterfield Co. and his migration to Kentucky as 1807.

With this information to start on Mrs. Alice V. D. Pierrepont of Violet Bank, Petersburg, Va., a professional genealogist and a member of a National Genealogical Society, was employed to trace Benjamin Farmer's ancestry back as far as she could. Her research extended at intervals over two years in Henrico and Chesterfield and nearby counties in Virginia. Mrs. Pierrepont is responsible for the data concerning Thomas Farmer whom she considers the immigrant ancestor of the Farmers of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries in Henrico and Chesterfield counties. She is also responsible for the data concerning the first five generations after Thomas Farmer.

The writer, with the assistance of a number of other descendants of Benjamin Farmer, is responsible for the data concerning Benjamin Farmer and his descendants. Most of this data was obtained in the years 1933 to 1943, when it was interrupted by World War II. It would have been impossible to compile this record without the assistance of Mrs. W. S. Farmer of Frankfort, Ky., who was widely acquainted in the family and had done considerable research of the Farmer family and her own Lillard family. Much help was also obtained from Mrs. A. S. Lillard, Frankfort, Ky.; Richard W. Farmer of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Charles (Corrine) Lucas; Mrs. George L. Farmer, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Edward C. Farmer of Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Thomas A. Cannon of Ashland, Ky.; Miss Stella Bass, Archivist, Va. State Library, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. G. B. McClure, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Stephen W. Dunwell, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Mrs. Cecil V. Cook, Jr., Bluefield, West Virginia, and many others.

Mrs. Pierrepont found many Farmer wills, Farmer deeds and land patents and other Farmer records in Chesterfield County, so that there is undoubtedly a wealth of data there for thousands of descendants of Chesterfield Co. Farmers not included in this record. This record lists four hundred and seventy-seven descendants of the immigrant Thomas Farmer, of whom three hundred and seventy-nine are descendants of Benjamin Farmer of the sixth generation who migrated to Kentucky in 1807. Ninety-eight of those listed herein are descendants of 1 Thomas Farmer of the first six generations.

The surname Farmer is derived from the early English fermour or fermor, that is, tiller of the soil, which in turn came from the Saxon words fearme or feorme, meaning food. The name is found in early English records as Fermour, Fermor, Farmar and Farmer. Families of this name resided in England in early times in Northampton, Warwick, Shropshire, Leicester and Oxfordshire.

5. Nichol's History, County of Lancaster.
6. Warwickshire Pedigrees from Visitation of 1682-83, privately printed 1865.

"Early Virginia Immigrants" (1623 to 1666) by George Cabell Greer lists the following Farmer immigrants:

John Farmer settled in Accomac County 1639.

Humphrey Farmer, 1650.

Richard Farmer settled in Northumberland County 1650.

John Farmer settled in Gloucester County 1652.

Mary Farmer settled in Lancaster County 1653.

John Farmer settled in Westmoreland County 1654.

John Farmer settled in Northampton County 1655.

Immigrants named Farmer settled in New England about 1672. Jasper Farmer's family was the first of the name to appear in Pennsylvania about 1685. Farmer immigrants from England came to the Carolinas before the Revolution. Many early Virginia Farmers migrated to North Carolina. One of the oldest hotels in Western North Carolina was built at Flat Rock, Henderson County, by Henry T. Farmer before 1850. Now called Woodfield Inn, it is still a popular hotel and a show place.

Descendants of Thomas Farmer

CHAPTER I

CONDITIONS OUR ANCESTORS LIVED UNDER IN VIRGINIA IN THE SEVENTEENTH AND EIGHTEENTH CENTURIES

Our Thomas Farmer, who came to Virginia in 1616, was among the first four or five thousand English settlers in Virginia. It is a matter of history that in 1616 there were only about five hundred English settlers living in Virginia out of several thousand who had come to Virginia since Jamestown was settled in 1607. The rest had died of malaria, starvation, hardship and had been killed by the Indians. The Mayflower arrived at Massachusetts in 1620, four years after Thomas Farmer arrived in Virginia.

Our ancestors in Virginia during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries were generally tillers of the soil. That was the industry of most of the population at that time. Tobacco raised for export to England was a principal crop. Fines assessed by the Henrico and Chesterfield County Courts were made payable in so many pounds of tobacco.

There was no coin of standard value in the colony. There were some Spanish pistoles and pieces of eight, French crowns and Dutch dollars of varying and uncertain value. There were also some English coin which passed at its value in England.

An early Virginia Farmer became one of our first American martyrs to the cause of liberty. Richard Farmer, a follower of Nathaniel Bacon, was convicted and executed in 1676 for treason against King Charles II, during Bacon's Rebellion. (Henning's Statutes 1660-1682, pp. 370&550.)

At the restoration of the monarchy and the accession of King Charles the Second, after the Oliver Cromwell regime in 1660, the House of Burgesses, under the influence of Governor Sir William Berkeley, passed laws making the Church of England the established religion. Parishes were established; convenient Churches and Church property were provided. The pay of the clergy was fixed at eighty pounds per year and other perquisites. The Churches and the clergy were supported by taxes on all the people. A few years after this, non-conformists, Quakers, Baptists, Presbyterians, Catholics and others began spreading and increasing in numbers, so that in 1664 new laws were passed placing rigid restrictions and severe penalties on all non-conformists. In 1785, under the influence of Thomas Jefferson and George Washington, the Church of England was dis-established as the religion of Virginia, and the laws against other denominations were repealed by the Virginia legislature. Jefferson ranked his authorship of these repeal laws with his writing of the Declaration of Independence, and the founding of the University of Virginia. The writer has often seen a monument standing near Chesterfield Court House erected to the Baptist and other ministers who carried on during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries in Virginia.

There are records that 4 Lodowick Farmer was a member of the Vestry of his parish. The religion of the early Virginia Farmers is unknown but, being law abiding, many of them were probably Church of England. However, a majority of the descendants of 6 Benjamin Farmer and Susan Goode Farmer are known to have been Baptists.

A Militia was maintained in Virginia from early times. Each county was supposed to have a Colonel, Lt. Colonel, Major, Captain and Lieutenants of Militia. All males from sixteen to sixty, except slaves and indentured servants, were mustered in each county once a year for Militia duty. Many of the muster rolls are extant. Beginning with Thomas Farmer on the muster rolls of Charles City County for 1623 and 1624, his descendants are on many muster rolls of Henrico and Chesterfield County, showing our ancestors were able bodied and not of the servant class. Several members served in the Virginia Line and the Continental Line during the Revolution.

The Order books of Chesterfield County show that numerous Farmers served on grand and petit juries. Several Farmers were appointed to survey certain roads in Chesterfield County. The Will Books of Chesterfield County show dozens of Farmer wills, both men and women, showing they were people of substance. Most of these wills, in addition to real estate and personal property, disposed of slaves. The records, particularly of Chesterfield County, are rich in information of the descendants of Thomas Farmer in the seventeenth and eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries. Other Virginia counties to the south and west contain many records of these people as they spread out to other parts of the country. Anyone interested in tracing his line of descent from 1 Thomas Farmer's descendant 2 Henry Farmer I would find these Virginia counties a happy hunting ground.

CHAPTER II

I THOMAS FARMER, IMMIGRANT ANCESTOR

The first reference to I Thomas Farmer is in "The Living and The Dead in Virginia", "Att ye neck of land, Thomas Farmer, February 16, 1623", Hotten, p. 170; again in the Muster roll of Settlers in Virginia 1624. "Thomas Farmer, age 30, in the Tryall 1616", Hotten, p. 204. He came to Virginia four years before the Mayflower arrived at Plymouth, Massachusetts. He survived the March 22, 1622 Indian Massacre in which over four hundred English settlers were killed.

The Neck of Land is an area of a thousand acres, more or less, that the James River meanders around, which is now called Farrars Island. It is located in Henrico County which was an original shire whose records are supposed to begin about 1632. Due to Bacon's Rebellion and conditions leading up to it few records of Henrico County are extant before 1676. The records that have been found that refer to I Thomas Farmer are Colonial records made before Henrico County was formed. He was a member of the House of Burgesses in Jamestown in 1629-30 from the "Plantation of the College and The Neck of Land." (Virginia State Archives, Henning's Statutes, Book 1, p. 147.) It is reasonable to believe he became a resident of Henrico County when "The Neck of Land" was made a part of that County in 1632.

The date of I Thomas Farmer's birth appears to be either 1586 or 1594 depending on the interpretation of the above information from Hotten, p. 204. If the former date, he would have been 71 when 2 Henry Farmer I was born in 1657; if the later date, he would have been 63 when 2 Henry Farmer I was born. In either case it is entirely possible that he could have been the father of 2 Henry Farmer I. There is no record of I Thomas Farmer after 1624, except that he was a member of the House of Burgesses 1629-30 from the "Plantation of the College and the Neck of Land", which was on the frontier of English settlements at that early date. Counties had not been formed and records of births and marriages were not kept. It is possible that 2 Henry Farmer I was the grandson of I Thomas Farmer considering the difference in their ages. No record is extant of any other Farmer in that locality who might have been 2 Henry Farmer I's father. The proximity of "The Neck of Land" (Farrars Island) where I Thomas Farmer lived to the Plantation of 2 Henry Farmer I on Proctor's Creek in what is now Chesterfield Co., only a few miles apart, and the fact that 2 Henry Farmer I named one of his sons Thomas, and that the name Thomas runs through succeeding generations are very strong evidence of the relationship. Mrs. A. V. D. Pierrepont, professional genealogist, after two years of study and research of Farmer records, wrote that she firmly believed that I Thomas Farmer was the immigrant ancestor of the Henrico Co. and the Chesterfield Co. Farmers, based on the strong circumstantial evidence. Mrs. Pierrepont, in the process of tracing the line of ancestry of 6 Benjamin Farmer back to I Thomas Farmer, the immigrant, thru 2 Henry Farmer I, decided to trace the descendants of all of 2 Henry Farmer I's sons, who were: 3 Benjamin, 3 Thomas,

THE ANCESTORS OF JOSEPH FARMER

THOMAS FARMER I was born ca 1594 in England and came to Jamestown, Virginia, in 1616 in the Tryall. He survived the massacre of 1622 and was living at the "Neck of Land" on 16 Feb 1623/4. His muster of 24 Jan 1624 places him in Charles Cittie:

The Muster of Thomas Farmer, aged 30 ys in the Tryall 1616.
Provisions; corne, 2 1/2 barrels, Arms & Munitions; Powder, 1/2 lb; Shott & bulletts, 4 lb: Peeces fixt, 1 and a pistoll;
armour, 1: stede coat. 1, Hange (a short curved sword), 1, Poultrie; 10. (From Purse and Person 1607-1625, by Annie Lash Jester)

Thomas was a member of the House of Burgess on 24 Mar 1629/30 representing "Colledge & Neck of Land" in the General Assembly. There is no known record indicating that he owned property, whom he married, or when he died since many records have been lost.

Children:

1. Thomas Farmer II, of Charles Parish, York Co was buried
12 April 1681. (more later)
2. Samuel Farmer was listed as living in 1650.

From a manuscript by John Bennett Boddie and Hugh B Johnston, Jr, of Wilson in the 1950's:

1. Thomas Farmer 11, or Charles Parison, York Co was buried
12 April 1681. (more later)

2. Samuel Farmer was listed as living in 1650.

From a manuscript by John Bennett Boddie and Hugh B Johnston, Jr, of Wilson NC in the 1950's:

The first one of the name "Farmer" in Virginia was apparently Thomas Farmer who survived the Indian Massacre of 1622 and in the census of Feb 16, 1623-24 is shown as living at the "Neck of Land" which was in Charles City County, (Hotten, p. 170). He recorded "His Muster" in the census of Jan 24, 1624-25 and reported that he was "aged 30" and came to Virginia in the "Tryall" in 1616. He is shown as an "Ancient Planter" in Mrs Nugent's land grants, but there is no mention of his land, (C.P. XXXIII).

Thomas Farmer was Burgess from "The Colledge and Neck of Land" in the General Assembly of March 24, 1629-30 (Journals, p XI). Destruction of early records prevents the obtaining of any additional data concerning Thomas Farmer.

Research on "Charles Cittie", "Necke of Land" and Plantations of the College" by Ruth Ritchie:

In order to find out as definitely as possible just where these places were, I have consulted several maps and reference books with the following results-

Charles City was not located in Charles City County as we find that county on the map today. It was a settlement on the south side of the James River on the present site of City Point, now a part of Hopewell, though the name City Point still appears on many modern maps. It was on a neck of land projecting into the James River at its confluence with the Appomattox River and was in Bermuda Hundred. It was successively called Bermuda City, Charles

116-A
City, Charles City Point, and finally City Point.

Charles City County was laid off in 1634. It encompassed land on both sides of the James, including the Charles City settlement, from which it took its name. In 1702 that part of Charles City County on the south side of the James became Prince George County, which it remains today.

Before 1620 the London Company set aside 10,000 acres "in and near" the "city" of Henricus for the college. This was on the north side of the James and a little further up the river than Charles City. There was also a college plantation in the territory that later became Surry County on the south side of the James. In 1621 the Virginia Company set aside 1000 acres at Charles City for the East India School which was to be established there to prepare students for the planned university across the river. Both of these projects fell through as a result of the Indian massacre in 1622 and it may be that this land at Charles City subsequently came to be considered as a part of the college plantation.

I think we may conclude, therefore, that Thomas Farmer definitely lived at or near the present site of City Point in 1623-24 and probably was still living there in 1629. Henricus was on a neck of land also, though in my reading I have never found it called that. Many years ago a channel called Dutch Gap was cut through it to shorten the river route and today it is called Farrar's Island. Most of it belongs to Chesterfield County, but the northern part where the Henricus settlement was made belongs to Henrico County.

THOMAS FARMER II, son of Thomas Farmer I, the immigrant and "The Ancient Planter" and his wife, who is not identified in surviving records, was of Charles Parish, York Co. His death is recorded as 12 April 1681 in a surviving Charles Parish Register, York Co, p 61, State Library Board.

Children:

1. Thomas Farmer III, b Charles Parish, m Ann _____. (more later)
2. Henry Farmer, b ca 1657 Henrico Co VA. By his first wife, whose name is unknown, he had sons Benjamin, William, Thomas, John and Henry. He m 2nd 1696 Hester Bass, widow of William Bass. They lived in the eastern part of Chesterfield Co on Proctor's Creek near Farrars Island. He deeded land there to his sons in 1707-09 and 1714 for "natural love and affection." (Henrico Co Records) Henry died before 1734. (for this line see Descendants of Thomas Farmer, by Col. Ellery Farmer, Biltmore Press, Ashville NC, 1956)

THOMAS FARMER III, son of Thomas Farmer II and unknown wife, was born at Charles Parish, York Co. He married Ann _____. As late as the summer of 1681 they were still living in Charles Parish. Soon thereafter they moved across the James River to Surry Co. They bought 50 acres in Surry Co 6 Nov 1683 from Daniel and Margaret Roome. Thomas was a private foot soldier in the Militia in 1687. His wife Ann witnessed the will of John Lewis in 1700/1.

Children:

1. Samuel Farmer of Nansemond Co, where he owned 160 acres in 1704.
2. Thomas Farmer IV was baptised at Charles Parish 18 July 1681.
He m Surry Co 1704 Agnes Nicholson, dt of George and Mary Nicholson. He d 21 Aug 1723. (more later)

From manuscript by Hugh B Johnston, Jr, of Wilson NC, 1950's:

Thomas Farmer appears to have been living in Charles Parish, York County, as late as the summer of 1681, but he moved across the James River and was listed as a private foot soldier in the Surry County Militia in 1687 (Virginia Co Records, Vol 2). On October 21, 1687, Thomas Farmer wrote to the Virginia Council at James City and asked William Foreman to acquaint the Court that he was lame and sick, not being able to walk or ride, and to get leave for his case to be referred to the next Court. He was probably engaged in some sort of commercial enterprise, but there is no positive record of the nature of it. The date of his death is not known, but his widow was undoubtedly the Ann Farmer who witnessed the will of John Lewis of Isle of Wight County on January 13, 1700/1.

From Surry County Records:

6 Nov 1683, Daniel & Margaret Roome deeded Thomas Farmer 50 acres in Surry County, witnessed by Walter Flood and Jannit Jordan.

[This may be the year the Farmers moved to Surry - WIF.]

THOMAS FARMER IV, son of Thomas III and Ann Farmer, was born Charles Parish, York Co 18 July 1681. He grew up in Surry Co and married there in 1704 Agnes Nicholson, dt of George and Mary _____ Nicholson of Surry Co. On 20 May 1713 Thomas was on a Grand Jury. In 1721/2 he obtained a License to keep an Ordinary or Tavern on his plantation. Thomas died 21 Aug 1723, his widow Agnes was appointed administratrix. Agnes married 2nd 1728 James Bynum, a Quaker. By 1732/3 they and their two families had moved to Edgecombe Co North Carolina.

1. Thomas Farmer V, b Surry Co 1705. He m 1st unk, the mother of his children. He m 2nd 1755 Ruth Parker. He d 1762 Chowan Co, NC. (more later)
2. James Farmer, b Surry Co 1707, d 1761. He established the Farmer line in Johnston Co. Research, not yet published, has been done on this line by Hugh B Johnston Jr of Wilson NC.
3. William Farmer, b Surry Co 1709. Patented 367 acres on Trent River 1736, Craven Co.
4. Isaac Farmer, b Surry Co 1711 m Elizabeth _____. In 1742 bought land on Deep Creek in Edgecombe Co, NC. He d 1770. They had 7 children, son Isaac inherited his father's land in what is now Wilson Co.
5. Elizabeth Farmer, b Surry Co, m Nicholas Porter who d 1749 Johnston Co naming James Farmer Exec.

From a manuscript by Hugh B Johnston Jr of Wilson NC:

Thomas Farmer was baptized in Charles Parish, York County, on July 18, 1681. He grew up in Surry County and about 1704 married Agnes Nicholson, daughter of George Nicholson, whose will dated February 13, 1712/13, gave daughter Agnes Farmer a brown heifer with a star in the forehead, and grandson Isaac Farmer the first calf to be born. On April 21, 1713, Thos and Agniss Farmer of Southwark Parish rented to Clement Lanier for one shilling a year for three years 50 acres adjoining William Short and Logan, witnessed by John Simmons and Gregory Rawlings. (Deed Book 5) On May 20, 1713, he and James Bynum served on a Grand Jury in Surry County. (Co Order Book 1)

On February 21, 1721/2. at a Court held at Southwark in said county, Thomas Farmer, Thomas Bently, and William Ham gave bond on 10,000 pounds of tobacco, since "Thomas Farmer hath obtained a Lycence to keep an Ordinary at the Plantation that formerly was Thomas Cottens Deced. If therefore the said Thomas Farmer doth Constantly find and provide in his said Ordinary good Wholesome and Cleanly Lodging and Dyett for travellers and Stableage foddors and provinder or pasturage and provinder as the season shall require for their horses for and during the term of one Year from the 21st day of February 1721 and shall not Suffer any person to Tipple or Drink more than is necessary then this Obligation to be Null Void and none Effect." (Wills and Deeds 1715-1730, Part 1)

The death of Thomas Farmer was reported to the Surry County Court on August 21, 1723, and his Inventory was taken and appraised by Samuel Maget, Joel (B) Barker, and John Andrews on November 2nd, with Agness Farmer signing as administratrix. On November 8, 1727, James and Agness Bynum witnessed the will of Thomas Horton of Surry County. On September 24, 1728, they were directed to prepare for division of the estate of Thomas Farmer, deceased, 0/5/0 being paid to James Bynum, 1/0/0 to William Bynum, and the remainder of 58/12/1 being divided into five equal parts for the Farmer heirs, recorded on June 18, 1729. On May 27, 1733, Agness Bynum received 1/5/0 from the estate of John Boulton of Isle of Wight County.

James Bynum and Agnes Farmer appear to have married according to the Quaker manner, without the proper legal or Church of England formalities, for they were hailed into Court on November 20, 1728, "for evil cohabitation together." The page covering the trail is unfortunately missing from Wills and Deed Book, part 1. By March 8, 1732/3, James Bynum had moved to Edgecombe County, North Carolina, with the two families....James Bynum made his will in Halifax County on June 21, 1763, naming sons William, Nicholas, daughter Agnes Whitnes, etc, but his wife was already dead.

THOMAS FARMER V, son of Thomas IV and Agnes Nicholson Farmer, was born

118B

THOMAS FARMER V, son of Thomas IV and Agnes Nicholson Farmer, was born in Surry Co Va in 1705. He was a Quaker, and married first, about 1723, probably in Surry Co; his wife's name is not known, but she was the mother of his children. He married 2nd Ruth Parker in Chowan or Perquimans Co, NC by 5 2mo 1755 when the marriage was reported to Perquimans M M. Ruth was the widow of Joseph Parker.

It is not known when Thomas and his family moved to North Carolina, but it was most likely at the same time his mother and step-father James Bynum moved to Edgecombe Precinct. He settled first in the area of Craven Co between the Neuse and Tarr Rivers, receiving grants for land there in 1741 and 1745. In 1746 Johnston Co, whose early records have not survived, was formed from that part of Craven Co. It is not known when Thomas moved across the Tarr River into Beaufort County to settle on land he had purchased from Joseph Barrow. In January and March of 1748 he sold 648 acres of the tract; he sold the remaining 200 acres of it in February of 1754 when he moved to Chowan Co, transferring from the Neuse River M M to the Perquimans M M. He died in Chowan, testate, in 1762, two years after writing his will.

Children by his first wife, listed in the order given in his will:

1. John Farmer, b ca 1724-26, probably in Surry Co VA. He was a Quaker and a member of Perquimans M M before moving to Falling Creek. He m before 1754 Rachel _____. From North Carolina Taxpayers, 1701-1786, Clarence E Ratcliff comiler, Genealogical Publishing Co, Baltimore, 1984:

Thomas Farmer was paying taxes in Beaufort Co in 1755 along with Thomas Gwaltny/Gwatney, Wm Wallace, Robert Flake, Joseph Barrow and others named in the deeds listed above. He actually left in 1754 but his name was included from the previous tax list. In 1760 Pitt Co was formed from this part of Beaufort Co. All these people except Thomas Farmer appear in the 1762 tax lists.

From Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy by William Wade Hinshaw:

On August 5, 1754, Thomas Farmer produced a certificate from the Neuse River Monthly Meeting of the Society of Friends at Tarr River in Johnston County, North Carolina, which he presented to the Perquimans Monthly Meeting in Perquimans County of the same state. Thomas was accompanied by his sons and was evidently a widower at the time. By 5 April 1755 Thomas was reported married to Ruth Parker. (Vol 1, p 39)

From Abstract of North Carolina Wills:

Ruth Parker was the widow of Joseph Parker who died in Chowan County in 1749. His will was written 15 Nov 1749. Their children were Joseph and Jacob

Notes on the counties and Monthly Meetings from Helen F.M. Leary, C.G.:

In 1741 when Edgecombe County was formed from Bertie, Edgecombe, Beaufort, and Craven had a common border between the Tarr River and the Neuse River. The Craven portion of that border, at the Neuse River, became Johnston Co at its formation from Craven in 1746. Thomas Farmer of Beaufort and Chowan, father of William Farmer of Cumberland and Wrightsboro, settled in the same general area as his brothers did, but across the line in a different county. Thomas Farmer moved in 1754 from a home in Beaufort County and membership in the Neuse River M M in Johnston County to a home in Chowan County and membership in Perquimans M M in that county. Note that in both cases Thomas did not live in the same county which was the site of the Meetings - he must have been a faithful Quaker indeed to have traveled so far for so long to remain a Friend in good standing.

A SHORT HISTORY OF THE GARNER FAMILY

The original name was Gardner. The family was a branch of the Nantuckett Gardners who emigrated to America about 1642. Our branch, or the Garner branch, had the name corrupted or changed from Gardner to Garner about the time of the Revolution, supposedly by Captain James Gardner, who lived in the Southeastern part of Virginia. We are direct descendants of this James Gardner, (alias Garner). This ancestor was born in 1726. He was a ship owner, also a planter, and owned a large number of slaves. He was probably a captain of Colonial militia, as we have no official record of his having served in the Revolution, but family tradition says that he was a military captain and that his ships carried merchandise and supplies for the colonies during the Revolutionary period.

He had thirteen children. One of his sons was named John Fushee in honor of one of his ship captains by that name. This ancestor, John Fushee Garner, was born about 1753 and from him on down the line we have a complete family record with all dates of birth and marriage to the present day. John F. Garner was a Revolutionary soldier, having served six months as a private in "The Virginia Line." The official record of his service can be found in the Virginia State Library at Richmond, Va.

John F. Garner moved from Virginia to Randolph county, North Carolina, before the Revolutionary War. He married first Nancy Whittle, whether in Virginia or North Carolina, we do not know. About 1789 or 90 he moved to Blount County, Tennessee, near the mouth of Ellejoy Creek, where he lived the rest of his life. He was buried on this farm and lived most of his life in the same house which he built. This old house was torn down in 1890, being at the time a hundred years old. He was married three times. He and his three wives, Nancy Whittle, Betsey Donaldson and Grace Conrad, are buried side by side and the inscriptions on their tombstones are still legible. John F. Garner had the following children: John, James, William, Bradley, Polly, Betsey, and Dolly, all of whom married and had large families.

His son James married Mary Moon, oldest daughter of Joseph and Ann Moon, in Randolph County, North Carolina, in 1794, and they moved to Tennessee in 1796 and settled just across the road from his father, John Fushee Garner's home. After living fifteen years in Tennessee they moved to Clinton County, Ohio. At that time they had nine children, one having died and was buried on the John Fushee Garner farm. Four more were added in Ohio, making fourteen in all. James Garner had the following children: William married Anna Hockett; John married Eleanor Ratcliff; Nancy married Seth Hockett; Elizabeth married John Ratcliff; Joseph married Rebecca West; Mary married Josiah Graham or Grimes; (the name is usually pronounced Grimes, but spelled Graham); Jane married Thomas Hunt; Rebecca married Samuel Clark; Rileigh married Mary

HISTORY OF THE MOON AND GARNER FAMILIES.

Betterton; Matilda married John McKibben; Sarah married James Darby; Ira married Margaret Lightfoot; James married first Martha Seal and after her death married Rebecca Walker Lightfoot, a widow. The first son, who died in infancy, was also named James. Mary Moon, the mother of this family was of a Quaker family, and it is probable that on account of her religious convictions regarding slavery that the move was made in 1811 to northern territory. Indeed, the Moon family history with which this account is to be incorporated, records that Joseph Moon, father of Mary Moon Garner, moved from North Carolina to Tennessee the same year that James Garner settled there. It is also recorded in the Moon family history that the Moons settled in Clinton County, Ohio, in 1809, and that by the fall of 1811 the entire Moon family had settled there. It will be noted that 1811 is the date in the family records of the Garner family given as the year they moved from Tennessee to Clinton County, Ohio.

The farm which was bought by James Garner in 1811 is near Farmers' Station, and is on the banks of East Fork Creek which is a branch of the Miami River. The farm has remained to the present day in the hands of the descendants of James Garner and Mary Moon. Of all the fourteen children of this family, only three of them ever moved from Clinton County. Sallie Darby and her husband emigrated to Indiana, Rebecca Clark and her husband and several children joined a Mormon emigrant group and became one of the pioneer families of Utah. After the death of his first wife, James the youngest of the family married Rebecca Lightfoot, a widow, and they with two of their children and four youngest children of his first family emigrated to Illinois. All the rest of the James Garner and Mary Moon family lived all their lives and are buried within a short distance of the old original homestead, and with the exception of Rebecca Clark, the others always kept in close touch with the old Clinton County relatives and friends as long as they lived. The Moon and Garner families who are descended from these early pioneers have always remained closely related by ties of blood and friendship and loyalty to family tradition. For a number of years an annual reunion of the Moon and Garner families was held at the old Garner homestead in Ohio. In the year 1877 there were seven of the children, one hundred and fourteen of the grandchildren, two hundred ninety-eight of the great grandchildren, and one hundred thirteen great-great grandchildren, making a total of five hundred and twenty-six descendants of James Garner and Mary Moon in eighty years. At this time (1929) there are doubtless many thousands of them scattered over the world, and yet I daresay there is not a criminal nor a pauper among them all.

This James Garner is described as a man of powerful physique, having been six feet four in height, and weighing about two hundred and fifty pounds. To have braved and conquered all the hardships incident to pioneer life in those days when the country was a howling wilderness inhabited by Indians and wild beasts, shows without further comment that he was brave and courageous. He was a man of unusual intelligence and was well educated for his day. He is remembered by some of his grandchildren now living who say that he was of jolly disposition and fond of story telling and other forms of amusement current in his day. He was musically inclined and a good singer. He sometimes made up impromptu songs and stories for the entertainment of those gathered in his company. He was frequently consulted by the people of the community on subjects pertaining to literature or other educational subjects considered above the average attainments of the people of the community. He lived to the age of ninety-three and is buried near the old homestead. His wife was also noted for her intelligence and for her piety and noble Christian character.

The youngest of this family (also named James and for the descendants of whom this sketch is primarily intended) was born August 10, 1818. He married Martha Seal in 1841. Their children were: John who married first Patience Dunlap and after her death married Matilda Biggs; Nellie (Rachel Ellen) who married Daniel Burton; Eldridge who married Hester Ann Turner; Thomas Jefferson who married Bertha Meeker; Mary Emma, who died at the age of twenty-five, unmarried; Romeo M. who married Ida Morris; and Bessie (Sarah Elizabeth) who married Orrin Loomis. The children of James Garner and Rebecca Walker Lightfoot were: Etta who married Jerome Neese and after his death married Robert Brooks; Cora who married Calvin Benefiel; Effie who married Frank Smithson; and Ivah who married George Pritchard. Of this large family there are now (1929) living three sons and four daughters. Nellie Burton died in 1902, Thos. Jefferson in 1915, Ivah in ———.

There are sixty-nine descendants of this James Garner now living and of these forty-nine live in California.

The history of the Garner family in America has been a history of pioneers. The Garner family from which we are descended came to America but twenty years after the Pilgrim Fathers and their descendants of course number into the tens of thousands and are scattered to every part of America today.

We have traces of the Virginia stock here and there, besides our own immediate line. They have for the most part been tillers of the soil, earning their bread by the sweat of their brows. However, even in our own immediate lines there is quite a sprinkling of professional men and women, the medical profession leading; quite a number of preachers and a few politicians and statesmen. Some have become distinguished, but personal ambition is not a Garner trait of character, though there is no lack of ability. Prof. Richard Lynch Garner, world renowned naturalist, hails from Knoxville, Tennessee, and is undoubtedly a descendant of John Fushee, as is also John N. Garner of Uvalde, Texas, who has so ably represented his district in Congress for the past fifteen years or so.

We of the present generation and of the coming generations of Garners have a rich heritage—the best blood of America—that of good, honest, upright nation builders—who have steadily moved westward in the march of progress until we are now at the lands end in America, the Golden state, land of the setting sun. There are no more wildernesses to tame, no more savages and wild beasts to battle and to conquer, but we do have a charge to keep. Let us “keep that which has been committed to us,” an unsullied name; good family traditions to emulate and pass on to generations to come; so that our forefathers could be as proud of us as we have a right to be of them.

SOME HISTORY OF THE MOON FAMILY

During a certain period of history the kingdom of Denmark formed part of the English domain, though only under partial rule of England. The King of England made a requisition of the King of Denmark for a regiment of soldiers to act as body guard for himself. The Danish monarch thereupon issued orders that the best men of his kingdom be selected—men six feet or more in height, of light complexion, blue eyes and red hair. A regiment from the best families of Denmark, fully complying with the orders was formed and sent to the English King. The banner they carried had a half moon inscribed upon it and the regiment was known as the “Moon guards.” According to the customs of that period men performing valuable service to their king were given land grants. Those of the Moon guards who accepted land in England adopted the name Moon and the land was given them under that name. Thus is recorded the history of the name and the origin of the English family of Moons. During the period of the Reformation and later during the times of rebellion against the Church of England, the Moons were staunch Protestants and Puritans. Among the many who suffered persecution on account of their religious opinions we find a number of Moons. They were followers of George Fox who was the founder of the Society of Friends.

The Moons in America trace their family records in unbroken lines to James Moon and Mary Burgess. James Moon was born in England between the years 1640 and 50. Jane Burgess was born in 1649. They were married about 1665 and were the parents of six children: Sarah, James, Jonas, Jasper, Mary and Roger. In 1682 they came to Bucks Coutny, Pennsylvania, and settled on a land grant near Falssington, Pennsylvania, which was given them by William Penn. The deed of land from William Penn to John and Jasper Moon is now in the hands of Charles Moon a lineal descendant of John Moon and son of James Moon who died in 1858. From the original Pennsylvania colony branches of the family are traced to western Pennsylvania, western New York and to Virginia. The first to leave the colony was Jasper who emigrated to Virginia. He had one son, Simon, who married twice. By his second wife he had one son, John. His mother dying when he was young. John was “bound out” to learn the carpenter's trade. At the expiration of his seven years apprenticeship he emigrated to North Carolina, and settled on the Neuses River. He married Mary Farmer, and they had a family of five children: Rachel married N. Brookout; John Jr. went to Georgia and founded the Moon family there; Joseph married Ann Brown daughter of Daniel Brown, a Quaker preacher. They were the parents of ten sons and three daughters: Daniel, Joseph, William, Samuel, John, Jesse, Henry, Thomas, Solomon, Mary, Jane and Grace who died in infancy. Daniel his oldest son married Ruth Hutson; William to Jane Hutson; Samuel to Martha Routh; Joseph to Sarah Garner; John to Elizabeth Mount; Jesse to Rebecca Stidham; Jane to John Routh; Mary to James Garner; James to Anna Hockett; Thomas to Elizabeth Hockett; and Solomon to Hannah McLinn; the latter three were not married till after they had moved to Ohio.

Joseph Moon and his family some of whom had married moved from North Carolina to Tennessee and settled near Knoxville. Here they all lived for several years. However, it was slave territory and as Quakers were opposed to slavery they moved from there to free territory. The first to move was Daniel and Joseph and their families. They emigrated to Clinton County, Ohio, in the spring of 1808, and settled near what is now Martinsville. The following year found Joseph Moon, the father, Samuel, John, and John Routh, son-in-law, and their families and by the end of the year 1811 the entire Moon family including James Garner and family of nine children had settled in the new colony. This Moon colony consisted of fifty-five persons—thirty-four males and twenty-one females. They were the founders of what is now Clark township, Clinton County, Ohio.

In this colony there were many artisans as well as farmers. The Moons of that early day were famous as carpenters, coopers, harness makers, gunsmiths, blacksmiths, etc. Many of the old pioneer citizens of that part of the country still have guns manufactured by Jesse and William Moon, who did an extensive business in that line.

Thomas Moon, son of Joseph and Ann Moon, was born in 1789. His wife, Elizabeth Hockett was born 1800. They had the following children: Ruth, Isaih, Joseph, Jacob, Nathan, Joel, Jehu, Ann, Jane, Rachel, Thomas, Jason, John, Elkanah, Jabes, Margaret and Sarah.

Jehu Moon was born in Clinton County, Ohio, 1828. He married Rachel Dalby who was born in Ohio in 1835. They had the following children

Since the advent of the Moons in America they have multiplied until their descendants number tens of thousands and they are scattered over every state in the union. They have made records of noble achievements as pioneers, their loyalty and enterprise as citizens, their sterling integrity of character, pure moral and irreproachable lives, that has transformed itself in the memories of their descendants a living monument, more worthy and grand than any elegantly emblazoned monument of stone that could be made with human hands.

MOON FAMILY REUNION

The descendants of James and Sarah Moon held their fourth annual reunion in the city park in Manhattan, Sunday, August 28, 1927. The roads were muddy and weather threatening so there was a very small attendance, only eighteen being present.

After a picnic dinner a short business meeting was held. The president, Oscar Houser, not being present, Isaac Moon acted as chairman and was elected to fill the office of president for coming year. Mrs. Grace Dugan was re-elected as secretary-treasurer. It was voted that each family pay annual of 25 cents to defray the expenses of the secretary for postage and other incidentals. Each member who pays dues receives a report and pictures of the annual event.

Letters and greetings from absent members were read, one letter being from Joseph Henry Moon of Birmingham, Alabama, youngest son of James and Sarah Moon. He is now 82 years of age, has two daughters and two grandchildren. He has one sister living, Mrs. Lucetta Simmons of Palms, California. She will soon be 89 years old and her descendants are numbered to the fifth generation. Those present for the day were descendants of three brothers and one sister, Elihu Moon, James V. Moon, W. T. Moon and Jane Stevens.

The secretary gave a short account of the history of the family that she has been able to get together since the last meeting. Last year it was believed that the family was of Scotch descent but this has not been proven by the data collected. Thinking that the story may be of interest to other members of the family who were not present we are retelling it here.

James Moon was born in England, probably between the years 1640 and 1650. Jane Burgess was born in 1649. They were married about 1665, and were the parents of six children, Sarah, James, Jonas, Jasper, Mary and Roger. In 1682 they came to Bucks county, Pennsylvania, and settled on a land grant near Fallssington, Pa., given to them by William Penn. A good many of Roger Moon's descendants live in Pennsylvania yet. His brother, Jasper, however, following the death of his wife and son, left the colony and went to North Carolina. Here he married the second time and they had one son, John, who was born on the Neuse river. John's mother died when he was young and he was "bound out" to learn the carpenter trade. John married Mary Farmer and they were the parents of four sons and one daughter, Lawrence, John Jr., Joseph and Rachel. John Jr. went to Georgia and founded the Moon family there. Joseph Moon married Ann Brown, daughter of Daniel Brown, a Quaker preacher. They were the parents of ten sons and three daughters, Daniel, William, Samuel, Joseph, John, Jesse, Henry, Thomas, Solomon, Mary, Jane, and Grace, who died in infancy. Mary married James Garner. Her descendants, with other Moon descendants have an association and an annual picnic is held in Los Angeles, California, the third Sunday in September each year. William Moon was born in Randolph county, North Carolina, on January 22, 1777.

In 1796 Joseph Moon, with his ten sons and their wives and children and two daughters with their families left North Carolina, going to East Tennessee, settling near Knoxville. The family lived there for several years. However, it was slave territory and Quakers were opposed to slavery, so they moved from there to free territory, choosing Clinton county, Ohio, and settling near Martinsville, Ohio, forming the Moon colony. William Moon was married three times and was the father of twenty-four children. His first wife's name was Jane Hutson and when they left Tennessee they had five children, Sallie, James, Daniel, Joseph H., and Henry H. This was in the spring of 1809 and by the fall of 1811 the entire family had migrated to Ohio.

James Moon was born near Knoxville, Tenn., September 19, 1801. Sarah Clark was born in Virginia, December 23, 1802, coming to Ohio when a young girl. Here, on her seventeenth birthday, December 23, 1819, she was married to James Moon. They were the parents of sixteen children, eight sons and eight daughters: Rhoda Hockett, Jane Stevens, Elizabeth Sircoulomb, William Clark Moon, Elihu Moon, Mary (infant), John B. Moon, James V. Moon, Wilkerson T. Moon, Josiah D. Moon, Sarah Ann Chapman, Lucetta Simmons, Ruth Hockett, Daniel Carey Moon, Joseph Henry Moon, Nancy Colie (infant). It is their descendants who are bonded together and meet once a year in Kansas. The members of the family are scattered all over the United States with some in the canal zone. Not all the members have located yet. The secretary is to get together a complete family record and would welcome all information.

No date was set for the reunion next year but everyone is hoping for better weather and road conditions.

Those present this year were: Frank Moon and son Ross Moon of Nickerson, Kansas, Roy S. HISTORICAL SKETCH OF MOONS

Of Clinton County Extending Through the Avenues of Several Centuries.

There are perhaps few families in Clinton County, Ohio, that rank so prominently as the Moons, judging not only from the standpoint of their worthy characteristics—their abounding enterprise, energetic industry, loyalty and uprightness as citizens, generosity and kindness as neighbors and their eminent social qualities as a people.

The ancestral history of this family is quite elaborated extending back the avenues of several centuries to Denmark, the kingdom of which the earliest progenitors were natives. They were of the Teutonic or German family, which is now the prevailing race of Europe, and yet scarcely 4,000 years old. It embraces the people of Sweden, Norway, Denmark, the whole of the German Empire, and the masses of Scotland and England.

In history has been recorded that this family was never known to have been conquered. During a certain period of history the kingdom of Denmark formed a part of the English Dominion, however, only under a partial rule. The King of England made a requisition to the King of Denmark for a regiment of soldiers, a bodyguard to his majesty (himself). The Danish monarch, regarding it an honor to furnish the distinguished King with a bodyguard, issued orders that the best men of his kingdom be selected—persons six feet or more in height, light complexion, blue eyes and red hair. A regiment from the best families of Denmark, fully corresponding to the orders, was organized and sent to the King. The banner they had, in addition to the national colors, the inscription of a half-moon and the regiment was known as the "Moon Regiment." At the expiration of their term, having rendered very efficient service, much to the pleasure of the King, he granted them land in England if they would settle. A large number of them accepted the offer, and settled down in the colony. They then unanimously accepted the name of Moon, and the land grant was given in that name.

Thus is given the history of the origin of the Moon name. From this date on we see the Moons leading honorable, prosperous lives, devoting a portion of their time to the moral and religious culture of the then superstitious people, till the time when George Fox, Robert Barkley and others lifted an insurrection against the principle and doctrine of the predominant Church of England. Among the noble Christians who suffered persecution on account of their religious opinions, we find a number of Moons, who with them endured imprisonment and punishment for their honest views.

In 1762 when William Penn emigrated colonies to America, he established a colony of Moons in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, and from there the family is located to Red Stone, Western Pennsylvania, Western New York and to Virginia.

The deed of lands from William Penn to John and Jasper Moon is now in the possession of Charles Moon, son of James Moon a lineal descendant of John Moon.

James Moon, the father, died in 1858.

The land in Pennsylvania is the homestead of the first American ancestors.

Jane Moon, the mother of Charles, died some years since. She was a lady of fine intellectual culture and advancement, and was for many years clerk of the Friends Annual Meetings at Philadelphia, Pa. Jasper Moon was the first to abandon the colony. He went to the "Old Dominion." He had one son, Simon, who married twice. By his second wife he had one child, John. His mother dying when young he was bound out to learn the carpenter's trade. At the expiration of his seven year's apprenticeship, he emigrated to North Carolina, and settled on the Neuse river. He married Mary Farmer, and had a family of five children, viz: Rachel married M. Brook-out; John Moon went to Georgia where he died; Joseph married Ann Brewer, and had ten sons and three daughter—Daniel, William, Samuel, Joseph, John, Jesse, Henry, James, Thomas and Solomon and Mary, Grace and Jane, Grace died in infancy. Joseph (the father) lived on Deep river in Randolph County, North Carolina, and in 1796, removed to Jefferson County, Tennessee. Daniel his oldest son married Ruth Hutson; William to Jane Hutson; Samuel to Martha Routh; Joseph to Sarah Garner; John to Elizabeth Mount; Jesse to Rebecca Stidam; Jane to John Routh; Mary to James Garner; James to Anna Hockett; Henry to Elizabeth Hockett, and Solomon to Hannah McLin. The latter three were not married till after they came to Ohio.

In the spring of 1808, Daniel and Joseph with their families, came to what was then Highland county, and settled near the site of Martinsville.

The following autumn, Samuel and John Moon and John Routh (their brother-in-law) and their wives and children emigrated to Ohio and settled in the same neighborhood as their predecessors.

The spring of 1809 Joseph Moon, the father of the foregoing parties, with his family, and William and John with their families moved to the county and located in the Moon community. In the year 1811 James Garner, husband of Mary Moon, with four sons and five daughters came in and joined the Moon community in their new colony.

This Moon colony consisted of fifty-five persons—thirty-four males and twenty-one females. They were about the first settlers of what is now Clark township—in fact the very founders of that section of Clinton county.

In this colony there were tradesmen of various kinds. They were not professional mechanics, but rather possessing a brain of ingeniousness, were able to execute successfully the business of a carpenter, cooper, harnessmakers, saddler, hatter, cabinet-maker, chair-maker, shoe-maker, gun-smith, lock-smith, blacksmith, brick and stone mason, plasterer, and master mechanic.

Many of the old pioneer citizens of Ohio and Indiana have in possession today guns manufactured by William and Jesse Moon, who did an extensive business in that line.

Thus we see that they were prepared and well equipped for coming in on wild and unbroken forest and make for themselves homes.

Mr. Joseph Moon was the father of ten sons and three daughters, and had 829 grand children and 33 great grandchildren.

Since the advent of the Moons in America with William Penn they have multiplied till their descendants have scattered in every state and in nearly all the territories of the U. S. They have made records of noble achievements as pioneers, their loyalty and enterprise as citizens, their sterling integrity, pure moral character and irreproachable lives, that has transformed itself in the memories of their contemporaries a living monument, and here made perpetual, more worthy and grand than the elegantly emblazoned monument that adorns a city cemetery.

Great-Grandfather, Joseph Moon's Family Record.

Joseph Moon married Ann Brewer. Lived at and in Deep River, Randolph County, North Carolina. In 1796 removed to Jefferson County, Tennessee.

Joseph Moon came to Clinton County, Ohio, Clark Township, 1809, with his sons Wm. and Jesse and their families.

Thomas Gardner came over to America in 1624 from Dorsetshire, England. The name had flourished near there for more than three centuries. Thomas was the first Gardner of the Salem stock. He came under the auspices of the Dorchester Company and Rev. John White. He settled with thirteen others at Gloucester, Cape Ann, upon the grant of Lord Sheffield to Robert Cushman and Edward Winslow. Thomas was the overseer of the Plantation. In 1626 they removed to Naumkeag, or Salem. He died in 1635.

His son Thomas was a prominent merchant and held several town offices. He was a member of the general court in 1637.

Joseph, his son commanded the Salem Company in King Phillip's War. He has been commended for his courage by historians. He was killed with eight of his men and six other Captains, in the great battle in the Narragansett Swamp.

extending from Gardner's bridge over Gardner's brook, (a short distance from what is now Peabody Square), along the old road (in later deeds called the road to Andover), for quite a distance beyond the top of the hill. This was owned by Samuel Gardner in the second generation,* Samuel's son Abel in the third, Joseph and Jonathan, sons of Abel in the fourth. They sold it to the Reverend Benjamin Prescott, April 19, 1748,† and after his death the executors of his estate sold it to Joseph Lee of Beverly, and the executors of his estate sold it to Joseph Lee it was sold by Thomas Lee of Salem.‡ April 9, 1803, King, and Levi Preston, a committee appointed by the town of Danvers to make the purchase.§ It was used by the town as a poor-house for a few years and was sold by the overseers of the poor to Joseph Poor, Jr., Sept. 4, 1809.¶ After the death of Joseph Poor, his executors sold a portion of the lot to George Poor, the lot thus sold being on the northeast corner of Central and Elm Streets in what is now Peabody.¶ This small portion of the original homestead lot changed hands many times during the next few years, and finally was purchased by George W. Pepper who lived there many years.

Comparational Evidence

Thomas Gardner married twice. We know this from the fact that in his will he mentions his wife as the mother-in-law † of his sons. The Margaret Gardner, who united with the First Church in 1639, is supposed to have been his wife. ‡ Various writers, including Rev. Joseph B. Felt, have stated that her maiden name was Fryer (or Friar), but the writer has thus far failed to find the authority for this statement.

Rev. Charles Henry Pope, in his “Pioneers of Massachusetts” suggests that this Margaret who united with the Salem Church in 1639, may have been the wife of Edmund Gardner of Ipswich.§

While Edmund's wife may have been named Margaret, it seems improbable that she was the one above mentioned as uniting with the Salem church, for the following reasons: Edmund is mentioned in the Ipswich Town Records as early as 1635, and very frequently thereafter. The Ipswich church was organized in 1634, and the wife of a man so prominent in local affairs would, in all probability, have united with the “home church.”

His second wife was Damaris Shattuck, a widow, who was admitted to the church in Salem in 1641.† She had several children by her first husband,‡ one of whom, Sarah, married Richard Gardner son of Thomas. She, like most of her Shattuck relations, evidently favored the Friends, as she was called into court many times for being “present at a Quaker meeting,” and for absence from her own church.†† In the 9th mo. 1667, and the 4th mo. in the year following, “Old Mrs Gardner was fined 5 shil-

This was described as being bounded on the north and east as above and with "y^e streete or ground lying without fence, to y^e streete and comon land west and southerly."†

Stephen Ingalls transferred this to his son Ephraim Ingalls February 6, 1724-5. The "old cottage" had been replaced by a "new dwelling house."§

At a town meeting held Jan. 3, 1682, Capt. John Gardner, moderator; it was "Voted that Capt. "Nickanofe Sachem for a valuable consideration sold to Mr. Richard Gardner, 1 acre of land where his stage now standeth at Sisarkochet."† Richard Gardner complained of an Indian, Steven, for "stealing one barrel and seven gallons of oyl." The court gave to Steven an option of paying 5 pounds, 15 shillings, 6 pence, or "to serve Richard Gardner four whole years."‡

The following quotation from W. C. Folger's article in the Nantucket Inquirer, in the issue of June 4, 1862, is so good a summary of the man's life, that I reproduce it entire: "Richard was a man of very good abilities, he was called long-headed by his brother John, from his sense of the profoundness of his Judgment. He held a prominent place among the people of the island, was at one time Chief Magistrate. His residence was about half way between the house of our present worthy Sheriff, (1862) and the Eliphalet Paddock house. It has been taken down many years, and the locality is very much altered in its appearance.

"The Gardners owned formerly much of the land adjacent to and surrounding the Lily pond, extending beyond Gardner's Burial Ground, and around the swamp on the North Shore Hill, also extending through Egypt John, exercised much influence in the community here while they lived, and they died respected."*

Richard Gardner married Sarah Shattuck, daughter of widow Damaris Shattuck who married Thomas Gardner Sen'r as his second wife. Richard and Sarah are supposed to have been married about 1652, at Salem. Like nearly all of her Shattuck relations,† she was attached to the Society of Friends and suffered much in consequence.

In the County Court Records at Salem, Case 57, Term 5th mo., 1658, we find the following: "The wife of Richard Gardner was convicted of her frequent being absent from the publik ordinances on the Lord's Day, fees of court 30 sh."

She was brought before the court several times in the next few years, either for neglecting to attend the services at the First Church in Salem, or for being present at a "Quaker Meeting."‡

In 1662, she was excommunicated from the First Church in Salem for attending the assemblies of the Friends.§

Upon some of the occasions above referred to, Richard was summoned into court with his wife, for being absent from church. In the Court Records, in 1667, we read the

John and Samuel Gardner and others, were granted permission 9-9-1663, to build a mill over the South river,† "prouided it be built in two yeares or to lose their priviledge."

In the records of the County Court held at Ipswich, March 29, 1664, we find the following entry:

"Mr. John Gardner, presenting a copie of Administration Granted to him of the estate of John Cornings at the court held at Salem the 24 of the 9th mo. 1663 and now presenting an inventory to this court orders the sayd John Gardner to paye the debts, and to keepe the rest of the estate in his hands till the court take further Order."

The most interesting document which has been found in Salem concerning him, is his map of the Merrimac River, which bears the following inscription: "Plat of Meremack Riuer from ye See up to Wenepesoe Pond, also the Corsets from Dunstable to Penny-cook. Jno. Gardner." A reproduction of this map may be found in the Essex Institute Historical Collections vol. xiv, p. 157.

Mr. James Kimball in an article published in the above number of the Collections, says: "There can be no doubt about that part of the plan giving the 'Corsets from Dunstable to Pennycook,' as having been drawn between 1660 and 7 by John Gardner who was at that time a resident of Salem." He is satisfied that the John Gardner referred to was the son of Thomas Gardner of Cape Ann and Salem as he was the first and, until 1653, the only one of that name appearing in our records. This writer also alludes to the fact that his name is several times mentioned in connection with measurement of lots and laying out of division lines, etc. The author has closely compared the signature on the map with autographs of the subject of this article, and has found the resemblance very striking.

In this connection it is interesting to note that, in 1669, the town of Salem paid him 5:00:00 for his services as surveyor.*

In the County Court Papers, book 17, leaf 98, the following autograph note appears:

of Salem known as the "North fields," which in this case was the particular section of it, lying at present in the vicinity of Central Street in Peabody. Samuel evidently inherited some land in this locality from his father, for he sold to John Robinson, Oct. 2, 1721, a right to the common lands of Salem which formerly belonged to his father George Gardner, by "virtue of a Cottage or Dwelling house by him built in the Northfield, nigh to the great gate before y^e said Robinson's now Dwelling house."^{*} This was probably a part of the ten acres granted to George Gardner in 1637,[†] as the grants in this section were usually ten acre lots, and the name "ten acre lot side," is often met with. He purchased of Ele de Boon Repose, of Salem, Jan. 28, 1691-2, 7 1-2 acres near the above and 3 acres near land of Thomas Spooner[‡] and of John Robinson 2 acres adjoining the first lot.[§] Other lots were bought of Samuel Osborne Sen & and Hugh Pasko in 1696.[§] and of John Robinson in 1708.^{||} The last named property he evidently acquired by exchanging two acres in this locality for the acre and half of land of John Robinson.[¶] He bought two poles of land near Strong Water Brook in Feb. 1693-4, for 3 shillings.[†] The division of all this property in the North Fields among his grandsons will be considered in the articles relating to them.

From the town records, we learn that in 1711, Capt. Gardner desired to purchase the old "Robert Pease house," "upon which y^e Select men Entered Caution with Maj^r Sewall against his recording y^e same unless Isaac Pease will secure y^e Town against his father & mothers being a town charge, he being obliged to maintaining them during their naturall life, in consideration of his father's Conveying y^e same to him." (Feb. 26, 1711-12).[†]

In Feb. (17) 1700-1, he purchased of Thorndike Proctor, two lots of land on what is now Lowell Street in Peabody, above Proctor's Crossing. One measuring 18 acres was near Anthony Needham's and the other containing ten acres was on the opposite side of the road.* They were originally a part of the Downing farm. He bought two more lots adjoining these, of Samuel Marble March 7, 1702, and the remainder of the Samuel Marble farm, including dwelling-house, barn, etc.; he and his cousin Abel Gardner bought of Daniel Marble, Sept. 21, 1720.[†]

His father-in-law, John Browne Sen. gave him July 7, 1676, fifty acres of land which had been granted to John Browne by the town.[‡] This, Samuel Gardner sold to James Gould Apr. 1, 1691.[§]

He purchased of John Browne, of Salem, mariner, Dec. 7, 1688, his house (where Samuel Shattuck then lived) with land, wharf, warehouse etc.^{||} In 1695 (Oct. 22) he bought of Bartholomew Browne, the lot North of the above containing 3-4 of an Acre.[¶] The house and land purchased in 1688, he conveyed to his son John in 1705-6 (Feb. 7), ^{} and the other lot he deeded to his grandson John Higginson, Feb. 21, 1721-2.^{††}

In addition to the above lots, which from their importance we have described somewhat in detail, he either purchased or had granted to him, many other "parcels" of land in the town proper, at the "Butts," Winter Island, Marblehead, Lynn, etc., etc. He held many mortgages, and sold many lots which he had purchased previously of others.^{‡‡} As early as 1682 he was taxed for 300 acres of "unimproved" land.^{§§}

Samuel Gardner married twice. His first wife was Elizabeth Grafton, widow of Joseph Grafton.^{||} She was the daughter of John Browne, Sen., as the following documents will prove: John Browne, Sen., in a deed calls Samuel Gardner, Jun., his "son."^{¶¶} In his will dated

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

The Gardner Families

1

THOMAS GARDNER AND FAMILY

Thomas Garner came to America in 1624. He was a planter and came to Cape Ann, Mass. in the ship "Charity".

He was the First Governor of Cape Ann Colony under the Auspices of the Dorchester Company. In 1626 he moved to Salem, where he was a member of the Town Council of Salem for many years and he was Deputy of Salem in 1636 and 1637. He was also selectman in 1642, 1645, 1650 and 1656.

Thomas Gardner was greatly honored by his fellow pioneers and filled many positions of trust and responsibility.

Ancestors of Alfred Lester Gunter

2818. Dr. Thomas Gerard, born 10 December 1608 in Winwick, Lancashire, England; died 15 December 1673 in Machodoc, Westmoreland, VA. He was the son of 5636. Thomas Gerard and 5637. Frances Molyneux. He married 2819. Susannah Snowe 21 September 1629 in England.

2819. Susannah Snowe, born 1610 in Brookehouse, Staffordshire, England; died 1666 in St. Clements, MD. She was the daughter of 5638. Justinian Snowe and 5639. Judith Erdythe Smith.

Notes for Dr. Thomas Gerard:

Thomas Gerrard, Dr., Sir, Emigrant to MD was born December 10, 1608 in Newhall, Lancashire, Eng., and died November 19, 1673 in St. Clement's Manor, MD. (now Westmorland Co. VA). He married Susannah Snow, Emigrant to Maryland September 21, 1629 in St Clements Mano, St Mary, Maryland, daughter of Justinian Snow and Judith Hill. She was born Abt. 1610 in Lancashire, England, and died 1673 in Charles City Co., MD (now VA).

Notes for Thomas Gerrard, Dr., Sir, Emigrant to MD:

The Gerrard Family. ----- Among the neighbor of the Washingtons' none were more conspicuous than Dr. Thomas Gerrard. His first wife, Susanna, was the daughter of Justinian Snow, one of the founders of Maryland and Lord Baltimore's factor in the Indian trade. (Abel Snow, a clerk in chancery office, London, and Marmaduke Snow, were two other brothers.) Dr. Gerrard was for a long time councillor, but was finally banished from Maryland for taking part in the insurrection of Josias Fendall in 1659. Before this he had provided a refuge in Virginia, having obtained on October 18, 1650, a patent for land, and naming among the headrights his wife Susanna Gerrard, and his children Susanna, Temperance, Frances, Justinian, and John Gerrard.

Thomas Gerrard came to Maryland in 1638, and in 1659 moved to Westmoreland County, Virginia. He was a Roman Catholic and a surgeon by profession.

Special Thanks to: Linda Reno for her extensive additions and corrections in April 1999, and to Robert Moore in February, 2000. They have extensive documentation and sources for this line.

Thanks to all who have made this information available. It is certain to include errors and omissions.

Please help improve this page with your corrections and additions. Note: Rose, the second wife of Thomas Gerard, is often shown as Rose Allerton or Rose Sturman. Her identity may never be proven.

Some say Rose Sturman died in England, having never come to America.

Several of my families married into the Gerard line, though only cousins, aunts & uncles, and no direct ancestors of mine appear on this page. My link to the Gerard family is several generations earlier.

Descendants of Thomas Gerard

Generation No. 1

1. Dr. Thomas¹⁶ Gerard (John¹⁵, Thomas¹⁴, William¹³, Thomas¹², Peter¹¹, Thomas¹⁰, Peter⁹, John⁸, Thomas⁷, Peter⁶, William⁵, William⁴, William³, William FitzWilliam² FitzGerald, William¹) was born Bef. 10 Dec 1608 in Newhall, Lancashire, England, and died Bef. 19 Oct 1673 in Mochoticks, Westmoreland, VA. He married (1) Susanna Snow 21 Sep 1629 in England, daughter of John Snow and Judith [Unknown]. She was born Abt. 1610 in Lancashire, England, and died Abt. 1666 in St. Mary's Co., MD. He married (2) Rose [Unknown] Abt. 1671 in Machadoc, Westmoreland, VA. She was born Abt. 1631, and died Bef. 28 Jan 1712/13 in Westmoreland Co., VA.

Notes for Dr. Thomas Gerard:

Dr. Thomas Gerrard was baptized 10 Dec 1608.

One report indicates that Susannah Snow has the better pedigree. From "Colonial Virginians and Their Maryland Relatives" by Norma Tucker, 1994:

Thomas Gerard was son of Sir Thomas Gerard, head of an "ancient and distinguished" Roman Catholic family. His line 'has been traced back to the time of the General Survey of the Kingdom in 1078.' John Gerard, a Jesuit priest and another son of Sir Thomas, was tortured in the Tower, but survived to found a college at Liege, France. Richard, another brother, came with the first settlers to Maryland, arriving in 1634, but returned to England where he later became cup-bearer for the king."

This report was produced largely through the assistance of Linda Reno in April, 1999, with the addition of five generations for most of the children of Thomas Gerard and Susannah Snow.

Substantial additions to the line of Judith Gerard, including the Vowles family, were provided by Robert Moore Patboplex@aol.com in February, 2000.

Other published genealogies of Dr. Gerard and some of his descendants:

Maryland Genealogies from the Maryland Historical Magazine, Genalogical Publishing Co., Baltimore, 1980, "Thomas Gerard and His Sons-In-Law," Edwin W. Beitzell pp. 478-495.

Ibid., "Gerard's Daughters," John Walton, pp. 496-503. This last one doubts that three women sometimes taken as children of Gerard are really his. (Judith, Ann and Jane)

The only daughter listed by name in his will is Mary. Late in the will, he refers to "three sonnes and five daughters that shall survive me." The other four come from the transportation information: Susannah, Frances, Temperance, and Elizabeth.

Memo: 8 generations

Notes for Susanna Snow:

Some researchers discount the report that her father Justinian Snow as shown in Register of Maryland's Heraldic Families Vol 1. She is often said to be the daughter of John Snow and Judith Hill. Her mother's Christian name may have been "Erdyth" or "Erdythe" instead of Judith.

Notes for Rose [Unknown]:

Rose has been the subject of a lot of speculation. Some think she is Roseanna "Rose" Sturman. She married 1st John Tucker, 2nd Thomas Gerrard and 3rd John Newton, Sr. She may have been born as late as 1640-1650?

May be Rose Allerton - "Who Was Rose (1649?-1712)?" (Mrs. Jarrett's notes, forwarded by Bob Moore Patboplex@aol.com Feb 2000)

She is first known as wife of John Tucker, merchant, Westmoreland Co. His will (Westmoreland Deeds and Wills 1, 1653-1671, p. 386, wr. 5 May 1671, pr. 31 May 1671, in John F. Dorman, Westmoreland County, Virginia Deeds Wills, Patents, etc., 1665-1677, Part One, Washington,) names three children and one yet unborn. They are all by Rose, since her next husband [Thos. Gerard] made a deed of gift to these four children, specifying that they were children of John Tucker born of Dr. Gerrard's "now wife" Rose. (The unnamed child was Gerrard Tucker. Why did she name her sons by the first and third marriages after the second husband? Was she a Gerard herself? Some say she was a Newton.) Rose's first three children were John Tucker, Sarah Tucker, and Rose Tucker and the one born after John Tucker wrote his will was Gerrard Tucker (John F. Dorman, Westmoreland Deeds, Patents, etc., 1665-77, Part Two, p. 45 [orig. 142-142a], a deed by Thomas Gerard of Westmoreland to the children of John Tucker and Rose, Gerard's present wife). Sarah and Rose were both under 17 when John Tucker wrote his will. A Fitzhugh Bible says that Sarah was born 2 August 1663. Sarah married William Fitzhugh and Rose married Ebenezer Blackiston. It is somewhat strange to the modern reader to know that Sarah was around 11 years old at the time of her marriage. Sarah's dowry was dated 25 Aug. 1674 (John F. Dorman, Westmoreland Deeds, Patents, etc., 1665-77, Part Three, p. 10, Washington, 1974 (orig pages 200-1).

Rose's third husband was John Newton, mariner and Yorkshireman, who had been married three times in England and had a son by each wife. A deposition of 1755, on file in Westmoreland Co., made by Rose and John's daughter Elizabeth Berryman, says that John went back to England after marrying Rose and brought his three sons over. The children by Rose were Gerrard Newton [m. Rebecca Blackiston], Thomas Newton, and Elizabeth Newton [m. (1) Thomas Gilson, (2) Benjamin Berryman].

Children of Thomas Gerard and Susanna Snow are:

- + 2 i. Susannah¹⁷ Gerard, born Abt. 1630 in England; died Aft. Dec 1681 in St. Mary's Co., MD.
- + 3 ii. Jane [Unknown], born Abt. 1631; died 1659 in St. Mary's Co., MD.
- 4 iii. Justinian Gerard, born Bet. 1631 - 1638 in England; died Bef. 1688 in St. Mary's Co., MD. He married Sarah Tucker Bef. 1682; born Bef. 1649 in Westmoreland Co., VA.

Notes for Justinian Gerard:

Inherited his father's land in England.

+ 5 iv. Frances Gerard, born Abt. 1630 in Lancashire, England; died Aft. 1677 in VA.

+ 6 v. Elizabeth Gerard, born Abt. 1632 in Newhall, Lancashire, England; died 1716 in St. Clements Manor, St. Mary's, MD.

7 vi. Thomas Gerard, Jr., born Abt. 1640 in St. Clements Manor, St. Mary's, MD; died 1686 in St. Mary's Co., MD. He married (1) Susannah Curtis; born Bef. 1666; died Bef. 1684. He married (2) Ann Hawkins Bef. 1685; born Bef. 1670; died Bef. 15 Jul 1703 in Charles Co., MD.

Notes for Susannah Curtis:

Susannah Curtis was a widow when she married Thomas Gerard, Jr.

Notes for Ann Hawkins:

John Bayne married by 1687, Ann Gerard, wd. of Thomas and dau. of Richard Hawkins--The Bean Family of MD, Margaret Bean Langley, 1984.

Note; Justinian Gerard was appraiser on an estate in 1680 from which Henry Hawkins was listed as a debtor.

Ruth & Mary Hawkins were each listed as daughters of Henry Hawkins, and each of them married James Keech whoe died 1726 in St. Mary's Co., MD.

The first in Maryland were William Hawkins, St. Marys County, 1642: John Hawkins, Thomas Hawkins, George Hawkins are in the records before 1659.

Ralph Hawkins of Anne Arundell County, 1669.

Henry Hawkins of Calvert County, 1662.

Generation No. 2

2. Susannah¹⁷ Gerard (Thomas¹⁶, John¹⁵, Thomas¹⁴, William¹³, Thomas¹², Peter¹¹, Thomas¹⁰, Peter⁹, John⁸, Thomas⁷, Peter⁶, William⁵, William⁴, William³, William FitzWilliam² FitzGerald, William¹) was born Abt. 1630 in England, and died Aft. Dec 1681 in St. Mary's Co., MD. She married (1) Robert Slye I Bef. 26 Jan 1654/55 in St. Mary's Co., MD, son of George Slye. He was born Bef. 08 Jul 1627 in Lapworth Par., Warwickshire, England, and died Abt. 1670 in St. Mary's Co., MD. She married (2) John Coode 1674, son of John Coode and Grace Robins. He was born Abt. 1648 in Penryn, Cornwall, England, and died 1709 in St. Mary's Co., MD.

Notes for Susannah Gerard:

The source of this info, WFT Disk 6-4225, comments "the dates are all wrong!" on the descendants of Susannah Gerard.

Notes for John Coode:

or John Coad. Baptized 3 Apr 1648 at St. Gluevas Parish, England. The Coode and Coad names are interchangeable, and Coad is the name used in later records.

Maryland's Revolution of Government, 1689-1692, Lois Green Carr and David William Jordan, Cornell University Press, Ithaca and London, 1974. pp 245-8:

"John Coode had perhaps the most colorful and tempestuous career of any figure in Maryland's history. the 1689 revolution, sometimes known as Coode's Rebellion, was but one of several uprisings in which he played a significant role.

Coode was born at Penryn, Cornwall, in 1648. The son of an attorney, Coode matriculated at Exeter College, Oxford, at the age of sixteen. He was later ordained a deacon and returned to Penryn, where he was "turned out" of the ministry sometime before his immigration to Maryland. Coode served briefly as a minister in the colony, but clearly he was not suited by religious beliefs or temperament for the clerical profession. [footnotes to support Coode's unsuitability for religious leadership: Nelson Waite Rightmyer, Maryland's Established Church (Lebanon, Pa. 1956), 174; Md. Archives, XIX, 469, 479; Chancery Records, PC f. 548; Rev. Coumba J. Devlins, "John Coode and the Maryland Revolution of 1689" (M.A. thesis, Catholic University, 1952) 5-15. The most complete account of Coode's life is found in Gene Perkins Thornton, "The Life and Opinions of Captian John Coode, Gentleman" (MA thesis, Columbia University, 1953.)]

Coode was in Maryland by the spring of 1672, and he quickly assumed the title and role of a colonial "Gent." By the fall of 1674, he had married Susanna Slye, a wealthy forty-year old widow; Coode was about twenty-four years of age at the time. Mrs. Coode was the daughter of Thomas Gerard, a prominent Catholic and former councillor. Coode immediately became involved in extensive litigation over her property. [ref: (Father) Ed Beitzell's "Thomas Gerard and His sons-in Law" MHM, XLVI (1951), 189-206] The wealth and status which this marriage conferred upon Coode led to his appointment as a militia captain in 1676 and his election that year to the assembly. By 1677 he was a quorum justice of St. Mary's County and had probably been on the commission before that date. [Md. Archives XV, 199, 153, 255, 388-92; 399; VII, 112-13, 115-16, 125-6, 137-38; V, 332.]

Coode was never able to function very cooperatively and effectively within governments. His first involvement with opposition came in the so-called rebellion of 1681. His precise role in that is uncertain, but it completely estranged him from the proprietary regime. Coode was temporarily deprived of his seat in the assembly, but he did return to rep. St. Mary's in 1682. He held no other public office until his election as a burgess in 1688, but throughout this period he was a leading opponent of Lord Baltimore and his Catholic government. He later boasted that he led the revolution in 1689 as a matter of revenge. [Md. Archives, XV, 388-92, 399, 407; V, 281, 301, 312-34; VII, 210.]

Coode was clearly the military leader of the revolt. He styled himself commander in chief, although he had no special powers outside St. Mary's County until his appointment in the spring of 1690 as leader of the Grand Committee of Twenty. Later that summer he sailed for England as agent for the Associators. While defending the revolt, Coode registered an unfavorable impression on English officials. Despite gov. Copley's initial recommendation, Coode did not receive an appointment to the council."

In 1692 Coode launched a rebellion against his former colleague Blakiston, who succeeded Copley. and allied himself with Secy Thomas Lawrence. After Francis Nicholson assumed Governorship, he prosecuted Coode for blasphemy in order to ensure that Coode, who had been elected by St. Mary's in 1696 (for supporting Lawrence) was not seated in the Assembly. Coode went into exile in Virginia in 1696. When Blackiston assumed governorship, "coode returned to Maryland and stood trial." He was found guilty of blasphemy but innocent of rebellion. and pardoned.

Coode was elected to the Assembly by St. Mary's County in 1708, in an election conducted by his son, William Coode, who was Sheriff. This election was invalidated and charges brought against son William Coode. St. Mary's County then elected Coode again. The lower house ruled Coode ineligible due to the fact he had once held holy orders (sep of church and state).

Coode died "within three months." (of Sept 1708). His will did not list his land holdings, but his personal estate, including seven slaves was valued at 259 lbs. sterl.

"Sons John Coode, Jr. and Wiliam Coode both served as Sheriff of St. Mary's County during the period 1704-9, but they never held office on the provincial level. "

He was born Abt. 1616 in Eltonhead, Lancashire, England, and died 25 Mar 1655 in St. Mary's Co., MD.

Notes for Jane [Unknown]:

Jane was not likely a daughter of Dr. Thomas Gerard. There is no evidence that she was, and she would have been married twice and had four children by the age of twenty, had she been his legitimate daughter. She is shown here in order to show that it is not an oversight to omit her.

Notes for Thomas Smythe:

Thomas was hanged "as a pirate," but it was really a property dispute, according to descendants.

Notes for William Eltonhead:

Member of the Maryland Council. Captured and executed at the Battle of the Severn.

Notes for Col. Thomas Speke:

First in Maryland, settled on the south side of the Potomac River after the English Civil War. Signed the Pledge of Allegiance to Cromwell, 11 April 1652 with 97 others of Northumberland County. A commissioner appointed by the General Council in Jamestown, he was also one of the founders of Westmoreland Co., which separated from Northumberland in 1653.

Col. Speke left his estate to wife Frances and son Thomas, with reversion to his brother John if they should die. Both son Thomas and his Uncle John were dead by 1690, when Frances and her last husband, Col. William Hardidge, bought Nominy Plantation. The plantation was originally patented by Col. Speke, whose inventory described a house with a hall, chamber, dairy, kitchen, and quarters for servants and slaves.

Notes for Col. Valentine Peyton:

Baptized in St. Dunstan in the West, London, 31 Jul 1627.

He died in 1665 "without progeny" according to reference materials; his listed children may in fact not be his children.

Notes for Col. John Washington:

Settled in VA 1656. Member Va. House of Burgesses. Immigrant.

+ 113 ii. [Daughter] Hutt.

114 iii. Mary Ann Hutt.

Notes for Mary Ann Hutt:

This Mary Ann Hutt may not have existed. mvaughn@cox-internet.com Michael J. Vaughn has been working on this line (April, 2002) and has more information to consider.

The most optimistic assumptions on dates do not make it likely that this is the Mary who married 1st Andrew Read and second John Trammell. She must have been married first by 1694, and therefore born before 1679, while her presumed father was reportedly born after 1666. This would be possible only if her father were significantly older than is most often represented. Why then, did that Mary name a son Gerrard Trammell? Both families had close connections to the Read(e) family.

Introduction

St. Clement's Hundred (Manor) of the County of St. Maries (St. Mary's County, Maryland) was erected, and Thomas GERRARD commissioned Lord of the Manor, on 16 Mar 1639 (1640):

Cecilius &c To our trusty Thomas Gerrard Gent

Whereas We have thought fit to erect the Isles called St Clements Isle and Heron Isle, and all the Land over against the Said Islands on the North bank of Patowmeck River between the Creek Commonly called the herring Creek on the East and St Catherines Creek on the West and extending Northwards Into the woods five mile any where from the Said Bank into a hundred by the name of St Clements hundred, Now to the end our peace and rights and the good orders of our Province may be the better maintained and Conserved from time to time within the Said hundred We relyeing much upon your Provident and diligent Circumspection doe hereby appoint and authorise you to be the Conservator of our Peace within the Said hundred, as well upon the Land as upon the water adjoyning to it with all powers and authorities belonging to any two Justices of peace in England by the Law or usage of England, authorise ing you and with all charging and requiring you to use all power and means necessary for the preserving of any our rights within the Said hundred either upon the Land or water, and to punish according to your discession with imprisonment or ffine not exceeding 1¹ Tobo [hwt. tobacco] with any Corporal Correction not extending to life or member any offenders against our sd rights and Specially Such as Shall destroy or disturb our game of Hernes upon Herne Island, by unlawfull takeing either of the fowl or Eggs or by Shooting upon or near the Said Island, and to take to your own use, the Guns netts or any other Instruments used by any offenders to the disturbance or destruction of any our game as aforesd and to apprehend and Send to St Maries All unlawfull traders with the Indians and Specially Such as Shall give or Sell to any Indian any arms or ammunition, And to See that the Inhabitants of the Said hundred be provided of necessary and Sufficient arms for their defence upon all occasions, and to doe all other things necessary for the Execution of any the powers hereby Comitted unto you Given at St Maries Wittness Leon (Archives of Maryland, Proceedings of the Council, Vol. 3:89-90)

John ROBINSON was appointed High Constable the same date and on 9 Nov 1640, ROBINSON was advised that he, William BROUGH and John WORTLEY would be required to take the "Oath of Viewers" (oath of office). (ibid.)

The initial St. Clements patent was for only 1,030 acres, but was resurveyed in 1642 and the acreage increased to 6,000. Following GERRARD'S death in 1673, it was again resurveyed, this time for his son and heir, Justinian GERRARD, by which time it totalled over 11,000 acres.

Thomas GERRARD, Lord of St. Clements Manor and son of John and Isabel GERARD, was baptised 10 Dec 1608 at Winwick Parish, New Hall, Lancashire, England, died 19 Oct 1673 in Westmoreland County, Virginia; married (1) Susannah SNOW, daughter of Justinian, and (2) Rose, widow of John TUCKER. His land holdings numbered in the tens of thousands of acres, and court records show that he closely watched and protected his estate very much in the manner of a "Lord of the Manor."

GERRARD was Catholic, a surgeon and planter, and member of the Governor's Council and Provincial Assembly. In 1660, his involvement in Josiah FENDALL'S "rebellion" resulted in banishment, and although his estates were ultimately returned to him, he spent his final years across the Potomac River in Westmoreland County, Virginia.

Those whose names appear in the fragments of St. Clement's manorial records are only a small percentage of the whole (as is attested to by levies, rent rolls and land records). The only Combs to appear, for example, is in 1672, Abraham COMBS who came to St. Mary's County from Old Rappahannock County, Virginia between 1668 and 1670. Not in these records is Phillip COMBES, whom Thomas GERRARD fired, and then sued, in 1664-1665 (see below), and undoubtedly many others.

The manorial records records for St. Clements, even though only fragments, are the only extant Maryland leet and baron records, and they not only provide genealogical "clues" for researchers, but insight into the cultural history of the times. In his Preface to these records, Archives Editor J. Hall Pleasants adds:

The proceedings of the court leet and court baron of St. Clement's Manor in St. Mary's County are extant in the form of two fragments of the original record. Both portions bear the same watermark and perhaps are remnants of a single record book. The last page is blank and it has the appearance of an outside page of a coverless booklet. The eight folios carry 14 pages of records, representing five court sessions. The earliest of these was in 1659 and the latest in 1672. On the fifth folio are plantation memoranda written in 1685 on a page that the court clerks had left blank. Two entries state amounts owed to negro help and one relates to horse breeding.

The following entries are as originally written excepting having foregone some formatting, and the capitalization of surnames. Mr. Pleasants used italics to indicate source text was in damaged condition, and that has been retained. Because "old style" words, abbreviations and letters were used, a partial list of "correctly spelled" words can be found at the end of this report, whose primary function is to serve as a finding aid for researchers and search engines.

Researchers are also reminded that some words have different meanings today than in the seventeenth century, and of course, some words are no longer in use at all, examples being resiant, which is from old English Law and means "continually dwelling or abiding in a place; resident or a resident," and another essoine meaning excused from attendance (Black's Law). Abraham COMBES was listed as a resiant in 1672, indicating that he owned no land (freehold) in the manor at the time.

Following the manor proceedings are selected extractions from St. Clement Manor rent rolls and other records and notes, including about some of those appearing within these records, as well as some who do not.

Sincerely,

Combs &c. Research Group

Edited and proofed from the Archives of Maryland, Volume LIII, Proceedings of the court leet and court baron of St. Clement's Manor in St. Mary's County, 1659-1672, J. Hall Pleasants, Editor, Maryland Historical Society, 1936, pp. 627-637

Additional St. Clements Hundred Records and Notes

In March of 1663/4, one Phillip COMBS contracted with Thomas GERARD to serve as his overseer. Phillip was probably already residing in Maryland, most likely in Charles County since he had been transported to Maryland by Thomas STONE, s/o Gov. William and Verlinda GRAVES Stone) by 1656. In 1658, he had transported his wife, Elizabeth, and the position of overseer was probably quite a plum. Unfortunately, the arrangement with Thomas GERARD was not a success:

On 19 Jul 1665, at St. Mary's County, Maryland Court, Thomas GERARD demanded a writ be issued against Philip COMBES "in an accon uppon his Case to the uallue of 3000 lb tobbs [tobacco] July 19th Warrt to sherriffe of St Marys County To arrest &c Ret. 10th Octobr next Prouinciall Court." The demand was accompanied by a forceful indictment:

To the Honble the Gouvernor & Councell of the Prouince of Maryland
The humble petn of Thomas GERRARD agst Philip COMBES –

Most humbly sheweth

That whereas yor petr formerly (that is to say) in the yeare of Our Lord 1663 in the Month of March did agree and Contract wth the said Philip COMBES to serue yor petr for the yeare then next ensueing as his Ouerseer for and untill the prfecting and finishing of one Cropp of tobaccoe and doeing and prforming of other Seruices and Labours, by vertue whereof the said COMBES into the said seruice Entred dureing which aforesaid time of his seruice he had & receiued of and from yo petr seuerall Goods and merchandizes: and allsoe the said COMBES did otherwise dampnifye yor petr during his said seruice to the uallue of Two thowsand pounds of tobacco, soe that yor Petr was made worse and had damage by the said COMBES the sume and quantity of two thowsand fower hundd and seauenty pounds of tobaccoe and Caske, all which yor petr hath often in freindly manner requested the sd COMBES to pay which he the said COMBES hath heitherto refused to doe and still doth refuse to yor petitionrs damage of three thowsand pounds of tobaccoe and Caske –

May it therefore please yor Honnors to Consider the prmises and grant yor petitioner Ordr against the said COMBES for his damages aforesaid his Costs – And as in duty bound (Maryland Archives 49:462)

On 18 Oct 1665, the St. Mary's sheriff having apparently failed to serve Phillip, Thomas GERRARD demanded a second writ, this one for Charles County (in addition to St. Mary's), "of one accon, 18th being the same formerly entred agst COMBES being an accon uppon his Case to the uallue of 3000 lb tob: warrts to the sherriffe of St Marys and Charles County to Arrest &c Ret. 2d January next Prouinall Court. Copies of the former petn deliuered each sherriffe." (Archives of Maryland, Vol. 49:525)

On 22 Mar 1665/66, Thomas GERARD again demanded a "writt agst Philip COMBES in an accon of the Case to the uallue of Three Thowsand pounds of tobacco – another Warrt issued to the sherr St Marys County to arrest &c Ret: 3d Aprill next" (Archives of Maryland, Vol. 57:10)

The "end of the story" is not yet known, Thomas having failed to appear at the April session. Phillip may have "left town" for a short period since he also claimed transport of him self in 1664, but he seems to have remained in Charles County, or at least until 1670 when "Philip COOMES of St Maryes County in the Province of Maryland plantr" sold "Coomes Purchase" in Charles County to John ALLEN (although it was later somehow partly acquired by Col. Peter SAYER of Talbot County, and much later still by descendants of Richard COOMBS, Sr. of Charles County).

It is not yet known whether Phillip COMBS was related to either or both Abraham COMBS of the manorial records or Enoch COMBS who also apparently lived in St. Mary's during part of the 1600s (see below).

Abraham COMBS of 1672 St. Clements transported himself and daughter Sarah COMBS (who later married Robert CLARKE), between 1668 and 1670 from Old Rappahannock County, Virginia. On 1 Sep 1679 Abraham COMBS of St. Mary's assigned to Clement HILL of St. Mary's, Gent, the right of 100 acres due him for transporting "myself and my daughter Sarah COMBE," as witnessed by Richard and Luke GARDINER. Whether this was simply the right of 100 acres, or if Abraham also deeded specific acreage to HILL is not known. That Abraham was still (or again) residing in St. Clement's Hundred as late as 5 Nov 1681 is presumed from an entry in the Journal of the Upper House of the Assembly of Maryland on that date:

Then read a Petition from Diverse the Inhabitants above the head of Wicocomoco River and Divers other parts of this Province Praying an Act of Assembly for Building houses Convenient by the Water Side for Sheltering Tobaccos of the Forresters either at the Charge of the Forresters or owners of the Land, by a Jury to be Asscertained at what rates

A Letter also to Mr CARVILE one of the Members of the Lower house to speak to the Same Subscribed by James BOWLING, Thomas MUDD, Richard LLOYD, William BOARMAN Junr, John DENT, William ROSEWELL, Thomas TURNER, Thomas MARSHALL, Abraham COOMBES, and Thomas GRUNWIN

Mr GERRARD being called Declares that he had already received Sufficient Damage by the Forresters bringing their Tobaccoes, by Seamen continually Lying at his house all the time of Shipping besides the Spoiling and throwing Down his Plantation and Fencing, that he had proposed unto them to Build them Houses Sufficient for Securing their Tobaccos, and be Answerable for the Same at ten pounds Tobacco pr hhd

Archives of Maryland, Vol. 7:224)

Shortly before his death, Abraham COMBS married Margaret, widow of Thomas BASSEN or BASSET and Edward FISHBECK (she afterward married a fourth time, to John VANRESWICK (aka RESWICK). Abraham wrote his will on 26 December 1684, naming both wife and daughter, witnessed by Clement HILL, Henry PAYNE, Thomas SWALE and Peter MILLS.

Of the others who appear in the above records, several are of interest, including Robert COLE to whom Joseph ALVEY was indentured in 1657, the Alvey-Archdale family having probably been Abraham's relatives (On 28 Mar 1668/9, the tract Knotting, "at a bound tree of Batchellors Rest," in St. Clements Hundred was surveyed for Joseph ALVEY (who was born in Knotting, Bedfordshire, England).

Another name of possible interest to Phillip COMBS research is that of Henry AWSBURY (ASBERRY in Paler vs. Robinson, Archives of Maryland, Vol. 67:378). Henry has not been found in other Maryland records yet, but in 1731 in Westmoreland County, Virginia, one Henry ASBURY and his son, Benjamin, were security, for Katherine, "wife of Phillip COMBS, deceased." A deed signed by Abraham COMBS early in 1683 was witnessed by John ALMOND and a Henry AWBREY [sic], perhaps a mis-transcription?

John FOXHALL, also a resident of St. Clements, later removed to Pope's Creek, Westmoreland County, Virginia, where his land was adjacent to that of the "County Line Combs" of Old Rappahannock and Richmond Counties, Virginia:

July 27th 1665 MD Provincial Court Proceedings. "Then came John FOXHALL and desires that this ensueinge paper may be recorded which he deliuers into the Office thus

This day came John FOXALL of St Marys County and in Clements mannor mercht and entred a Caueat against the Estate of Thomas WYLDE of Calvert County Docter and carurgine [doctor and surgeon] lying and dying at Richard SMYTHS in Leonards Creeke in the said County for Two thowsand pounds of tob: and Caske due from the said WYLDE unto the sd FOXALL (Archives of Maryland, Vol. 49:466)

John FOXHALL was a merchant and may have retained two residences, one each in St. Mary's and Westmoreland, and it is even possible that Abraham COMBS' move to Maryland was precipitated by John FOXHALL

On 13 1678, a few years after the death of his father, Justinian GERARD resurveyed St. Clements Mannor, by which time it consisted of 11,400 "between Wiccocomoco River and Clements Bay." An added note at a later date by the rent taker states (paraphrased) "This Resurvey contains and includes as well the two parcels of land surveyed 2 Nov 1639, abt 950 acres, and surveyed 11 Dec 1641, abt 6000 acres, as also several other parcels which lay in that Neck of land of which Mr.

GERRARD bought out their titles." (undated rent roll, ca 1698-1707)

On 27 Mar 1651, the 1500 acre tract Basford Mannour had been surveyed for Tho: GERRARD and described as "on the east side Wiccocomoco river." An added note by the rent taker stated (paraphrased): This land upon resurvey found to be 4,000 acres. GERRARD sold it to Gov. NOTLEY who devised it to Lord Baltimore and Benja. BOZER [ROSER?], 300 acres of which, by the name of Batchelors Hope, His Lordship granted to Joshua DOYNE, now in possession of widow, remainder in his Llp's hand."

Joshua DOYNE died testate 1697-1698, and on 30 Aug 1715, Edward COLE's accounting of the estate of Nicholas POWER included a payment to Joshua DOYNE [Jr.] per "order Mrs. Jane DOYNE due from the decd for schooling his daughter." (St. Mary's Administrative Accounts, 1674-1720, folio. 138) On 6 Nov 1719, the nuncupative will of Thomas CLARK of St. Mary's County (brother of John CLARK, age 30) included a legacy to the "chapel at Mrs. Jean DOYNE'S." (MD Wills, 15:280)

On 1 Jul 1708, the 400 acre tract Notely Hall [sic] was surveyed for Henry WHARTON, "beg: at the mouth of a creek commonly called Bramly Cr & on the north side of said Cr and by the side of Wiccocomoe River." An added note by the rent taker states "Rent at 5% by his Ldps particular order & is part of St. Clements Manor." A deed from Thomas GERRARD to his son Justinian in 1662 further describes the location of this land, which was first divided from St. Clements, then resurveyed to include it again after GERRARD'S death: "Begining at Myawickes Creekes mouth and soe runinge upon the lyne of Mr Roberts SLYES Land or Plantacon called Bushwood unto the utmost extent of the said mann'r of the one side, and by the River of Wickocomaco of the other side up to Bramly Creekes mouth and soe up the said Creeke and up the branch thereof to a marked white oake with nine notches which boundeth the Land of Thomas NOTLEY and from the said tree runing upon a direct line North-East unto the utmost Extent if the aforesd mann'r into the woods Containing by Estimacon five hundred acres..." (Archives of Maryland, Vol. 49:580)

Postscript: In 1730, a private act was passed by the Provincial Assembly permitting release of entail of land in Prince George's County bequeathed to his daughter Jane DOYNE (by second wife, Jane) "and heirs of her body" by Joshua DOYNE of St. Mary's who died 4 Mar 1697/8. In return, Jane and her husband Henry WHARTON agreed to entail the "Land Called Notley Hall Alias Mannahoick Neck begining at the mouth of Bromley Creek and running up Wicocomoco River for Breadth thence for Length Eastwardly the whole Length of the Tract then as the Eastermost Lyne of the said Tract runs Southwardly to the Land Called Bromly thence with the Lyne or Lynes of the said Bromley to Bromley Creek thence down the said Creek to the begining to Contain three hundred and Sixteen Acres." (Archives of Maryland, Vol. 37:577-9)

On 16 Oct 1710, the 146 acre tract Neighborhood was resurveyed for Henry WHARTON, described as "beginning at a bounded hickory, the 2nd bounder of the said land." On 12 Sep 1712 in a letter from Lord Baltimore, then in England, to Charles CARROLL of Annapolis, Anne Arundel County, his newly-appointed agent, CALVERT wrote: "You are to grant to Henry WHARTON one hundred forty six acres called The Neighbourhood adjoining to Notley Hall in case the same belong to me." (Archives of Maryland, Vol. 73:132)

The above-noted Edward COLE had married Elizabeth SLYE, daughter of Robert and Susannah GERRARD Slye and widow of Luke GARDINER (s/o Luke and Elizabeth HATTON Gardner), and was likely the same Edward who was son to Robert COLE of the manorial records (to whom Joseph ALVEY was indentured). He was also the executor of the 1712 will of Nicholas POWER (aka POOR, POORE), husband of Sarah PYLE, daughter of Capt. Joseph PYLE, whose 1691 will had included bequests to Sarah of the 250 acre tract, Pyle's Discovery ("on the branch of St. Thomas" [Creek]), and 400 acres of St. Barbara's Addition. In 1708, the final accounting of the estate of Capt. PYLE by Anthony NEALE had included disbursements of "1/5 to Nicholas POWER in right of his wife, Sarah, daughter to the decd; two fifths paid to Wm. BOARMAN, Sr. and Luke GARDINER in the right of their wives, Mary and Ann, daughters to the decd... 2/5 to Elizabeth PILE, d/o the deceased and Joseph, s/o the deceased." (St. Mary's Administrative Accounts, p. 138). Nicholas' 1712 will included that his daughter, Mary, was to live with "Mrs. Jean DOYNE."

Capt. PYLE'S will had named no wife, but did name "brothers" Anthony NEALE and Thomas TURNER as co-executors. Anthony NEALE had married Elizabeth JOHNSON, d/o Emma LANGWORTH and her first husband, William JOHNSON; and Thomas TURNER was Emma's son by her second husband, Thomas TURNER (of the manorial records), by whom she also had a daughter, Mary, who apparently married Capt. PILE. Emma's brother James LANGWORTH had married Agnes JOHNSON, presumably related to William (not researched). Emma LANGWORTH married third William ROSWELL, also of the manorial records. The LANGWORTHS are also of interest to COMBS researchers due to the 1630 Oxfordshire, England will of William COMBE, which named his aunt, Chrion LANGWORTH of Devonshire. William was the son of John Margaret ARCHDALE Combe, the latter sister to Alice ARCHDALE Alvey.

THE GODFREY GROUP (SOMETIMES SPELLED GODFRY, GODFREE)

Back in 1976, I did a brief history of the Godfrey family as it related to Hannah Godfrey who married Randolph Randall Ward on 27 October 1859. It was sketchy. For one reason, or another, I did not have time to dwell on my copious notes. Now, in the early days of fall, twelve years later, I have practically slept with them. Who says funny things about foresight and hindsight? Way back, my foresight said, "Keep these notes, you'll want them someday." Recently, my hindsight said rather bluntly, "You've got those records – do the job!" After a few sassy replies to both my fore- and hindsight, I've done the job. At least I've done it to the best of my ability. Sure, there are some sins of omission, a few misplaced cousins, and some writing I couldn't read (mine).

Because the Godfreys of this line married into several families of importance to the Wards, I shall try to put them in separate categories. This was especially true in the small County of Camden, North Carolina. If a few slipped across a little water into Pasquotank County that was understandable. The Godfrey properties seemed to be close to the Willis Wilson family – and the Bells – and the Harrisons – and those everloving Cartwrights. In later years, those Cartwrights weren't any better than they had to be. I quote the late Dr. Elizabeth McPherson, who was with the Library of Congress for years (as well as historian for the National Organization of XVIIIth Century Colonial Dames) – "the Cartwrights were of ill repute." She was a delightful lady, and when she retired, she returned to her home in Camden. I shall probably quote her several times.

The Godfrey immigrant I cannot find. Among the Godfreys who came into the Peninsula of Virginia (Upper and Lower Norfolk Counties – including Isle of Wight) went to counties elsewhere in Virginia. I have one William Godfrey who came to Isle of Wight in 1640. He came alone. For our ancestor, who married in 1660, he couldn't have been the father. Our ancestor may be the immigrant, but he had to enter through another port. I have not checked all of them.

Our first ancestor was Matthew (the first name was torn in the record, and I had to do a little deduction) Godfrey. Matthew Godfrey was born about 1630, died 15 December 1671 (wills, pp. 57-58). In 1650, he married Sarah Porten, both of Norfolk County, Virginia. They had five children:

1. Matthew Godfrey, born in 1652, died about 1705. It is believed that he stayed in Norfolk or Princess Anne County. Matthew Godfrey's name appears frequently in the court records and parish records of Norfolk County.
2. Jonathan (or John) Godfrey, born in 1655. According to references, he went to Perquimans County, North Carolina. Nothing more is known about him. Mrs. Winslow's book on the early settlers of Perquimans may offer information on him.
3. Warren Godfrey, born in 1657, died April 1712, married about 1677 to a person not identified. They had ten children:
 - 1a. John Godfrey, born 1679, died August 1708 (WB:51, 200) married Mary Nichols (p. 83) and they had seven children:
 - 1b. William Godfrey, born 1699. He and his brother
 - 2b. Matthew Godfrey, born 1700, both inherited land on North-west River.
 - 3b. Amey Godfrey, born 1701, married Capt. Hutchings.
 - 4b. Anne Godfrey, born 1704, married Capt. Nathaniel Tatem. (The marriage was witnessed by Capt. William Wood, William Godfrey, and James Cox.)

Nathaniel and Anne had four children:

 - 1c. Nathaniel Tatem, Jr., born ca. 1725.
 - 2c. John Tatem, born ca. 1727.
 - 3c. Trimmingham Tatem, born ca. 1729

- 4c. Love Tatem, born ca. 1731.
- 5b. Mary Godfrey, born ca. 1704, married James Whitehurst (witness, Daniel Godfrey).
- 6b. Arthur Godfrey, born ca. 1706. He left land near Willis Wilson, in Camden County, N.C.
- 7b. Dinah Godfrey, born ca. 1708.
- 2a. Warren Godfrey, Jr., born ca. 1679, married and had one child:
 - 1b. Jonathan Godfrey, born ca. 1702, died May 1744/5, married a Mary about 1722. They had six children:
 - 1c. Sarah Godfrey, born 1724.
 - 2c. Amy (Amey) Godfrey, born 1726, married a Eusfen or Eusten (p. 300).
 - 3c. Elizabeth Godfrey, born 1728.
 - 4c. John Godfrey, born 1730, married and had one child:
 - 1d. John Godfrey, Jr., d. Feb. 1753 leaving no issue (p. 200). He left legacies to brother Matthew Godfrey, brother William Godfrey (land in Pasquotank Co., N.C.), and sister Amey Eusten (or Eusfen).
 - 5c. William Godfrey, born 1732.
 - 6c. Matthew Godfrey, born 1735.
- 3a. Peter Godfrey, born ca. 1681.
- 4a. Matthew Godfrey, born ca. 1683, died May 1717 (p. 57), married Isabella. No issue. He left an interesting will which is given in part next, naming:
 - Cousin:* Matthew Godfrey, son of brother John.
 - Cousin:* Joseph Perry, land in Currituck, N.C.
 - Cousin:* Thomas Perry.
 - Sister* Jackson's children (doesn't identify them).
 - Cousins:* William Godfrey, Anne Tatem, Amy Hutchings.
 - Cousins:* Randle, Thomas, James Egerton.

Cousins: Arthur Godfrey (son of John, deceased), land near Willis Wilson (son of Col. James Wilson), Camden County, N.C.

Cousin: Matthew Godfrey, son of brother Warren; Negro Toney (if he has no heirs, then to Malbones).

Son-in-law: James Wilson (the term "son-in-law" in the old records does not always mean the husband of a daughter; it often meant stepson)

Brothers: Warren Godfrey and John Godfrey, the plantation near the North River (Norfolk County).

Sister: Elizabeth Murphee (Murphy).

Cousin: Dinah Godfrey, daughter of Cousin John Godfrey, deceased

5a. Daniel Godfrey, Sr., born ca. 1685, died October 1716 (p. 47), married Leale in 1705, and had three children:

1b. Abigail (Abigail) Godfrey, born ca. 1707.

2b. Daniel Godfrey, Jr., born ca. 1710. He came to Camden County about 1730. He had seven children:

1c. Malachi Godfrey, born ca. 1730, died 1821 (WB-C), m. (1) a Lydia; m. (2) Hester () Portlock, a widow. Malachi sold to James Godfrey land near Willis Wilson, part of his father's plantation. He had two girls:

1d. Welthy Godfrey, b. ca. 1760s.

2d. Mary Godfrey, b. ca. 1760s.

2c. James Godfrey, born ca. 1734.

3c. William Godfrey, born ca. 1736, married and had one girl:

1d. Elizabeth, "Betsy," Godfrey.

4c. Samuel Godfrey, born ca. 1738. (He had land next to Wilson's.)

5c. Thamer Godfrey, born 1742, died 1822. Her will is the earliest recorded in Camden County, N.C. (WB C). D.S.P. Her will names brothers Samuel, William, James, Malachi; Polly Snowden (Willis Wilson's sister), Betsy the daughter of William and Welthy the daughter of Malachi Godfrey. Willis Wilson, neighbor, was executor with James Godfrey. Note: She did not mention brothers Abner and Lemuel – not unusual.

- 6c. Abner Godfrey, born ca. 1743, married and had at least three children:
 - 1d. Jacob Godfrey, b. ca. 1760s. He had land near Willis Wilson, and paid taxes in Pasquotank County, N.C., in 1769 and 1782.
 - 2d. John Godfrey, b. ca. 1760s; paid taxes in Pasquotank County, N.C., in 1782.
 - 3d. Abner Godfrey, Jr., b. ca. 1760s; he was in Camden, N.C. and was often involved with his uncle Lemuel.
- 7c. Lemuel Godfrey, born ca. 1745, died ca. 1805, married ca. 1765 Hannah Gardner (daughter of James Gardner, schoolmaster in Camden, and Deborah Taylor of Chowan who was daughter of John Taylor and Sarah Penrice of Chowan). Their first land transaction is recorded in DB 1, p. 41. They had seven children:
 - 1d. Abigail Godfrey, b. ca. 1770, married 10 April 1798, in Pasquotank County, N.C., William Cartwright.
 - 2d. George Godfrey, b. ca. 1772; involved in land transaction between Edmund and sister Nancy Godfrey.
 - 3d. Nancy (Ann) Godfrey, b. ca. 1774.
 - 4d. Enoch Godfrey, b. ca. 1775; sold land of his father to Edmund Godfrey.
 - 5d. Dempsey Godfrey, b. ca. 1777.
 - 6d. Deborah Godfrey, b. ca. 1780.
 - 7d. Edmund S. Godfrey, b. 1797 (differs from 1850 census and the deposition he gave in Norfolk County, and I really think it was 1787). Married by

In a nutshell, for those tracing the lineage of Hannah Godfrey, the following

Matthew Godfrey and Sarah Porten
to Warren Godfrey, Sr.
to
Daniel Godfrey, Sr., and Leale
to Daniel Godfrey, Jr.
to Lemuel Godfrey and Hannah Gardner
to Edmund S. Godfrey and Lydia Guilford Bell
to
Hannah Godfrey and Randolph Randall Ward

There were several Godfreys, who operated in Camden County in the same time span as our family. From whence they came and where they went is not known. It is highly possible they descended from some of Warren Godfrey, Sr.'s sons. Several of his sons left no wills.

Or, they could have descended from the Francis Godfrey and wife, Joane, who came into old Albemarle District in November 1675, and had two sons, William and John Godfrey.

Note: Back in the XVIIth and early XVIIIth Century, the area north of the Albemarle Sound was referred to as "Ye Counties of Albemarle." The counties were divided into three precincts: Carteret Precinct included the present counties of Currituck, Camden, and Pasquotank. Berkley Precinct is now Perquimans County. Shaftesbury Precinct is now Chowan County. Later on, Carteret Precinct included the present-day counties of Beaufort and Carteret. It is important to know that –I know of at least one published book on the Guilfords (given to the XVIIth Century Colonial Dames), where an error was made on the Carteret Precinct. Once more I quote the late Dr. Elizabeth McPherson, "Mrs. Cook did not know the history-geography of North Carolina."

In 1679, Francis Godfrey was in Pasquotank County. Nothing more appears about Francis Godfrey, but from 1693 to 1775 there are some transactions of a William, John, and Peter Godfrey. It seems likely the William and John Godfrey were the children (or grandchildren) of Francis and Joane Godfrey. In their land transactions, the property bounds were not the same (or close) to those in our Godfrey line. As late as the 1950s and 60s, there were not many Godfreys in Camden County.

There are two items in Hathaway's Colonial Records of North Carolina, vol. 1, that might be of interest.

- (1) "Before 1669, no person of mixed blood, under the fourth generation, can be a witness."
- (2) In 1669, "No man can be a free man of Carolina, or have an estate, who does not acknowledge God."

Knowing it is difficult to remove a law once it is in the Code, I wonder! North Carolina, do you still carry those laws in your musty Codes? Someday I'm going to check it out – just for fun.

The article I'm going to transcribe next, belongs in two places. That would be redundant. It is about the daughter of Littleton G. Davis and his wife, Martha (Chappel) Davis. The article was sent to me by a granddaughter of that couple (Linda Ward Munden of Norfolk, Virginia). Linda had received it from Mrs. Glendale Scott of Roanoke, Va. Glendale Scott's great-grandmother was the sister of Hannah (Godfrey) Ward. Therefore, I'm placing it with the Godfrey family.

A page from an autograph and miscellaneous book belonging to my grandmother – Lydia Frances McPherson Saunders (daughter of David and Ellen Godfrey McPherson).

CHAPTER XII

THE CONSOLVO FAMILY OF SPANISH DESCENT

The Consolvo family located in Princess Anne County, Virginia, some time around 1660. From early records and traditions the family is of Spanish origin.¹

On the 10th of February, 1686, in Perquimans precinct, Albemarle County, North Carolina, Lawrence Consolvo was a witness to the sale of a plantation of John Philpott of Yoepim River to Alexander Moore.²

In 1687 he made a will and mentioned wife and children. This was witnessed by William Privett, William Stewart, and Richard Williams.³

There was an indenture made January 3, 1689 by and between Elinor Asbim and Sarah Consolvo, both of Albemarle County, Perquimans precinct, North Carolina, in which Elinor Asbim bound her daughter, Elizabeth Parker, to Sarah Consolvo for nine years. She was to find sufficient clothes, washing, . . . and other necessities belonging to an apprentice, and was to teach her to read and write and do all necessary things. . . .

Signed:

Witnesses:

John Fisher

Thomas Houghbon

Elinor Asbim

Elizabeth Parker

Sarah Consolvo⁴

In his will, made September 10, 1693, John Johnson mentioned wife Sarah and son-in-law Lawrence Consolvo.⁵

Hannah Consolvo, daughter of Lawrence Consolvo (Consolvo) of Perquimans precinct, married Furnifold Green.⁶ She had formerly married a Smithwick and had a daughter, Ann Smithwick. Captain Farnfold Green was killed by the Tuscarora Indians in 1714; and Hannah Consolvo (Smithwick) Green married Captain Richard Graves, Surveyor, the same year. He died in 1730.⁷

In January, 1699, at court held in the precinct of Perquimans, Albemarle County, North Carolina, Ffornefold Green acknowledged a deed of sale for a tract of land in Yoepim up ye Indian Creek to William Long. The deed is dated 1699 and can be found in North Carolina Colonial Records, Volume 1, page 521.

In his will, made 1698, Lawrence Consolvo mentioned only his father-in-law and mother. It was witnessed by Alice Chew, Mary

Norcum, and Sam Blanck;⁸ but in Perquimans County, North Carolina, is this joint deed:⁹

"Know all men that I, James Hogg, with Ann, my wife, and Thomas Pierce with Mary, his wife, and I Fornyfeild Green, with Hannah, my wife, for and in consideration of forty pounds received, we jointly and severally, sell to William Long of the county of Albemarle our interest in tract of land of Lawrence Consolvo, lately deceased, containing two hundred fifty acres of land lying in a Creek called Indian Creek in Yoepim River, Precinct Perquimans, County of Albemarle, Province of North Carolina. Dated August 15, 1698, and registered January, 1699.

James Long James Hogg Mary Pierce
Thomas Long Ann Hogg Fornyfeild Green
William Keeter Thomas Pierce Hannah Green."

There is a deed recorded in Carteret County, North Carolina, from Daniel Shine and Elizabeth Shine, his wife, to Benjamin Baldwin, land patented by Farnfold Green on November 11, 1713, and by his will given to his beloved wife, Hannah Green, and transferred by her to her beloved daughter, the said Elizabeth Shine. The deed was dated February 8, 1730/1.¹⁰

The Humphrey lineage through the Consolvo family comes down as follows:

Lawrence Consolvo, born about 1626, died 1687. He married Sarah ———.

Lawrence Consolvo, born about 1650, died 1698. He married Miss Johnson.

Hannah Consolvo, born about 1675, died after 1730. She married Farnfold Green, born May 30, 1674, died 1714.

Elizabeth Green, born about 1692, married May 15, 1715, Major Daniel Shine, born about 1690, died after 1757.

Colonel Daniel Shine, born May 10, 1729, died 1801. He married Barbara Franck, born about 1730, died about 1825.

Polly (Mary) Shine, born about 1760, died February 1829. She married George Shackelford, born January 19, 1759, died 1802.

Susan Shackelford, born about 1788. She married Whitehead D. Humphrey I, born about 1787, died 1826.

Whitehead D. Humphrey II, born January 20, 1817, died August 18, 1862. He married, May 4, 1837, Eliza Jane Sylvester, born July 23, 1819, died December 25, 1871.

George Franklin Humphrey, born December 12, 1851, died February 15, 1891. He married, February 11, 1875, Marendra Anne Thomas, born March 15, 1856, died April 11, 1934.

W. D. Humphrey, born March 5, 1876.

At the Elizabeth City Court House, Pasquotank County, North Carolina, there is a deed recorded from Andrew Gonsolvo, of Currituck County, and Jane Gonsolvo, wife, formerly Jane Britnell, sister of William Britnell and next of kin to said William Britnell, deceased, to William Gregory, of Pasquotank County, a plantation on the northeast side of Pasquotank River containing fifty acres of land formerly the property of Charles Grandees and transferred by him to said Britnell in 1709. The consideration was twenty-five pounds. The deed was registered July, 1722.¹¹

Charles Gonsolvo, mariner, of Norfolk County, Virginia, made a will on September 28, 1766 and gave negroes to the son and daughter of Charles Smyth of Princess Anne County, Virginia.¹²

A worthy representative of the Gonsolvo name still lives in Virginia. About him this has been written:

"Colonel Charles H. Gonsolvo, member of the Select Council of Norfolk, occupies a prominent place in the esteem of his fellow citizens. He was born in Norfolk, Virginia, February 9, 1871, and is a scion of a prominent old Virginia family. . . . His parents died when he was young and he was reared by his aunts who educated him at St. Johns Academy. . . . He became interested in politics before attaining his majority and has been an able representative in Norfolk life. . . . Will Rogers, famous comedian, was a close friend of Colonel Gonsolvo, who enjoys friendships with many others nationally prominent. . . . He is the active head of the two Gonsolvo Hotels in Virginia, The Monticello, in Norfolk, and The Jefferson, in Richmond, and until recently, The Belvedere, in Baltimore, Maryland, and is known as the dean of the Hotel World. . . . He is also interested in the Gonsolvo and Chesire Outdoor Advertising Company. . . . In 1910 Colonel Gonsolvo gained his title when Governor Mann, of Virginia, appointed him Paymaster General of the Virginia Militia with the rank of Colonel. In 1913, his friend Governor Eberhart of Minnesota appointed him as aide-de-camp on the Governor-General's staff with the rank of Colonel, swearing allegiance to Minnesota after Virginia."

CAPTAIN THOMAS GRAVES

1608 Settler of Jamestown, Virginia and His Descendants (ca. 1580-1998)

INTRODUCTION

There are numerous questions about descendants of Capt. Thomas Graves. There is often inadequate documentation and differences of opinion about the interpretation of the evidence that does exist. Several of these issues have been addressed in an Appendix to this genealogy. They include:

Richard Graves (34) left Essex Co., Va. between 1708 and 1714 (Essex O.B. 1708-14, pp. 608-609). He and Francis Shackelford had bought a sloop in partnership and they probably engaged in coastwise trade. Richard apparently died about 1730, since this seems to be the Richard Graves of Craven Precinct, N.C., who in his will, dated 11 April 1730, referred to nephews "Richard and Francis, sons of brother Thomas Graves in Virginia." In the Essex Order Book mentioned above, Francis Graves (Richard's brother) testified in Sept. 1714 that, since leaving Essex Co., Richard had sent him a small Indian boy in payment for a debt.

Richard took a prominent part in the affairs of Craven Precinct and was a person of recognized ability. In 1726 he represented the Precinct in the Lower House of the Assembly of N.C. (Colonial Records of N.C., vol. 2, p. 528).

He married Hannah Consolvo, daughter of Lawrence Consolvo. She had first been married to Farnifold Green. (R-507)

Thomas Graves (35) was born about 1684-5, and died about 1742-3. He married Elizabeth Moody, daughter of John Moody and Mary -----, about 1708-10. She was born about 1690 and died about 1739.

From the will of Thomas' brother Richard, we know that Thomas had sons Richard and Francis. There seem to be no documents in Essex Co. that prove other children, but from the fact that John Graves qualifies as administrator we consider him the oldest son. He was not a son of either Francis or Richard, as their wills show, and his birth is too early for him to have been a grandson. By elimination, therefore, he was a son of Thomas. (R-23, R-507)

He married soon after HANNAH KENT SMITHWICK widow of John Smithwick of Bath County, N.C., who died testate (with a will) in 1696 naming his wife "Hanna" and daughter "Sarah" (Ann?) as his beneficiaries. John and Hannah were Quakers.
(Grimes p.349)

Farnifold Green and his wife Hannah, appear frequently among the early records of Bath County (later, Beaufort). One of the earliest transactions is that of 15 August 1698 when Fornyfeild Green and wife Hannah, James Hogg and wife Ann, Thomas Pierce and wife Mary, for 40 sell to William Long (all four men are brothers-in-law) their interest of 250 acres of land of Lawrence Consolvo, deceased. Land lays by a creek called Indian Creek in Yeopim River, Perquimaimans Precinct, Albermarle County, NC Deed registered Jan 1699.
(Perquimans Co./Beaufort Co. Book 1 page 9)

1 July 1701, Furnifold Green deeds to James Hogg (his brother-in-law) part of entry of land made by him 2 April 1698.
(Beaufort Co. records at Washington, N.C., Book I p.3)

9 September 1701, Furnefold Green has 550 acres surveyed and laid out for him for the transportation of 15 persons.
(Beaufort Co. Book I p.6)

12 December 1701, Furnifold Green "lays five rites upon an entry made by sonne Thomas on 17 Nov 1701, land called Nonowarrittsa.
(Beaufort Co. Court Records, Book I p.9)

7 July 1706, Furnifold Green and wife Hannah sell land to Christopher Dawson on Neuse River.
(Beaufort Co. Court Records, Book I, p. 101)

1707, Lord's Proprietors grant 1700 acres to Farnifold Green on the north side of the Neuse River, now Craven County, N.C.

27 June 1708, Furnifold Green and his wife Hannah, of Parish of St. Thomas in Ardel, Bath County, sell land to Christopher Dawson.

8 October 1708, Furnifold Green sells land to John Putnall witnessed by Christopher Dawson
(Beaufort Co. Court Records Book I, p.103)

A little historical background to our story: Note that in 1708 Furnifold and Hanah are of Parish of St. Thomas, Bath County. St. Thomas Parish was formed in 1701 soon after the Church of England was designated as the established church of the province. It was the recipient of a collection of 1,000 books and was for a long time the only public library in North Carolina, which was unique for a frontier settlement, and became the pride of St. Thomas Church. The volumes, neatly bound in gold-tooled leather, were a combination of parochial and laymen's selections covering subjects including history, biography, natural sciences, medicine, geography, classical literature, poetry, heraldry and sports, as well as those of a religious nature.

St. Thomas Parish was slow to take physical shape, though it had a library, a plot set aside for a church, and the colony's only "Glebe" of 300 acres (Glebes were farms set aside for the use of Anglican Ministers), which had been granted to the parish in 1706 to encourage the settlement of a Church of England Minister at Bath. Except for an occasional visit from a clergyman, St. Thomas Church did not acquire its first minister until 1719, and construction of St. Thomas Church was not begun until 1734.

For decades the Society of Friends (Quakers) was the sole representative of organized religion in Bath. In the early days most dissenters from the Anglican faith were the Quakers established in the colony in 1672.

Conflict between politically motivated religious factions had been long brewing and finally erupted into armed warfare known as the Cary Rebellion. The English concept of a state-church being the issue at stake signifying the beginning Of the separation of church and state in North Carolina.

The Quakers were firmly entrenched in the colony dominating all branches of government and when the requirement for declaring loyalty to the Church of England was reinstated, Quakers were barred from office because of their religious conviction.

They had previously been exempt from swearing an Oath of Allegiance to the Crown. Governor Thomas Cary showed a preference for the Quaker side and he and the Quakers ruled the province in an atmosphere of tension from 1708 to 1711, until the Lord's Proprietors appointed Edward Hyde as Deputy Governor of North Carolina and the opposing governments battled until Cary's rebellion collapsed.

This disrupting effect of war nearly ceased government and the courts during the 3 years of debate and bloodshed. Coupled with a severe drought in the summer of 1711, as well as the raging epidemic of yellow fever, the settlement was left weak and exhausted and vulnerable to attack by the Indians, who meanwhile were gathering strength with guns and ammunition. The dominant Indian power in eastern North Carolina was that of the Tuscaroras who at first were friendly to the white settlers. As the settlers increasingly moved onto the Indians's land, kidnapping and enslaving their people and subjecting them to insulting treatment, resentment and hatred of the settlers of Bath County developed and intensified, culminating in the decision to destroy all settlers and their plantations and crops. The Tuscaroras, under their leader King Hancock, struck 22 September 1711, and for three days slaughtered over 190 whites, taking prisoner 20 to 30 settlers who were living along the Pamlico, Neuse and Trent Rivers.

It was with this background of uncertainty and fear-, that Farnifold Green and others made out their wills, Farnifold's the 26th of October 1711. The Indians for the next three years would raid three or four families at a time, retreating into the swamps making it impossible to follow them. This problem continued until the government finally turned from the policy of extermination of the hostiles, to one of peaceful agreement. On 11 February 1715, a treaty of peace was made with the surviving hostile Indians and they were assigned a reservation on Lake Mattamuskeett in Hyde County, thus ending the Tuscarora War, however, too late for our Farnifold Green who was massacred in 1714 at age 40.

Furnifold Green, Planter, made out his will 26 October 1711 and it is recorded in Book 2 p.10 of the old Bath County records. He divided his many acres of land and plantations between his sons and daughters when they reached the age of 18. He left the plantation he lived on to his wife Hannah, and 250 A. to his step-daughter Ann Smithwick.

A letter from Governor Pollock dated 3 October 1712 "apponts Furnifold Green to Captain, Commissary, to impress and supply the army with anything that is to be had in the County of Bath". At that time Bath County included what is now Craven, Beaufort, Carteret, Onslow, Pamlico, Lenoir, Greene, Wayne, Johnston and Wake Counties.

In 1714, Farnifold with his son Thomas, one white servant and two negroes, were murdered on his 1700 acre plantation by the Tuscarora Indians. Another son was shot through the shoulder but managed to escape. The plantation, house, stock of cattle and hogs, were plundered and entirely destroyed by the Indians.

His widow Hannah later married her third husband, Richard Graves, Surveyor and citizen of Craven precinct. He made the "Plat of Lots of Point Beaufort", now considered one of the most beautiful of the old towns of North Carolina. Richard Graves died in 1730 naming his wife Hannah Executrix.

CHAPTER X

CAPTAIN FURNIFOLD GREEN, KILLED BY TUSCARORA INDIANS, 1714

The year 1607 marked the founding of Jamestown. Southeast of this location on the eastern shore of Virginia, and adjacent to North Carolina, is the county of Nansemond, where Virginia adventurers planted a colony of about one hundred men. From these came some of the first settlers of Carolina. In 1653 Roger Green, clergyman, who ministered to the inhabitants of Nansemond, applied on behalf of himself and his parishoners for a grant of land.¹ In the Colonial Records of North Carolina we read that "upon the petition of Roger Green, 'clerke', on behalf of himself and the inhabitants of Nansemond River, it is ordered that 10,000 acres of land be granted unto 100 such persons who shall first seate (settle) on Moratuck or Roanoke river and the land lying upon the south side of Choan river and the branches thereof."² Only ministers of the Church of England were at that time called "clerkes."

Above the falls of the James River, at Manakin Town, Virginia, a colony of French Huguenots settled in 1690. Not being satisfied with the land which they first occupied, they moved southward, one group settling in Pamlico County, North Carolina, and another on the Trent and Neuse rivers in Craven County, North Carolina. Here the land was fertile, and freedom of worship was promised.³

French, Swiss, and German colonists settled in Craven precinct in Bath County in the years 1690, 1707, 1709, 1710. Fitch says: "This was the first important introduction into the eastern section of the Province of a most excellent class of liberty-loving people, whose descendants wherever their lots were cast in our country, gave illustrious proof of their valor and patriotism during the Revolutionary War."⁴

"The Palatines and Swiss, . . . industrious, religious, mild of temperament, established in Carolina a new spirit of freedom and formed a new and improved society. . . . Descendants of these figured greatly in the early history of North Carolina. . . . Some held the leading places in public life. . . . Their value to the province, in a political, religious, or social view cannot be overestimated. . . . Besides the Palatines and Swiss, in the same year, 1710, a colony of Welsh Quakers settled on the south side of Neuse River in Craven County."⁵

Farneffold Green was born May 30, 1674, in St. Stephen's Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia, the son of Timothy Green, who married Anne Farneffold, the daughter of John Farneffold. John Farneffold was a minister of St. Stephen's Parish and of Fairfield Parish who came to Virginia before August 2, 1672. Titus Green, brother of Farnefold, was born November 27, 1676.⁶ Farnefold Green married Hannah Consolvo Smithwick, widow, daughter of Lawrence Consolvo. They came to North Carolina and settled near Oriental, now in Pamlico County, but at that time known as Bath (1693-1722). In a list of those who came to North Carolina in 1697, the name of Farnefold Green is included.⁷

At a court held in the precinct of Perquimans in North Carolina, January, 1699, Ffarnefold Green acknowledged a deed of sale for a tract of land in Yoapim up ye Indian Creek to William Long.⁸

In the records of Beaufort County, in the courthouse at Washington, North Carolina, in Book I, page 3, Furnifold Green made over to James Hogg part of entry of land by him made ye 2nd of April, 1698. This was signed July 1, 1701. James Hogg married a sister of Hannah, wife of Furnifold Green.

The following is taken from the Beaufort County records, Book I, page 6, at Washington, North Carolina:

"To the Surveyor Genril or his Dep m: These are in ye name of his Exc. ye Pallatine and Lords Proprietors, to will and require you to survey and lay out for Furnefold Green 550 acres of land which is due to him for ye transportation of divers Persons whose names are under written and return the warrant with ye survey into ye Secretary's Office; hereof fail not of ye Colony ye 9th day of September 1701. Ap of N. Chevin, Abraham Leeds and Elizabeth Leeds, Elizabeth Leeds, Jun. and Sarah Leeds, Martha Leeds . . . Nat. Hall; . . . ary Garrett . . . Jane Leeds; Wm. Hosea . . . Jon Grimes; . . . ntice Leeds; Henderson Walker; Samuel Swann; Francis Gomez; Wm. Glover."

"Know all men yt. I, Furnifold Green, do lay six of ye aforementioned rites upon ye land I now am settled upon and ye other five I do lay upon an entry made by my sonne Thomas November 17, 1701. The foregoing warrant and Rites upon an entry by me made ye 12th December 1701, the said land called Nonowarrittsa."⁹

Furnifold Green and wife Hannah of Neuse River in the county of Bath, North Carolina, for the sum of 45 pounds paid by John Fulford of Currituck, county of Albemarle, sold five hundred acres of land on April 15, 1704. Robert Whitehurst and Humphrey Legge were witnesses.¹⁰

Furnifold Green and Hannah, wife, sold land to Christopher Dawson on Neuse River on July 7, 1706.¹¹

Furnifold Green and Hannah, wife, of Parish of St. Thomas in Ardel, in the county of Bath, sold land to Christopher Dawson on June 27, 1708. (Ibid.)

A letter from Governor Pollock, dated October 3, 1712, "appoints Furnifold Green Commissary to impress and supply the army with anything that is to be had in the county of Bath."¹² At that time Bath included what is now known as Craven, Beaufort, Carteret, Onslow, Pamlico, Lenoir, Greene, Wayne, Johnston, and Wake Counties.

Mention is made at the Council held in New Bern, October 16, 1749, of a grant of 110 acres by the late Lords Proprietors to Farnifold Green in Carteret County. At the Council in New Bern in 1750, mention is made of "1700 acres granted by the Late Lords Proprietors to Furnifold Green, situated in Craven County, on the north side of Neuse River."¹³

"Then came ynto Court Captain Farnifould Green and acknowledged his Right, Title and Interest of a parcel of land as followeth, Viz: Know all men by these presents yt I, Farnifould Green of Bath County yn News River Doe bargaine and sell unto Martine Frank of ye said same county and place his heirs Execrs., admrs., or assigns one Settlement Tract or parcell of land containing Two hundred and fifty acres lying and being yn Notinghams Neck and I Doe make over all my Right Titles and interest within mentioned to Martine Frank to him and his heirs exrs. admrs. or assigns to acknowledge ye same when agreed unto Martine Frank his heirs exrs. admrs. or assigns . . . fifteen pound Starling under my hand and Seal, This 23 Day of December 1712/3.

Given Sealed and witnessed

Farnefold Green

Richd. Whitehouse and Richard Williamson."¹⁴

Furnifold Green sold land to John Putnall on October 8, 1708. The witnesses were Christopher Dawson and Thomas Graves.¹⁵

Land was transferred to Joseph Bell from James Keith. This was patented by Furnifold Green and bequeathed to Hannah, his wife, "the then wife of Furnifold Green" who later intermarried with Richard Graves. The deed was dated March 12, 1723.¹⁶

Reference to the marriage of Hannah, wife of Captain Furnefold Green, killed by the Tuscarora Indians in 1714, to Richard Graves, citizen of Craven precinct, is also seen in Book D, page 5, Beaufort, Carteret County, and on page 91, "Richard Graves, Surveyor, October 2, 1713, made Plat of Lots in Point Beaufort." This is now one of the most beautiful of the old towns of North Carolina.

Furnifold and James Green, sons of Farnefold Green I, petitioned for a resurvey of land at New Bern Council, 1756; and the petition was granted. The following was extracted from Colonial Records of North Carolina, Volume V, pages 653-654. About the year of 1707 Furnifold Green, senior, father of Furnifold and James Green, obtained a grant of 1700 acres of land . . . on the north side of Neuse River, lying between two creeks, the one called Furnifold Green's Creek and the other then called Broad Creek and now known as Smith's Creek. In 1714, he with his son, one white servant, and two negroes, were murdered on said plantation by the Indians. These Indians also shot one of the other sons through the shoulder but he escaped. The plantation, house, stock of cattle and hogs were plundered and entirely destroyed by said Indians. Before that time he had made his will and disposed of said tract of land to the petitioners and this land they have enjoyed ever since the end of the Indian War. Furnifold Green was commissioned with the rank of Captain.

The will of Furnifold Green I, made in 1711, is recorded in Book 2, page 10, of the old records of Bath County, at the North Carolina Historical Commission. He mentioned a wife, Hannah, and her daughter, Ann Smithwick, called "Daughter-in-law" and his brother, Titus Green. He made bequests to his daughters Jane and Elizabeth and to his sons: John, Farnifold II, James, and Thomas.

"In the name of God, Amen, I, Farnefold Green in county of Bath and Province of North Carolina, Planter, being of a sound mind and perfect memory, but seriously considering ye frailty and uncertain state of ye life at all times, especially in ye dreadful times of Almighty God's visitation by Sword and fire under which we tremble and to which do humbly submit, I do make and ordain this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, vizt: . . . Tract of land whereon my now dwelling house stands with all its buildings, improvements and appurtenances, beginning at a Live Oak, with several Forks standing at ye upper side of ye first long gutt below my house, near ye north of ye gutt being with several marks; thence running up ye River to a corner pine betwixt me . . . Christopher Dawson, Esquire . . . thence into ye woods North until three-quarters mile from ye river be completed, thence to run $\frac{3}{4}$ mile from ye River to ye aforesaid Dawson's line. One Plantation and all my lands lying ye lower side of Broad Creek of ye north side of Neus River, near to Piney Points, and ye mouth of said River unto my son Thomas Green.

"A Plantation with a tract of land beginning at a Live Oak near ye mouth of ye gutt aforesaid, running down ye said River of Neus $\frac{3}{4}$ mile, then across ye woods north $\frac{1}{2}$ mile and from ye aforementioned Live Oak north one mile and from thence to ye end of ye lower half mile line, with all the improvements. . . .

"Tract of land being in ye lower side of ye first wood creek, above Capt. James Beard's Creek, beginning 1/4 mile above ye Indian Landing, by computation, thence down ye said Creek 1/2 mile with all ye Privileges . . . to my son, John Green . . . to my son . . . James Green, . . . to my daughters, Elizabeth and Jane Green.

"A tract of land beginning at my upper corner tree on ye creek and running down ye creek to ye first branch below the Plantation whereon brother Titus Green now lives, thence to ye head line parallel ye head line across to ye aforesaid . . . Dawson's line . . . to Titus Green.

"All ye rest of my land in Green's Neck, whereon I now live, I give to my sons, Farnefold and James Green, to be divided into equal parts by a line drawn from ye Northernmost corner of John Green's land to ye, viz., the upper part to Furnefold and ye heirs . . . reserving to James egress and regress into ye woods through Furnifold's part. And, also, I give unto my son, Farnefold, one tract of land lying in Green's Point Neck on ye north side of Neus River. . . .

"I give . . . unto my daughter-in-law (step-daughter) Ann Smithwick one tract of land lying on ye north side of Neus River, called Nottingham Points . . . 250 acres.

"I give . . . all lands not hereby before divided to my loving wife, Hannah Green.

"Lands, . . . to be given to sons when they shall be of the age of eighteen respectively.

Farnefold Green, Seal.

Executrix: Hannah Green

Witnesses: Titus Green, Edward Bredy, and Richard Fisher."

Mr. Ernest Mathews Green, attorney and author, Raleigh, North Carolina, also vice-president of the North Carolina Society of Cincinnati, is a descendant of this Green family. He stated, in a letter of October 19, 1937, that Roger Green, emigrant, and clergyman in 1653 in Eastern Virginia and North Carolina, was either the father or the uncle of Timothy Green, the father of Farnefold Green I.

The Humphrey lineage from the Green family is as follows:

Timothy Green, born about 1650. He married Anne Farnefold, born about 1656, died about 1680.

Captain Farnefold Green, born May 30, 1674, died 1714. He married Hannah Consolvo Smithwick.

Elizabeth Green, born about 1692, married May 15, 1715. She married Major Daniel Shine, born about 1690, died after 1757.

Colonel Daniel Shine, born May 10, 1729, died 1801. He married Barbara Franck, born about 1730, died about 1825.

Polly (Mary) Shine, born about 1760, died February 1829. She married George Shackelford, born January 19, 1759, died 1802.

Susan Shackelford, born about 1788. She married Whitehead D. Humphrey I, born about 1787, died 1826.

Whitehead D. Humphrey II, born January 20, 1817, died August 18, 1862. He married, May 4, 1837, Eliza Jane Sylvester, born July 23, 1819, died December 25, 1871.

George Franklin Humphrey, born December 12, 1851, died February 15, 1891. He married, February 11, 1875, Marenda Anne Thomas, born March 15, 1856, died April 11, 1934.

W. D. Humphrey, born March 5, 1876.

Farnefold Green II, brother of Elizabeth Green Shine, made his will in Craven County, North Carolina, in 1759. He married Miss Graves before 1730 and his children were James, John, Joseph, Mary, and Titus Green.

Another brother of Elizabeth, James Green, was a justice of Craven County in 1754. James Green, junior, was Clerk of Assembly, 1771-1776; went to Provincial Congress which met at Halifax, April 1776; and was Secretary of the Convention presided over by General Richard Caswell which adopted the Constitution of North Carolina. He married on October 20, 1777, Margaret (Peggy) Cogdell, daughter of Richard Cogdell, of Christ Church Parish, Craven County, North Carolina.¹⁷ The will of James Green, dated 1788, Craven County, named children: Farnefold, William, Leah, and Joseph; and Bryan Green, grandson.

CHAPTER XI

SIR THOMAS FARNEFFOLD, MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT

Sir Thomas Farneffold, knighted December 22, 1621, was a Member of Parliament for Steyning in 1624, 1625, 1626, and from 1640 to his death in December, 1644. His eldest son was Henry. The second son, Thomas Farneffold, matriculated at Christ Church, Oxford, December 20, 1641, at the age of fifteen. At Gatewicks, Sussex County, England, on June 1, 1639, he made an interesting will; besides other bequests each of his children was to receive 200 pounds at the age of twenty-one. He mentioned his daughter, Dorothe, who married Mr. Mayer, and sons Henry, Thomas, Richard, John, Ralph, and Edward. The will was proved December 17, 1644.¹

John Farneffold entered New College on the second of October, 1652, and received his B. A. degree on April 10, 1656. He came to Virginia before July 20, 1670. On that date he was a witness to the will of Henry Watts. On August 2, 1672, he was minister of Fairfield Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia, and was at St. Stephen's Parish, June 30, 1680, till the time of his death in 1702, having served over thirty years.²

He was twice married, it appears, for in 1672 he was reimbursed for five tithables which he had paid on the estate of Captain William Nutt, whose widow, Elizabeth, he married; and in his will he mentioned his wife, Mary, the daughter of George Brooks, of London, a merchant.³

John Farneffold was one of the founders of William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Virginia. On July 25, 1690, from James City, Virginia, he wrote the merchants of London, asking them to be among the first benefactors of that institution, being "founded and established in Virginia as a place of universal study of Divinity, Philosophy, and other Arts and Sciences." Other references are recorded of his efforts to procure subscriptions for the college. He was not only one of the founders of William and Mary College, but one of the first trustees and one of the "clerkes" named to compose the corporation in 1691. Among the other historically prominent men interested in the college and who were, also, the first trustees, were William Byrd and William Randolph.⁴

The will of John Farneffold is dated July 3, 1702, and was proved September 16, 1702.⁴ There are legacies (described in the will) to daughter-in-law (probably step-daughter) Elizabeth Tarpley; bequests to son-in-law (step-son) Richard Nutt, and to Farneffold Nutt, son of Richard; and gifts to his cousin (nephew) Raleigh Travers and wife, Rebecca Travers. To the last named, John Farneffold bequeathed his wife's picture and a small cabinet of drawers. To each church in the Parish, he gave a chalice for a Communion Service, five pounds each or thereabouts, with inscriptions on them, "Ex Dona Johannes Farneffold." He requested that his executors "should find two gravestones about a yard long for himself and wife." On his gravestone he wished this inscription:

"Here lies the body of John Farneffold, minister, the son of Sir Thomas Farneffold of Gatewick, in Steyning, in the County of Sussex, England, Knight."

Other bequests mentioned in his will were these:

"I give 100 acres where I live for the maintenance of a free school and to be called 'Winchester School' for four or five poor children belonging to ye Parish and to be taught gratis and to have their dyett, lodging and washing, and when they can read the Bible and write a legible hand to dismiss them and take in more such as my executors shall think fit; and, for the benefit of the said school, I give five cows and a bull, six ewes and a ram, a cart horse and a cart and two breeding cows; and that my two mulatto girls, Frances and Lucy Murray, have a year's schooling and be free when they arrive at the age of twenty-two years, to whom I give a sow shoat each. For the further encouragement of a school master, I give dyett, bridle and saddle to ride on during his stay. The place where the school is to be erected, my will is to have it near my dwelling house, some part of which may serve for a school house until another may more conveniently be built. Item: What school books I have in my study, I leave for the benefit of ye school. Then my will is that some of my estate be sold for the maintenance of ye said school. If the school fails, which I hope it will not, give that hundred and all the rest of the land to Richard Nutt. . . . Item: My will is that Mr. Tarpley, Mr. Leo Hawson, Richard Nutt, and Edward Cole carry me to the grave, three to have guineas and Richard Nutt a gold ring. Item: To the minister who preaches my funeral sermon, my preaching gown and cassock."

"In the Visitation of Sussex, 1530 and 1633, page 166, it is said that Sir Lawrence de la Chamlor of Rodwell in the County of Sussex, Knight, married Jane, sister of Sir Thomas Farneffold of Gatewick, in Steyning, one of the Gent Pensioners."⁵

By a list of Long Parliament, of which he was a member for Steyning "borough," Sir Thomas Farneffold is recorded as dying in 1645.⁶

Mr. Ernest Mathews Green, attorney-at-law and author, formerly of New Bern, North Carolina, and for many years Register of Deeds of Craven County, North Carolina, holds a membership in the Virginia Society of Colonial Wars and is vice-president of the North Carolina Society of Cincinnati. He is a descendant of Timothy Green. In a letter dated October 19, 1937, he wrote, "I am quite satisfied that Timothy Green married Anne Farneffold." She was the daughter of the Rev. John Farneffold. She and Timothy Green had sons, Farneffold Green I and Titus Green.⁷

Thus the following:

Sir Thomas Farneffold, Knight, born about 1585, died 1645, married Wife _____.

Rev. John Farneffold, born about 1625, died 1702. He married, Mary Brooks, daughter of George Brooks of London, (first); Elizabeth Nutt, widow (second).

Anne Farneffold, born about 1656, died about 1680. She married, Timothy Green, born about 1650.

Captain Farneffold Green, born May 30, 1674, died 1714. He married, Hannah Consolvo Smithwick.

Elizabeth Green, born about 1692, married May 15, 1715, Major Daniel Shine, born about 1690, died after 1757.

Colonel Daniel Shine, born May 10, 1729, died 1801. He married, Barbara Franck, born about 1730, died about 1825.

Polly (Mary) Shine, born about 1760, died February 1829. She married George Shackelford, born January 19, 1759, died 1802.

Susan Shackelford, born about 1788, died after 1832. She married Whitehead D. Humphrey I, born about 1787, died 1826.

Whitehead D. Humphrey II, born January 20, 1817, died August 18, 1862. He married, May 4, 1837, Eliza Jane Sylvester, born July 23, 1819, died December 25, 1871.

George Franklin Humphrey, born December 12, 1851, died February 15, 1891. He married, February 11, 1875, Marenda Anne Thomas, born March 15, 1856, died April 11, 1934.

W. D. Humphrey, born March 5, 1876.

"Richard Nutt, the son of Captain William Nutt, whose widow married John Farneffold, named one of his sons Farneffold, as shown in his will of 1727. His other children, who left numerous descendants throughout the south, were Benjamin, Joseph, John, Richard, and Mary Nutt."

CHAPTER XII

THE CONSOLVO FAMILY OF SPANISH DESCENT

The Consolvo family located in Princess Anne County, Virginia, some time around 1660. From early records and traditions the family is of Spanish origin.¹

On the 10th of February, 1686, in Perquimans precinct, Albemarle County, North Carolina, Laurence Gonsolvo was a witness to the sale of a plantation of John Philpott of Yoepim River to Alexander Moore.²

In 1687 he made a will and mentioned wife and children. This was witnessed by William Privett, William Stewart, and Richard Williams.³

There was an indenture made January 3, 1689 by and between Elinor Asbim and Sarah Gonsolvo, both of Albemarle County, Perquimans precinct, North Carolina, in which Elinor Asbim bound her daughter, Elizabeth Parker, to Sarah Gonsolvo for nine years. She was to find sufficient clothes, washing, . . . and other necessities belonging to an apprentice, and was to teach her to read and write and do all necessary things. . . .

Thomas Houghbon

Elinor Asbim

Elizabeth Parker

Sarah Gonsolvo ⁴

In his will, made September 10, 1693, John Johnson mentioned wife Sarah and son-in-law Lawrence Consolvo.⁵

Hannah Consolvo, daughter of Lawrence Consolvo (Gonsolvo) of Perquimans precinct, married Furnifold Green.⁶ She had formerly married a Smithwick and had a daughter, Ann Smithwick. Captain Farnfold Green was killed by the Tuscarora Indians in 1714; and Hannah Consolvo (Smithwick) Green married Captain Richard Graves, Surveyor, the same year. He died in 1730.⁷

In January, 1699, at court held in the precinct of Perquimans, Albemarle County, North Carolina, Ffornfold Green acknowledged a deed of sale for a tract of land in Yoepim up ye Indian Creek to William Long. The deed is dated 1699 and can be found in North Carolina Colonial Records, Volume 1, page 521.

In his will, made 1698, Lawrence Gonsolvo mentioned only his father-in-law and mother. It was witnessed by Alice Chew, Mary

Norcum, and Sam Blanck; ⁸ but in Perquimans County, North Carolina, is this joint deed: ⁹

"Know all men that I, James Hogg, with Ann, my wife, and Thomas Pierce with Mary, his wife, and I Fornyfeild Green, with Hannah, my wife, for and in consideration of forty pounds received, we jointly and severally, sell to William Long of the county of Albemarle our interest in tract of land of Lawrence Consolvo, lately deceased, containing two hundred fifty acres of land lying in a Creek called Indian Creek in Yeopim River, Precinct Perquimans, County of Albemarle, Province of North Carolina. Dated August 15, 1698, and registered January, 1699.

James Long	James Hogg	Mary Pierce
Thomas Long	Ann Hogg	Fornyfeild Green
William Keeter	Thomas Pierce	Hannah Green."

There is a deed recorded in Carteret County, North Carolina, from Daniel Shine and Elizabeth Shine, his wife, to Benjamin Baldwin, land patented by Farnfold Green on November 11, 1713, and by his will given to his beloved wife, Hannah Green, and transferred by her to her beloved daughter, the said Elizabeth Shine. The deed was dated February 8, 1730/1.¹⁰

The Humphrey lineage through the Consolvo family comes down as follows:

Lawrence Consolvo, born about 1626, died 1687. He married Sarah ———.

Lawrence Consolvo, born about 1650, died 1698. He married Miss Johnson.

Hannah Consolvo, born about 1675, died after 1730. She married Farnfold Green, born May 30, 1674, died 1714.

Elizabeth Green, born about 1692, married May 15, 1715, Major Daniel Shine, born about 1690, died after 1757.

Colonel Daniel Shine, born May 10, 1729, died 1801. He married Barbara Franck, born about 1730, died about 1825.

Polly (Mary) Shine, born about 1760, died February 1829. She married George Shackelford, born January 19, 1759, died 1802.

Susan Shackelford, born about 1788. She married Whitehead D. Humphrey I, born about 1787, died 1826.

Whitehead D. Humphrey II, born January 20, 1817, died August 18, 1862. He married, May 4, 1837, Eliza Jane Sylvester, born July 23, 1819, died December 25, 1871.

George Franklin Humphrey, born December 12, 1851, died February 15, 1891. He married, February 11, 1875, Marenda Anne Thomas, born March 15, 1856, died April 11, 1934.

W. D. Humphrey, born March 5, 1876.

At the Elizabeth City Court House, Pasquotank County, North Carolina, there is a deed recorded from Andrew Gonsolvo, of Currituck County, and Jane Gonsolvo, wife, formerly Jane Britnell, sister of William Britnell and next of kin to said William Britnell, deceased, to William Gregory, of Pasquotank County, a plantation on the northeast side of Pasquotank River containing fifty acres of land formerly the property of Charles Grandees and transferred by him to said Britnell in 1709. The consideration was twenty-five pounds. The deed was registered July, 1722.¹¹

Charles Consolvo, mariner, of Norfolk County, Virginia, made a will on September 28, 1766 and gave negroes to the son and daughter of Charles Smyth of Princess Anne County, Virginia.¹²

A worthy representative of the Consolvo name still lives in Virginia. About him this has been written:

"Colonel Charles H. Consolvo, member of the Select Council of Norfolk, occupies a prominent place in the esteem of his fellow citizens. He was born in Norfolk, Virginia, February 9, 1871, and is a scion of a prominent old Virginia family. . . . His parents died when he was young and he was reared by his aunts who educated him at St. Johns Academy. . . . He became interested in politics before attaining his majority and has been an able representative in Norfolk life. . . . Will Rogers, famous comedian, was a close friend of Colonel Consolvo, who enjoys friendships with many others nationally prominent. . . . He is the active head of the two Consolvo Hotels in Virginia, The Monticello, in Norfolk, and The Jefferson, in Richmond, and until recently, The Belvedere, in Baltimore, Maryland, and is known as the dean of the Hotel World. . . . He is also interested in the Consolvo and Chesire Outdoor Advertising Company. . . . In 1910 Colonel Consolvo gained his title when Governor Mann, of Virginia, appointed him Paymaster General of the Virginia Militia with the rank of Colonel. In 1913, his friend Governor Eberhart of Minnesota appointed him as aide-de-camp on the Governor-General's staff with the rank of Colonel, swearing allegiance to Minnesota after Virginia."¹³

Elizabeth HENBY (Henly)/Henry LAMB 1697

Posted by: Pam Hatch
Date: August 07, 1998 at 15:46:41

 of 206

Can anyone confirm the marriage of Elizabeth HENBY (Henly) to Henry LAMB abt. 1726? Elizabeth was the daughter of John HENBY and Judith ATTAWAY who married on July 1, 1688 in Perquimans Co., NC. Their children were born in Perquimans also: John abt. 1689; Mary abt. 1691; Miriam abt. 1693; Jesse abt. 1695; and Elizabeth abt. 1697. My source for this information has no documentation because he found it on the IGI at his local FHC. He informed me that the sons of John HENBY changed their surname to HENLY/HENLEY when they were grown. Thank you for your help!!!

Mrs. Jennie Horton

afodet,

Wyo.

Box 174 -

John McKelvie

My Dear Aunt Jennie: - I've tried for 2 days to write you - was just so upset I couldn't! We buried Dad yesterday
Tues. Apr. 19, at 1:00 P.M. He died early Mon
A.M. at 1:40 - He just slept on and on and was not conscious when he passed on. Ellwin + I had seen him at 2:30 P.M. afternoon - He was in a Coma, and I told Ellwin then he was nearly gone.
It does not seem possible that it is so.
He looked ~~so~~ nice and peaceful - after all the intense suffering - I suppose we should not wish him back - but I don't seem to realize that he's really gone. We had a very quiet simple funeral as nearly as we could as he would have had it. Only the relatives ^{and} a few of his friends. 5 of the pallbearers were of our own family + one friend. He had expressed that wish some time ago. [His 2 son in laws (males + my husband)
" 2 grand sons (my 2 boys) my mother in law on grandfather side - a friend who played cards with him]

now, we are trying to find a place to move to as we have to vacate this house - after 17 yrs. - This house is to be remodelled + sold. so it's always something!

Please try and continue to keep in touch with me - for I feel that that at least, you are all I've left of Dad. and you were so dear to him. He never got to read or rather hear your last letter - as last Fri. when I took it over - he only knew me at intervals & he kept thinking he was going somewhere, away from Omaha.

If there's anything you'd like to know that I can tell you - just ask me.

It's late - I'm tired - and I just got home from work - and all afternoon, I unsuccessfully looked for a house.

Lots of Love - always & ans. soon - Loveygy your niece

Dear Sir:

I was wondering if you might be able to help me find a distant relative that lived in Seattle, Washington in the 1940's and the 1950's.

It is possible that this person has died a few years ago. The only information that I have on her is the following:

Dr. Roberta Wimer-Ford
Osteopathic Physician
Shafer Building
Seattle, Washington

On the letter under the address was typed the following.
434-17 Ave North, 8-4-1948.

Any help that you can give me in this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,

Zandra Horn

Zandra Horn

We have made several inquiries. The general impression is that she passed away many years ago. I suggest you inquire of American Osteopathic Association, 212 East Ohio Street, Chicago, Illinois 60601. You might also try the Seattle King County Health Department which may have a death certificate. Cate Warren Paulsen

THE MANLOVE FAMILY

(The early part of the lineage of the Manlove family is taken from a couple of family histories and some other printed sources I have researched--I've also checked other records that seem to corroborate the lineage.)

The immigrant was Marke Manlove, who was probably born about 1620 in Wales. According to the book, Old Somerset On The Eastern Shore Of Maryland, p. 451, he was living in Northampton County, Virginia, in April 1659. By January 1665 he was living in the Pocomoke section of Somerset County, Maryland, when he patented 900 acres of land on the Pocomoke River, three 300-acre parcels of land bearing the names Tearsee, Pinmore, and Sonne's Choice. He was married twice, first to a Hannah (?), second to an Elizabeth (?). The following are thought to be his children.

1. John, m. 1st Ann (?), who d. 1670-71; 2nd Aug. 9, 1672 Elizabeth Lee.
2. Mary, m. Nov. 23, 1661 Thomas Gille (Gilley, Gillis)
3. Ann.
4. Thomas, m. July 30, 1667 Jane Dillimas (Delmas, De Lamas)
5. Hannah m. 1667 John Marrett
6. Abia (Abijah) m. John Parramore.
7. Mark, m. Apr. 5, 1672 Elizabeth Greene
8. Elizabeth m. 1666 William Greene
9. Christopher
10. William (of whom further)
11. George
12. Luke
13. Percy (Peercy, Peerse) m. 1681 John Waltham

The last three children were mentioned by Elizabeth Manlove as her children in her will dated December 3, 1666, which indicates the other ten children were of Marke's first wife Hannah. Marke was probably a Quaker (at least many of his descendants were) which is probably why he moved from Virginia to Maryland, due to the religious tolerance of the latter colony. Marke died in 1666.

William Manlove was born about 1655, probably in Wales, and was a member of the Delaware General Assembly 1692-93 (DAR Lineage Book XI, p. 134). He married Nov. 1, 1676 Alice Robins in Somerset County and moved to Delaware sometime after that. William Manlove's will was dated Sept. 16, 1694, and named as heirs his wife Alice, his children Mark, William Samuel, Hannah, Mary (b. 1681, m. Richard Hayes) and Elizabeth, and his brothers John, George, and Mark. The will was probated Oct. 10, 1694.

Mark Manlove, son of William was born about 1677 in Somerset County and m. in 1697 or 1699 Margaret Hunt or Hart. He d. January 8, 1749 in Kent County, Delaware. Mark and Margaret Manlove had a son named William, b. Apr. 30, 1700, Kent County, who m. May 12, 1725 Elizabeth Brown(e). Their children were: Keziah; Margaret, b. 1728, m. Oct. 3, 1751 Paris Chipman and later moved to Guilford County, N. C.; and William, b. July 25, 1730. His father had died three months earlier on April 23, 1730.

William, born 1730, m. April 18, 1753 Hannah Robinson (Robisson), daughter of Daniel Robisson. They had three children: George, Elizabeth, and Sarah. Hannah died about 1765 and William m. 2nd in 1770 Elizabeth Newell, by whom he had two sons, Jonathan and William. About October 1782 the family moved to North Carolina, and William and his family were received into the Deep River (Quaker) Monthly Meeting in Guilford County, May 7, 1787. Sometime after this Elizabeth died and William m. 3rd Nancy Cooper. He died in Guilford County Oct. 24, 1808. I have no further knowledge or records about the two daughters, Elizabeth and Sarah, but the sons of William's second marriage, William and Jonathon, later moved to Vermillion County, Illinois.

George Manlove, eldest son of William and Hannah, married about 1781, Rachel Dunning, daughter of John and Rachel (Jarrard) Dunning, probably in Kent County, Delaware, and probably moved to North Carolina about the time his father did. He bought a 300-acre plantation on Deep River in Guilford County in 1786. He and his wife had six children:

1. William, (of whom further)
2. John, b. May 25, 1784, Guilford County; married Jane Wheeler; was living in Henry County, Indiana in 1871.
3. George, b. Oct. 25, 1786, Guilford County; m. July 23, 1811 Mary Caldwell, Preble County, Ohio; d. 1831 Fayette County, Indiana.
4. Mark, m. Jane Hodgson (Hodgens); was living in Highland County, Ohio in 1830.
5. Hannah, m. Nathan Trotter
6. Rachel, m. Dr. Henry H. Way

Rachel Manlove died sometime after August 20, 1795, when she and George sold an interest she had inherited in some land belonging to her uncles, James and Matthew Jarrard of Kent County, Delaware. The children were still quite young when she died, and the boys were bound out, as was the custom, to learn different trades. William apprenticed to a wagon maker, John to a tanner, George to a harness maker, and Mark lived with his grandfather as a lackey boy in a dry goods store at Guilford Court House. George Sr. was supposed to have remarried to a Hannah Cranor. Eventually he sold all of his property in Guilford County and by 1810 was living near Crab Orchard, Kentucky, where he taught school among other things. So far as I know, George Jr. was the first of his children to go west, taking the Wilderness Road through Virginia and Kentucky in 1810, and visiting George Sr. at Crab Orchard on the way. George Sr. went to live with his son, Mark, in Highland County, Ohio, about 1823, and died at Mark's Nov. 5, 1827.

William, eldest son of George and Rachel Manlove, was born May 16, 1782, probably in Kent County, Delaware. He married about 1808 Prudence Cook in Guilford County and came west about 1812. He and Prudence had six children.

1. Cynthia, b. Aug. 10, 1809, Guilford County; m. Sept. 6, 1828 John Miller in Fayette County, Indiana; d. Mar. 21, 1864, and bur. in East Fork Cemetery, Washington Twp., Rush County, Indiana.
2. Alfred, d. before February 18, 1833.
3. Phoebe, (of whom further)
4. Jesse, b. Apr. 13, 1815, Fayette County, Indiana; m. Dec. 11, 1833 Susan Jane Smith and divorced her in March 1837; m. 2nd Nov. 25, 1837 Lana Ann Colvin in Fayette County; d. Mar. 26, 1880, Fayette County.
5. Absalom, b. Apr. 28, 1817, Fayette County; m. Aug. 7, 1836 Mary F. Rea, in Fayette County; d. July 20, 1869, Fayette County.
6. William, b. about Aug. 1819, Fayette County; m. Mary J. Penwell.

I don't think William and Prudence Manlove moved directly to Fayette County from North Carolina, but may have lived in Kentucky for a while. William became ill in 1819, supposedly after a trip to Cincinnati for supplies. (The same story is given in the Fayette County history as the reason for William's brother, George's death. I tend to think that the story is true in George's case and not in William's, since they were both supposed to have died of cholera, and the cholera didn't enter the United States until the 1830's.) William probably died in March of 1819, as his will was written March 2, 1819, and he was apparently very weak and near death, too ill to even sign it. He instructed Prudence and her brother, John C. Cook, to buy land at Congress terms for his sons and to divide his personal property between his daughters. Prudence was pregnant at the time he died and later gave birth to their son, William.

Prudence Manlove married 2nd April 15, 1824 James McConkey and had three more children: Eli; Sophrona, who married Reuben Allen; and Thomas Cranor McConkey, who married Josephine Boden. The Manlove children didn't seem to get along with James McConkey at all and most of them left home quite young. Prudence was alive until 1856 when she and James sold their farm but no known date of her death. She is buried with William Manlove in Lick Creek Cemetery in Harrison Twp., Fayette County, where their stone reads only, "William Manlove - His Wife, Prudence Cook." James McConkey is buried right next to them.

Phoebe Manlove was born May 6, 1813, possibly in Kentucky. She m. May 31, 1832 John Stephens in Fayette County, Indiana. They moved to Hancock County, Indiana in 1840. They had the following children:

1. Lafayette A., b. March 1833, Fayette County; m. Oct. 9, 1859 Sarah Slifer, October 9, 1859, Hancock County; d. Oct 16, 1902, Hancock County.
2. Washington Columbus, b. July 28, 1835, Fayette County; m. Feb. 6, 1862 Sarah C. Barrett. After her death he m. 2nd Sept. 6, 1874 Alice Chandler, Hancock County; d. Apr. 7, 1901, Greenfield, Hancock County.
3. Prudence E., b. Sept 6, 1836, Fayette County, d. Feb. 11, 1854, Hancock County.
4. Harriet, b. Apr. 22, 1838, Fayette County; m. Feb. 22, 1860 Washington Slifer, Hancock County; d. Jan. 12, 1915, Greenfield, Hancock County.
5. Samuel, b. about 1839, Fayette County; m. Elenora Loehr; d. July 26, 1913, Greenfield, Hancock County.
6. Cynthia, b. Sept. 19, 1841, Hancock County; m. April 21, 1864 John N. Leamon, Hancock County; d. Feb. 4, 1872, Hancock County.
7. Eli, b. about 1843 Hancock County; served in the Civil War 1861-1865; m. July 10, 1867 Sarah Elizabeth Evans, Hancock County; d. June 10, 1909, Indianapolis, Indiana.
8. Reuel John, b. Oct. 1845, Hancock County; served in the Civil War 1863-1865; m. July 28, 1869 Mary (Molly) E. Miller, Hancock County.
9. William, b. about 1847, Hancock County; d. about 1876, Greenfield, Hancock County.
10. Mary, b. 1849, Hancock County; m. John Wilson; d. before 1880.
11. Nancy E., b. 1852, Hancock County; m. Sept. 22, 1870, William C. Dudding, Hancock County.

John Stephens died June 13, 1856 and was buried in Greenfield. Phoebe continued to live on their farm for awhile but later sold out and moved to Greenfield.

She died February 21, 1874, and her death notice in the Hancock Democrat stated she was "an old and highly respectable lady." She was buried with John and their daughter, Prudence, in the old South Street Cemetery in Greenfield, but their bodies were later moved to Park Cemetery, the main cemetery in Greenfield.

The name, Manlove, came down in the Stephens family. Washington and Sarah Stephens' first son bore the name, John Manlove Stephens, and my grandfather Alberian Stephens' youngest brother's name was Ora Manlove Stephens. It wasn't until recent years that my mother's family realized that Manlove was a family name. They thought Uncle Ory's middle name was just some weird name his mother dreamed

GEORGE MANLOVE'S DIARY

North Carolina Guilford County

Deep River, the 17th of the 9th month, 1810

We, Edward and Joseph Bond their wives and my self George Manlove, this day began our journey for the Indian Territory about four in the afternoon, went a few miles and camped on a friend's yard.

Wednesday the 18th we set out after breakfast on a fair morning, but cloudy in the afternoon, some thunder and rain. We camped the night at Salem which was disagreeable and wet.

Thursday the 19th we set out on foggy morning which was followed with some rain in the forenoon, but cleared up in the afternoon. Went a few miles. We had difficulty in climbing a hill which we did safely by doubling our teams. We went on all well except Joseph's mare failed some.

We camped about three miles from the Shallow Ford on the Yadkin to-night which was cloudy with some rain in the forepart of the night.

Friday the 21st we started out early in a foggy morning and crossed the Yadkin about eight o'clock. About ten the weather became fair and continued so all day. We arrived at John Bonds about three where we stayed all night.

Saturday the 22nd the weather continued fair. We are all well except colds. This morning my mare lame, I draw a nail and she is getting better.

Sunday the 23rd a fair day. We continued at John Bonds. The evening was cloudy with some rain.

Monday the 24th we set out in a fair morning went to Elwood Bonds, Jr. where we tho't it best to buy another creature as we have but two to each wagon and our load was heavy so we sold one cow and some other things and fixed a three horse team.

Tuesday the 25th we set out from Edward Bonds about twelve. The weather continued fair. We crossed the Yadkin at Rockford. The old man had like to of set James Anderson, of Blue-River township, while fishing in company with her sister, fell into Blue river, and was drowned. Mrs. Reed committed suicide by hanging, at Allentown, in 1870.

Farmers' Insurance Association.—Of Hancock county was organized June 12, 1876, with William Marsh as President; B. F. Luse, Vice-President; Samuel B. Hill, Secretary and Treasurer, and one Director for each township. It was reorganized under the statutes of Indiana, August 31, 1878. The present officers are John H. White, President; T. E. Bentley, Vice-President; S. B. Hill, Secretary and Treasurer, and one Director for each township. The association has met with but three losses, amounting to $1,103, since its organization. It paid to officers for printing, postage, &c., last year, $154.75. Losses have been promptly paid, and the association is in good standing where its workings are understood.

Westland Meeting, Friends.—Among the first Friends that settled in the vicinity of Westland were Joseph Andrews, in 1832; John Brown, in 1833; Elias Marsh, Elisha Butler, Nathan Perisha, William and Frederick Brown, et al., at different times until the year 1839, when the propriety of a meeting and school-house was discussed by these friends of education, and they agreed on a day to meet, in which they constructed a log school-house, 16x20 feet, soon after which they employed a teacher for the small children of the neighborhood. In 1840 a meeting was regularly organized, with about fifteen families. Among the early ministers were Mary Hodson and Melissa Hill. A First-day school was soon organized and conducted by Abigail Hubbard. After a few years, the society desired a separate house in which to hold their meetings, and all hands and friends of the cause joined in and built a small frame, without any estimate as to cost. About 1871, the present neat and commodious frame building was erected, at a cost of $1,500. Present minister, Winbern Kerns; total membership, 102; average attendance on the Sabbath, fifty-seven.

HUTSON

Virginia Parmenter

Dear Zandra,

I am trying to answer letters in regard to several different family lines. Maybe I am ready for Hutson.

To answer a couple of your thoughts regarding Hutson....

About 90% of the time I find our family name is spelled Hutson, not Hudson. I feel that sort of separates us from a possible mixup with Hodson and Hodgson records.

Richard Hutson joined the Quakers "by request" not transfer. If he had been a Quaker prior to 1798, it was many years before. He was forced to join by request since he could not reinstate? I do not think he had ever been a Quaker, but that is just my opinion and I could easily be wrong.

It is possible that Richard Hutson was the immigrant ancestor and we will never find his ancestry in this country.

One radical thought: maybe there was a name change. It did happen.

I have finally typed up a new sheet with what I can prove for Richard and Sarah's family. As you can see, I do not know enough about the Moon-Hutson marriages and children to include them except as "probable children"

I do not have any records for the grandchildren of John and Mary Hutson. I am sure I could get this but my search is for the ancestry of Richard and Sarah so it seems a waste of time to compile records for their great grandchildren except in my line of descent.

I would like to know more about the Moon-Hutson marriages but in spite of a lot of correspondence in past times all I ever got was vague references. I know this information that the Moons' wives were daughters of Richard Hutson has been circulated widely but I have never been sent one piece of material which even proves Ruth and Jane were Hutsons previous to marriage. Can you help me?

If my days were not so filled with research for my own ancestors, I could work on this Moon problem but I don't have the time. This connection will have to be proven by someone else. Maybe you are the one who can do it. I am especially anxious to see copies of information from the Clinton Co, OH Quaker meetings.

I believe my next move will be a search of SC. I think it is possible Richard was in old 96th District with the Fresnell family. (Both originally VA)

I guess I jumped the gun and omitted one paragraph. First, I will check Jefferson Co, TN if any early records are held by the TN Archives. Frankly, I do not know what can be learned but doubt there are many records for the period the Hutsons were in Jefferson County.

If both TN and SC fail to produce any information, I would think the next sensible move would be to go to MD and PA records. Maybe Richard and Sarah were some of those who made the long migration through the valley of VA and ended up in Randolph Co, NC so far from their starting place that no one has thought to make the connection.

I hope to find time during the next year to investigate some of the possible locations other than VA and NC. I am committed to some other family research right now. Several of us are working with other lines and it is much more profitable to share research efforts than to be the only one doing the work for a line. As I grumbled in my last letter, there are a number of persons who are interested but they just cheer me on and do nothing.

Right now I am doing extensive research for the Modlin/Maudlin family (principally 1700s in NC). The Phelps family of early Salem, MA which migrated to NC by 1665 is a second family in which I am committed. I am becoming more deeply involved in the Phillips of NC (from MD) a non-Quaker line. All of these are NC families which need research. I have a dozen old NC families that others have researched and whose records seem to be documented with no big guesses to go wrong. I have more Newby ancestry in NC than most anything. Benjamin Maudlin m. Lesh Copeland according to our records. (That is another name you mention in your ad.)

Back to the Hutsons: I would love to include your Moon families as proven descendants if you can just help me with some records.

Please write again. I think we need each other!!

Sincerely,

Virginia

Virginia Parmenter

over 50 years old.) place unkn.
m ca 1792 (a guess!) to Mary Lane (dau of John Lane)
d 1729-1835 Randolph Co, NC
I have no birthdate for Mary Lane but she is shown as "late wife of John Hutson, decd" in the 1835 Estate distribution for John Lane of Randolph Co, NC. children: John Jr, Lane A., Nancy (Wm Carter), Hulda (Henry

children:
Martha (Zeno Lamb), John (Margaret Ratliff), Sarah (prob. unkm), Daniel (Elizabeth Modlin), James (Mary Modlin), Hulda (Aaron Pearson), Nancy (?), Penelope (John Carpent), Lydia (Thomas Lamb)
(To IN ca 1823. Children Daniel, Lydia, Penelope, Nancy?) stayed in IN. Rest of children migrated to IA ca 1854 and settled in Polk, Story and Hardin Counties.)

probable children:

d 1852 Clinton Co, OH
Jane b ca 1774
m before 1795 William Moon
d Clinton Co, OH?
son? b 1774-1790 per 1790 census (no further record)
dau? b before 1790 per 1790 census (no further record)

I have spent about ten years getting the records for the families of the two sons. I think the two Moon wives were probably daughters but thinking doesn't make it so? I would like to see proof of relationship.
I do not know if anyone has ever checked Quaker records for Clinton Co, OH. I have not. I recently ordered the inventory of Jefferson Co, TN records, --held by TN Archives. I have seen nothing for that county except the Quaker records. I have checked all books published by Hudson Family Assn. (4 books Deeds, Wills, etc; marriage records VA;
1 book NC Deeds.) I have all published records for NC Hutson/Hudson marriages, have checked census records and military records for NC.

Hello,

The enclosed file is a descendant's list summarizing the information I have on the family of Richard Hutson. As you can see, the only child for whom I have any significant information is Nathan who married Lydia Pres(S)nall and moved to Henry Co., IN. Although they are not my ancestors, their children married many uncles/aunts/cousins/siblings of my ancestors in the mid-1880's. If you have information on the ancestors of Richard Hutson and his wife Sarah (?) I would be interested in it also.

Good luck.

Doug

HUDSON-HUTSON-HOLSON-HODGSON-HOIKIN IN NORTH CAROLINA

In 1750 in Present Guilford Co., NC, the first white settlers had just arrived. Among them were several Quaker families who established their church, or "Meeting House", and called it New Garden. In present Alamance Co. another group of Quakers started a church and called it Cane Creek, while in present Randolph Co. the Back Creek Meeting House was founded. The records of these churches show the surnames listed in the title above, and the names appear to be interchangeable, depending on who was writing the records at the time..... We will follow these people to Tenn. and on to Ohio.

The earliest records are about George¹ HODSON/HODGSON and wife Mary THATCHER. Mention of their children include the following in New Garden records:

- Sarah HODSON, m. 4-22-1752 John HIATT.
- Susannah HODSON, m. 2-20-1754 William HIATT, son of John HIATT of "Roan" (Bowen) Co. Notice names of witness, given later in this item.
- John² HODSON, m. 5-7-1754 Mary MILLS, daughter of Thomas MILLS of "Roan".
- Robert HODSON, m. (2nd?) 2-6-1794 Rachel MILLS.
- Joseph HODSON, m. (2nd?) 1-6-1802 Hannah JOHNSON.
- George HODSON Jr., m. 11-27-1764 Rachel OLDFHAM, "his second cousin".

When Sarah HODSON m. in 1752, her father George was listed "of Bladen Co." When Susannah m. in 1754, her father George was listed as "of Roan Co." Afterward he was "of Guilford Co." One record indicates that George HODSON became a member of the New Garden church 1-5-1754 by request, after his son John had joined 11-4-1752 and Susannah in 1753. His wife, shown as Mary HUDSON, had joined New Garden church 5-2-1752....George HODSON d. 1774 in Guilford Co., NC, and his son John d. there in 1804. Each left a will.

John² HODSON and wife Mary MILLS had issue:

- Thomas, b. 2-21-1756, m. 11-5-1777 Patience DILLON, had son, Joel.
- John, b. 6-28-1759, m. (2nd?) 6-7-1800 Sarah JOHNSON.
- Ruth, b. 3-10-1761, m. 6-2-1784 Moses HOSKINS.
- George, b. 1-6-1763, m. 11-10-1784 Ann MARIS.
- Jonathan, b. 3-10-1765, m. 11-1-1786 Abigail STANLEY.
- Hur, b. 5-16-1767, m. 12-3-1788 Elizabeth THORNBROUGH.
- Mary, b. 5-19-1769, m. 1-1-1794 Francis HESTER.
- Solomon, b. 3-31-1771, m. 2-23-1792 Chloe DEAR.
- Joseph, b. 8-13-1773 (no further record)....(moved to Kentucky?)

Robert HODSON, member of the New Garden Quaker church, was a contemporary of George HODSON. Robert and wife Rachel had sons: Nathan (b. 1759), Richard (b. 1761), Jonathan (b. 1763), Thomas (b. 1767), Robert (b. 1769), and Jesse (b. 1770). One Richard HODSON d. 1813 (will) in Guilford Co., possibly was the son of this Robert HODSON.

Richard HUTSON is mentioned in New Garden records 1798, when he became a member. Earlier that year, Nathan HUTSON, "son of Richard of Randolph Co.", m. Lydia PRESNELL in the Quaker Meeting House at New Garden. It is likely this Nathan was son of a man b. before 1761, and we can suppose Nathan's father was about right age to be brother to George and/or Robert HODSON. Possibly this Richard HUTSON was also father of Ruth HUTSON, b. 1770, who m. Daniel MOON 1790, and of Jane HUTSON, who m. William MOON, brother of Daniel, but our Quaker records do not show this.

Most important are the records of these Quakers as they moved to Lost Creek Meeting House in Jefferson Co., Tenn. Among the first to go were Joseph MOON and wife Ann, formerly Ann BROWN, who went to Lost Creek in 1796. These were parents of Daniel and William MOON, who m. the HUTSON sisters. In 1801 Daniel and Ruth (HUTSON) MOON moved to Lost Creek, Jefferson Co. In 1802 Richard HUTSON and wife Sarah went from New Garden in NC to Lost Creek in Tenn.

In 1804 Rachel (MOON) THORNBURGH died at Lost Creek, Jefferson Co., Tenn. Rachel, b. 1735, was daughter of Simon MOON and Lowry HUMPHREYS. She m. at New Garden, Guilford Co., NC, to Henry THORNBURGH, son of Walter THORNBURGH. Her older sister, Margaret, had m. 1748 in Frederick Co., Va., to Thomas BROWN (ancestors of our member, John Rison JONES).

Beginning in 1808, many of the Quakers left Lost Creek in Tenn. and went Fairfield Meeting House in (now) Clinton Co., Ohio. Among them were Dani and Ruth (HUTSON) MOON. Because Quakers lived in "colonies" and insisted their members marry only Quakers, there was much intermarriage among them. The list of witnesses at each marriage is essentially a list of relatives and the following two lists show that the HODSONs and HUTSONs of New Gard Guilford Co., NC, were probably all of the same family.

When Susannah HODSON, daughter of George, m. Wm. HIATT 1754, witnesses were

Rachel MOON	John HIATT	Thomas THORNBURGH
Mary MILLS	Martha HIATT	Daniel DILLON
George HODGSON	William HUNT	Robert SUMNER
Mary HODGSON	Catherine HUNT	Caraline HARROLD

When John HODSON, son of George, m. Mary MILLS 3 months later, witnesses were

Walter THORNBURGH	Martha HIATT	Henry BALLENGER
Abigail THORNBURGH	Abigail PIKE	Hannah BALLENGER
Thomas BROWN	William HUNT	John HOGGATT (HOCKETT?)
Margaret BROWN	Chairy MENDENHALL	William HOGGATT

(The data in this item came from material shared by Don HART, Helen SMITH Betty Jo HUDSON, John Rison JONES, Ruth KYSOR, Edith Moon WERTZ, Pauline Turner FAKE....and from Marilyn PHILIPS, who descends from several of the families named above and whose line is in this issue.) (MHH)

A DIFFICULT QUESTION

William H. HUDSON d. 1828 Jefferson Co., Ala., is ancestor of several members of HFA(S). There have been guesses made that he was son of Hall HUDSON, who d. 1799 Surry Co., NC, based on names of neighbors of Hall in NC and of William in Ala. One of our members verbally objected that this guess is incorrect, and I (MHH) cannot remember who this member is.

In recent months, due to this objection, I have noted the name "William H HUDSON" in various items in Va., and have seen the same names of neighbors in Va. as found in NC and Ala. We had assumed the middle name probably was "Hall" -- William Hall HUDSON. However, Frank PENTECOST has just found record that William H. HUDSON had a grandson named William Harris HUDSON, son Nicholas. This William Harris HUDSON was b. 1833, m. Eliza HUDSON while on his way to Anderson Co., Texas, before the Civil War. He served in Company "D", 13th Texas Cavalry, CSA in that war, and his niece, Rena Belle (HUDSON) McCORD entered the UDC (United Daughters of the Confederacy) in 1927 on his service. Frank PENTECOST sent a copy of this certificate, issued to his grandmother Rena Belle, for the HFA(S) scrapbook.

"Harris" is a middle name in other HUDSON families. It may have been the middle name of the Wm. HUDSON who moved from SC to Jefferson Co., Ala., and d. there 1828. Was he related to the Nicholas HUDSON in J. Porter HUDSON's family in Va.? This is a difficult question, but isn't it worth another look? (MHH)

Hutson

Hutson

William Hutson, the father of the Hutson family of South Carolina, was born in England August 14, 1720, and died in Charleston, SC in April 11, 1761. He was the son of the Rev. Thomas Hutson, a chaplain at the school of Lady Huntington, and his wife, Esther. He began his education for the profession of law but gave up his studies and came to America as an actor in 1740. William was converted under the preaching of Whitefield, and was employed by Hugh Bryan, as a tutor. His first preaching as a licentiate was done at the Orphan House, and he was the first pastor of Stoney Creek Presbyterian Church, which was built for him in Indian Land in 1743. He later was pastor of the Circular Church in Charleston from 1757 until he died. The Circular Congregational Church, was founded between 1680 and 1690, during the period when Charleston was first being settled by English Congregationalists, Scots Presbyterians, and French Huguenots. The church did not have an official name but was variously referred to as Independent, Congregational, and Presbyterian throughout the colonial period.

He married Mary Woodward, widow of Col. Issac Chardon, in 1743. Mary was the daughter of Richard Woodward and his wife, Sarah Stanyarne. Richard was the son of the Dr. Henry Woodward, commonly known as the first English settler in South Carolina. Henry's wife was Mary Godfrey, daughter of Col. John Godfrey of the Barbadoes, who came to Carolina in 1670. Sarah Stanyarne, above mentioned, was the daughter of James Stanyarne, who born in 1658, came to Carolina with his father, Thomas Stanyarne and a number of brothers and sisters between the year 1670 and 1675. Mary Woodward, the wife of William Hutson, died in 1757, and on October 10, 1758, William Hutson married Mary Prioleau, widow of Hugh Bryan. There were no children by this marriage. William Hutson and his two wives are buried in the Circular Churchyard in Charleston, their stones standing in 2006.

Painting of the church is by Charles Fraser, and was published in Prince William's Parish and Plantations by Francis Marion Hutson and John Todd, Garrett & Massie Publishers, Richmond, Virginia, 1935. This building is interestingly similar to the Meeting House near Jacksonboro. Both have the almost ostentatious simplicity affected by the Presbyterians and other 'dissenters', who, as Fraser notes in his Reminiscences, even during his boyhood never called their places of worship churches.

The Stony Creek Presbyterian Meeting House, was built in Indian Land in 1743, two years before the forming of Prince Williams Parish. The church was destroyed in 1865 and never rebuilt. The Stony Creek Cemetery is near the town of McPhersonville, and Yemassee off Hwy 21, and near the Low Country Museum on I-95. It is maintained by The Stony Creek Presbyterian Foundation, P.O. Box 1226, Beaufort SC 29901

"The old Hutson House" is what the handwritten inscription says, on the back of this inherited family photograph. It is the Beaufort SC waterfront. Cousin Mike Hutson tells a story that possibly connects with this house. One

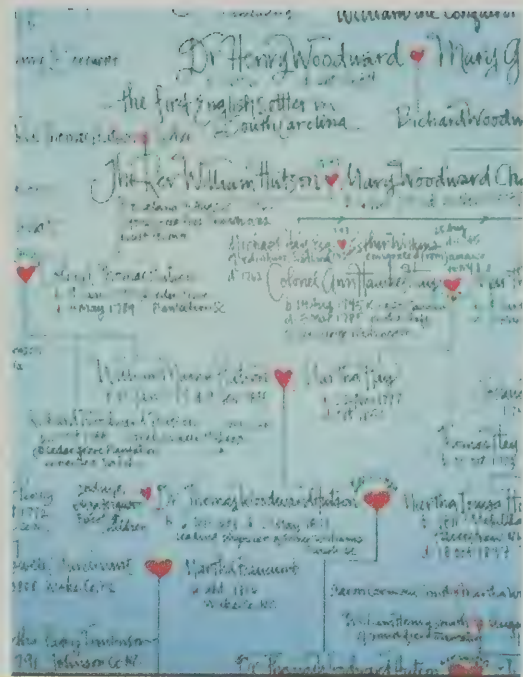

Chapter 24: Cedar Grove Plantation

CEDAR GROVE PLANTATION, situated on the west side of the Pocotaligo River, across from Stony Creek, is shown to have been originally granted to Burnaby Bull, October 12, 1732, and later became the property of Hugh Bryan. The present owner, Thomas Woodward Hutson, Esquire, has in his possession the original paper showing the transfer of this property from Burnaby Bull to Hugh Bryan, August 29, 1741. This paper is of particular interest because it shows the seals and signatures of Hugh Bryan and Burnaby Bull. This tract had evidently undergone no change in lines or acreage, as the acreage shown on this transfer is given as 781 acres, which is the same as the original grant.

The experiences of Hugh Bryan when captured and sold into slavery by the Indians is given, as follows, in Extract of a letter from Rev. Mr. William Hutson of South Carolina, to Mr. Dennis DeBerdt, merchant in London, relating to the Life and Character of Mr. Bryan. The letter is dated "South Carolina, May 21, 1755".

of the promising sons of Col. Thomas Hutson and his wife, Esther Maine, was young Thomas, who after graduating from Princeton, was involved in a duel with young Arthur Smith (from the Landgrave Smith family). Both of the young men died, and soon after his death in 1807, the public outcry resulted in a law outlawing the so called "affairs of honor". Heartbroken at his loss, Thomas's mother would never again go back to the Beaufort house.

The painting of the house below was done by William Maine Hutson before the Civil War. The house at Jericho Plantation in Prince Williams Parish was built by Richard Hutson in 1832 or 1833 and was destroyed in 1865. The land which was owned by Esther Maine's father, William Maine, who came from Ulster Ireland, and purchased Jericho in 1756, and evidence shows that it existed as a plantation of 935 acres known as the tract called Jerico, as part of the original 13,000 acres granted to Landgrave Edmund Bellinger and was part of the Tomotley Barony for a time. William Maine's wife, Judith Gignilliat (pronounced Jeanlot) was French Huguenot, and her grandfather was Benjamin Marion who was grandfather also to the renowned Swamp Fox, Francis Marion. According to Charles Woodward Hutson's memories as a young boy, before the Civil War, and in published in Prince William's Parish and Plantations, the parlor of the house at the Hutson plantation was filled with pictures of black silouetted ancestors and the air of propriety.

MILLS FAMILY

The following information has come from a hand-written diary kept by Jeremiah Mills, Jr., son of Jeremiah Mills: b Oct 27, 1752.

"I shall begin a tradition received from my father which will reach back to the 17th century, in the memorable days of Wm. Penn. My great grandfather, I cannot tell how many generations back, came from England and arrived at Philadelphia in the early days of that now populous city. There was another young man by the name of Harrold came with him. After landing, I suppose they had nothing but their hands to depend on for a living, and lumber for building being required, these two young men bought what was called a whipsaw and went to work. How long they continued in this line of business I cannot say, but until they wore the saw out; they broke it in two and made hand saws, one which I remember to have seen often as a boy. It was the 'Mills Family Property.' How long these men stayed in Philadelphia I can't tell, but the next certain account I have of them is in Virginia, near Winchester on Opekan Creek. There my father was born on the 27th day of October, 1752. About this time the Indian troubles came on, what was called 'Braddock's War.' Our people, being Quakers, became alarmed and left for North Carolina.

"The family settled in Guilford County on the waters of Deed River.

"Well, my grandfather's name was HURR and married to Rachel Harrold, she was grandmother Mills, so you will see that the Mills and Harrolds still hung together.

"My Aunt Rachel married RO (ROBERT) HODGSON, had two children Hurr and Sarah.

"The Mills family are said to be part Welch, though very small part. My mother's family were Staffords from Staffordshire, England.

"The Mills, Harrolds, Beals, Hunts, Hiatts and Beesons are mostly connected; their offspring is fast peopling the world.

"John Hodgson son of GEORGE HODGSON and MARY THATCHER married Mary Mills, Uncle Thomas' daughter. Their children: Thomas, Jonathon, John the (?) latter, George, Hurr, Solomon, Joseph. The girls Ruth and Susannah and Sarah. Sarah married Joseph Lovett and their children are mostly dead. Moses Hoskins and Francis Hester married the other two. They moved to Highland County, Ohio. After first settling there, they spread into several western states. Moses Hoskins raised a large family. I don't. . ."

Here Jeremiah stopped writing. It is thought he put this away thinking he would finish but never got to.

Nos. 9 and 10

OCTOBER 22, 1668. PETER COLLETON LETTERS TO PETER CARTERET

No. 9, in a contemporary hand, is signed by Colleton, while No. 10 is wholly in Colleton's hand. The latter is a duplicate of the former with the addition of a final sentence.

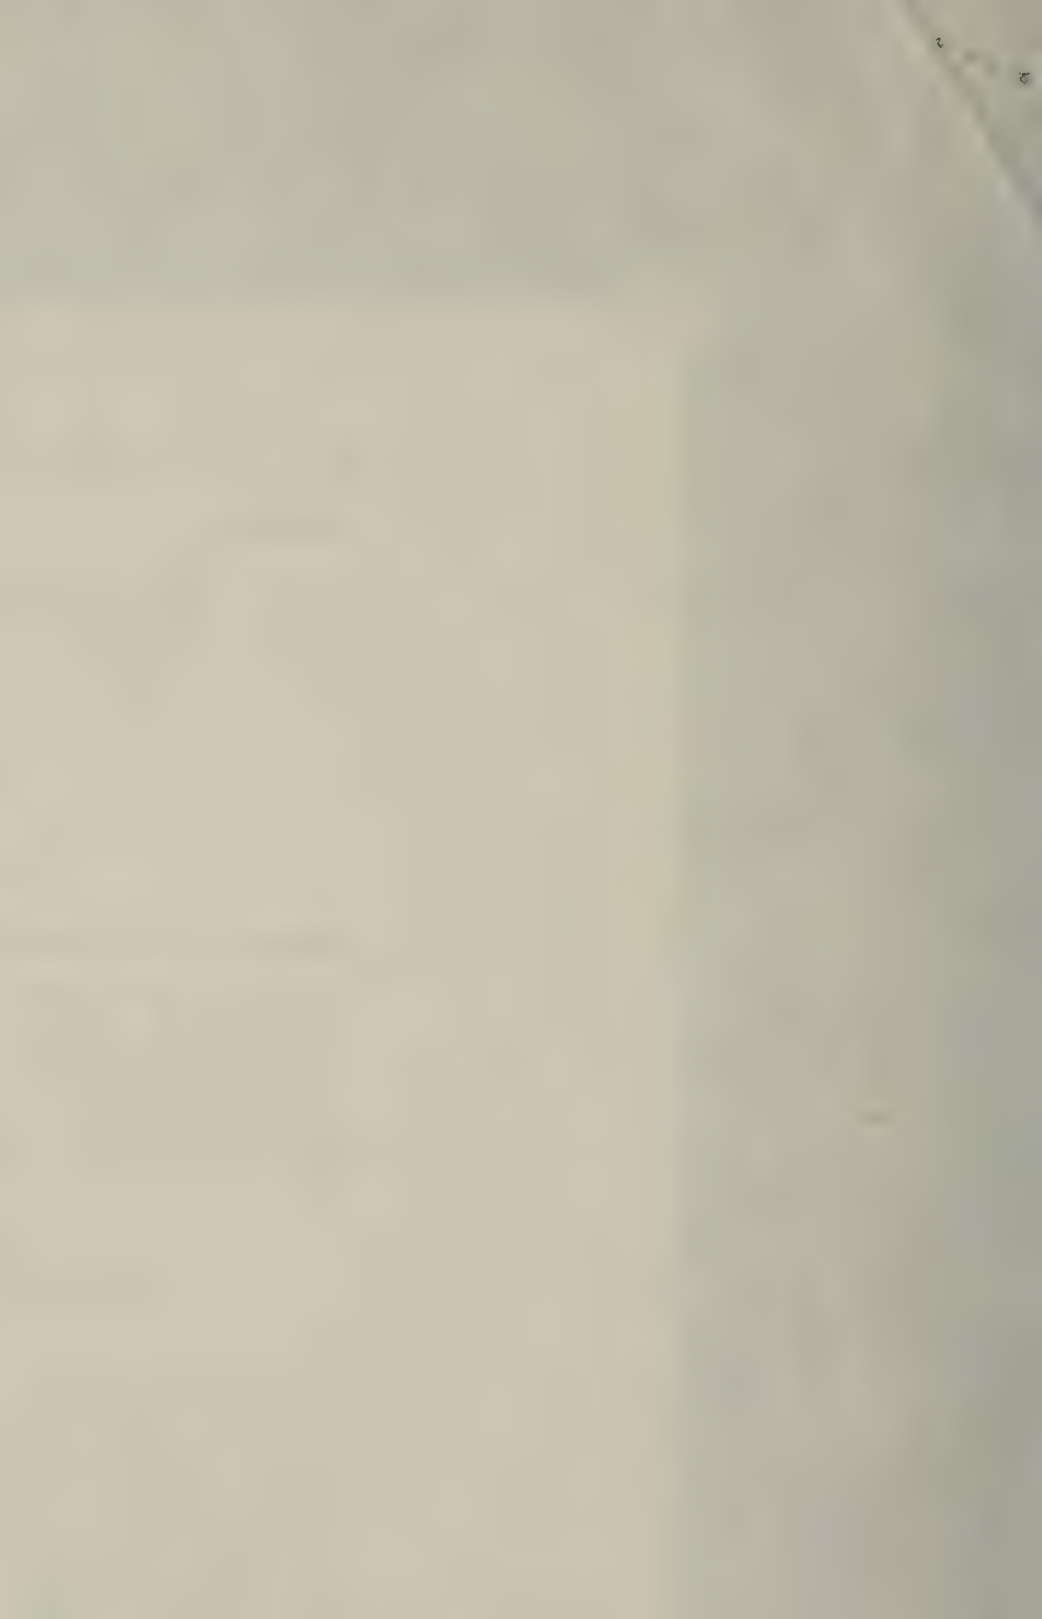

Each document is on a large sheet of watermarked paper folded to four pages. No. 9 measures 7 $\frac{3}{8}$ x 12 inches, and No. 10 is 7 $\frac{3}{8}$ x 11 $\frac{3}{8}$. Both have fine impressions of arms in a war seal.

St Jame's this 22th of Octobr 1668

Sir/

Yo^{rs} of y^e 25th of Aprill to my Father & of y^e 18th to my selfe
 I have rec^d: by w^{ch} I pceive y^e people are well satisfyed wth m^r
 Stephens for theire governo^r: The Lords are at psent dispersed as soone as wee have a meeting I shall endeavor to Gett y^e L^{ds} to pass y^e act of yo^r assembly of y^e 18th of Febr^y: 1667/8 though we have under our Broad Seal granted y^e same thing already and sent it unto yo^u by John Nixon¹ Who went from hence bound directly to Albemarle & I hope is long since wth. yo^u

¹ Whether Nixon had been in the colony before we do not know. He may have been his first trip to Carolina. By 1673 he was a magistrate in Albemarle, and in 1677 he was appointed deputy for Sir Peter Colleton in the colony. The same year he was a member of the governor's council when Eastchurch held the appointment. Leaders of Culpeper's Rebellion accused him of treason. He was a member of the "Grand Councell for y^e County of Albemarle" at Durant's house, November 6, 1679, when he was reported to be 54 years of age. His will, dated February 4, 1688, was probated August 8, 1692, in Pasquotank. He was survived by his wife, Em, and daughter, Ann. Document no. 17 also mentions Nixon.

No. 20

APRIL 27, 1672. GRAND COUNCIL'S INSTRUCTIONS TO GOV
PETER CARTERET AND JOHN HARVEY; JOHN HARVEY LETT
THE PROPRIETORS, JULY 11, 1672.

Contemporary copy of the Instructions with an ante-note by Harvey appended. One page of watermarked paper x 7¾ inches.

This apparently is the copy Harvey had in his possession to establish his identity and purpose. When he found it need- daughters. His wife, Anne Willis of Ipswich, Massachusetts, had previously married, and after Blount's death she married Seth Smith.

² Thomas Jarvis settled in the Albemarle before 1663, perhaps as as 1658. This document, of course, indicates that he was a member council in 1672; he also was in the assembly in 1677. He may have to Virginia briefly, as one Thomas Jarvis was a member of the H.
Burgesses there in 1682. From 1691 to 1694 he was governor of C.
"north east of the Cape Fear." A will dated 1682 indicates that he was named Dorcas. Jarvis has been described as a man "of sterling acter and sound judgment."

³ In 1657 William Jennings patented 350 acres in Surry County, N.C. and in 1663 patented 550 acres on New Begun Creek in the Albemarle ment. In 1672 he was a member of the council and in 1677 of the assembly.
In the latter year he also was a leader in Culpeper's Rebellion. He spoken of as "old Wm. Jennings" in 1679, and his house was at the ende of Pasquotanck River." His will, dated January 24, 1687, from tank, was probated in April; he left property to two daughters, a son a son-in-law. The WJ symbol with his name undoubtedly is his mark.

One "Wm. Jennens" arrived at Plymouth, England, in October, 1672, whether it was this one we do not know.

⁴ Edmund Chancy probably was quite young when he served on this in 1672. In 1714 one Edmund Chancy (presumably the same) patented acres at Knobbes Creek, Pasquotank Precinct, but it was not settled when it was declared "lapseable." Four years later, however, he was to redeem a portion of it. In 1735 it was reported that he owned 1,000 in Pasquotank. Chancy must have been in the neighborhood of 100 of age at the time of his death in 1753. His will dated that year extensive property, both real and personal, but he apparently outlived wife and several children as most of his wealth was left to grandchildren.

⁵ At the time of this document Pearce or Pierce apparently could write his name, although a member of the council. The O between his and surnames appears to be his mark. The will of John Pierce of quimans Precinct in 1682 lists a son, Thomas. In 1685 Thomas was lector of quit rents in Albemarle, and between 1693 and 1705 his appears as a jury member in Perquimans. In 1694 he proved that he brought nine people into the colony, and before the end of the century owned 200 acres of land. He was living as late as 1712 when he was ex-of the will of Francis Petit, his wife's brother. By his wife Mary he a son John, born July 30, 1691, and another, Thomas, born November 1693.

⁶ Valentine Bird, speaker of the council in 1672, was appointed collector of customs by the council in 1675. The following year a duly collector, bearing proper credentials from England, arrived, but Bird

Thomas Pierce (Perre) married Mary Kent, July 30, 1690 (H. 3, p. 204). John Perre, son of Thomas and wife Mary, was born July 30, 1691 (p. 217). Mary Kent, daughter of Thomas Kent and Ann, his wife, was born the 10th of May, 1673 (H. 3, p. 205). Thomas Kent bought land March 14, 1672 on east side of Perq. river and sold same March 11, 1668, 100 acres adjoining land of Christopher Nichelson.

Thomas Kent departed this life Jun. 2, 1678 (H. 3, p. 365). Besides daughter Mary, who married Thomas Pierce (p. 365). Thomas Kent and wife Ann had daughter, Sarah, who married Thomas Long before January 13, 1696. See Will of Sarah Long, dated July 8, 1715 (H. 1, p. 59), Father-in-law Thomas Leper (step father) sister Mary Pierce, brother-in-law Thomas Pierce, etc. Thomas Kent's widow Ann, married second Thomas Leper about 1680 (H. 3, p. 199) (Also see Wins. p. 47 No. 119).

Nicholas Kent, age 16, was brought into Virginia in 1635. He was probably the father of Thomas Kent. Elizabeth Kent, daughter of Thomas Kent and Ann, his wife, was born 1st of June, 1667 (Hath. 3, p. 205). She m. William Charles II Nov. 8, 1683. Ann Kent, daughter of above, married June 10, 1679, James Hog (p. 200).

At a court holden at home of Diana Foster's the first Monday in February 1693-4, Mr. Thomas Leper had proved 10 rights—viz: Thomas Kent, Ann Kent, Sarah Kent, Rebecca Kent, Ann Kent, Junior, etc. (Daughter Mary Kent was born after moving here) (Col. Rec. Vol. 1, p. 393-4). Rights were proved for the Pierce family at this same court. Thomas Pierce proved rights for himself, Thomas Pierce, John Pierce, Susannah Ruth Pierce, Dorothy Pierce, Mary Pierce and John Pierce (second by name) These rights were evidently proved long after the two families arrived, as Thomas Kent bought land in Albermarle 21 years earlier.

Thomas Harris was probably the first Clerk of the Court of Albermarle as he is named in the will of Mrs. Mary Fortsen Nov. 15, 1665 (H. 1, p. 210) and again in 1670 (H. 3, p. 87). He and John Pierce owned land in Henrico County in 1636 when Richard Cocke, gent. was granted 3,000 acres of land adjoining them.

John Pierce, age 18, embarked in the Hopewell to New England Sept. 1635 (member of the Church of England) (Hotten p. 116). Thomas Pierce lived on north side of Albermarle Sound and southwest side of Yeopim River in 1729 (Hath. 2, p. 446). Thomas Lepper was a Justice of the Prect. Court of Perq. 1st Monday in February, 1688 (H. 3, p. 429). Thomas Pierce, Jr. witnessed the Will of James Barrow of Chowan in 1718 (Hath. 1, p. 173).

Peter Jones the younger, married Mary Pierce 6-3-1720 (Hins. 1, p. 903). John Pierce m. Mary Scott, daughter of Joseph. John Pierce died 1662 (Hath. 1, p. 366). His widow, Mary Pierce m. second William Bundy Dec. 16, 1683 (Wins. p. 327, Hath. 3, p. 201) and third m. Nickolis Simons (p. 204) June 1692.

Mary Simons Will 1722-4; son Thomas Pierce, granddaughter Mary Jones, etc. (Hath. 1, p. 76; also Wins. p. 365 and 405).

Joseph Pierce of Perq. Brother of Thomas, Will Oct. 8, 1736, names brother, Thomas Pierce and brother-in-law, Peter Jones, executors (Hath. 1, p. 66) also children and wife.

The said Martha Baptist Davis b. June 15, 1858 was the daughter of William Hith (Hyth) Davis II, born 1827, died March 19, 1882, and Mary Frances Spruill, his wife, born April 19, 1836, died January 19, 1917, married

Theses Kent family records will help to straighten out some of the badly mixed-up genealogy of several families of the Albemarle-Bath County area of N. Carolina, late 1600's and early 1700's. Especially glaring is an error, widely publicised, that Hannah, wife of both John Smithwick and Farnifold Green, was a daughter of Lawrence Gonsalvo, when actually she was Hannah Kent, a daughter of Thomas & Ann. (See Virkus, VII-641)

First, below, will be given a brief sketch of the family record of Thomas and Ann Kent and their six daughters, followed by documentary evidence.

Thomas Kent, son of _____ ?

b. (1630's?)

d. 2 June 1678, Berkeley Precinct, N.C. (later Perquimans Co.)

m. (1650's?)

To - Ann _____ ? daughter of ?

b. (1630's?)

d. (living 1715, Bath Co., N.C.)

(She m., 2nd, c 1679 to Thomas Lepper who d. c 1719 in Craven Precinct, Bath Co., N.C.)

Issue of Thomas & Ann Kent:

Sarah Kent m. 1. (before 1684) Lawrence Gonsalvo, Sr.

2. 1689 John Johnson

3. 1697/8 William Long

Rebecca Kent m. 1. c 1675? William Wyatt

2. 1688/9 Thomas Long

Ann Kent m. 1679 James Hogg

Elizabeth Kent m. 1. 1683 William Charles, Jr.

2. 1687 Giles Long

Mary Kent m. 1690 Thomas Pierce

Hannah Kent m. 1. (c 1690?) John Smithwick

2. c 1697 Farnifold Green

Judging from the dates of marriage of the daughters of Thomas Kent, and by the dates of birth of the three younger daughters, it would appear that Thomas Kent and family settled in N. Carolina in the middle 1660's, say between 1664 & 1667.

Albemarle Co., N.C. 1694 - 500 acres due to Tho. Lepper for importation of 10 persons: Tho. Kent, Am his wife, Sarah Kent, Rebecca Kent, An Kent Jur., John Thomas, Willm. Browne, Wm Brickston, Tho. Lepper, Nicholas Robison. 470 acres surveyed in 1694 for Mr. Tho. Lepper, and what remained was assigned to John Wyate. The 470 acres were on Yawpim Creek in Perwuimans Prect., on point between Western & Eastern branches of Yawpim Creek. (Page 22, "Book of Warrants & Surveys, 1681-1706," Archives File #SS978.1)

Thomas Kent died testate, but his will has been lost, and no copy has been located.

Berkeley Prect Court, 13 Feb. 1679 - Will of Thomas Kent proved by Tho. Lepper. Witnesses to will were Mr. Ralph Fletcher & Christopher Nicholson. ("Council Minutes, Wills and Inventories, 167701701," File #SS874.2, Archives.)

Berkeley Parish Register (pub. by Hathaway, 3-199 to 220, & 363 to 410) gives date of death for Thomas Kent as 2 June 1678 (Hathaway, 3-365).

pg. 2

"Thomas Leper & Ane Kent the widow of Thomas _____, deceased, took each other as man & wife the 17th of S." (ca 1679 WPJ, (Hathaway, 3-199))

From the original Berkeley Parish Register (in the Archives), the dates of birth for the three younger daughters of Thomas & Ann Kent are as follows:

Elizabeth Kent, b. 1 June 1667

Mary Kent, b. 14 Feb. 1669/70 (also given as 14 of 12 Mo. 1669/70)

Hannah Kent, b. 10 May 1673

(12th month was February, according to the Quaker calendar. March was the Quaker 1st Mo.)

Thomas Lepper (also spelled Leper & Leeper) left a will dated 1715 and probated 1719, Craven Prect., Bath Co. N.C. He named wife Anne, and two legatees; apparently he left no descendants. (Grimes, p. 214)

More details on the six daughters of Thomas and Ann Kent

1. Sarah Kent m. 1. (before 1684), as his second wife, to Lawrence Gonsalvo, Sr. He died 27 Dec. 1687 (Hathaway, 3-364), testate, mentioning but not naming his wife and children (Grimes 137). Lawrence Sr. had a son Lawrence, Jr. by a previous marriage, and a son Thomas by his marriage to Sarah Kent (Thomas was born 17 Oct. 1684 (Hath. 3-212, who erroneously gives the name as James), and died the day after his father, on 28 Dec. 1687 (Hath. 3-364). Lawrence, Jr. died in 1698, testate (Grimes 137 who also lists a will for Thomas in 1698, when actually it is a second copy of the will for Lawrence), leaving all to his father-in-law and mother, not named (this would be Wm. and Sarah Long).

Sarah (Kent) Gonsalvo m. 2nd 1 June 1689 to John Johnson (Hath. 3-203 who gives Gonsalvo as Gunfallis). John left a will dated 1693 (Grimes 188) in which he named wife Sarah and son-in-law (step-son, actually his wife's step-son) Lawrence Gonsalvo.

Sarah (Kent) Gonsalvo Johnson m. 3rd 6 Jan. 1697/8 to Wm Long (Hath. 3-408 which shows William as son of James & Ales, and Sarah Johnson as relict of John).

Sarah Kent was married three times, but apparently had no surviving children at all. She died 3 May 1718 (Perquimans Co., Births, Deaths, Marriages, Brands & Flesh Marks, Archives, File #77.001.1, p. 388), testate, in Perq. Prect, N.C. naming relatives but no children (Grimes 220). William Long had left a will 1712 in Perq., naming wife Sarah and relatives (Grimes 221)

2. Rebecca Kent m. 1st c 1675 (since Elizabeth, apparently her first child, was born in 1676) to William Wyatt (also spelled Waite, Wayet, Wiatt, Wate, etc.), first of the name in N. Carolina. He died 14 Jan. 1687 (Hath. 3-364 date probably meant for 1676/88). William left no will, but the Berkeley Parish Register listed five children for him and wife Rebecca: Elizabeth, John, Sarah, Thomas, and Samuel.

Rebecca (Kent) Wyatt m. 2nd 7 March 1688/89 to Thomas Long (Hath. 3-203), son of James & Alice, as his first and only wife. They had five children: James, Sarah, Thomas, William, and Joshua (Grimes 221; Hath. 3-216, 219, 368, 370). For the five children of William & Rebecca (Kent) Wyatt, see Hath. 3-208). Thomas Long died 28 Sept. 1721 (Hath. 3-404), testate (Grimes 221). Rebecca died 20 Oct. 1728 (Hath. 3-405).

3. Anne Kent m. 10 June 1679 (Hath. 3-200 "James Hog the son of John Hog of York Sheare in _____, and Ane Kent ye daughter of Thomas Kent and Ann his wife Late of this County was Married by Left. _____, the 10th June 1679.")

Berkeley Parish Register listed five children for James & Ann Hogg: Ann, Johathan, James, Sarah, and Hannah (Hath. 3-211, 212, 215, 367). James Hogg left a will 1708/9 in Bath Co. (Beaufort Co., N.C., Deed Book 1, p. 98), in which he names wife Ann, and daughter Elenor (under age of 19).

4. Elizabeth Kent m. 1st 8 Nov. 1683 to Wm Charles, Jr. (Hath. 3-202 "William Charles son of William Charles & Abigail his wife & Elizabeth Kent ye daughter of Thomas Kent & Ann his wife weare married ye 8th of Nov. 1683.") (Perquimans Monthly Meeting 7 of 9 Mo. 1683 William Charles liberated to marry Elizabeth Kent.) William Charles died, testate, in 1687 (omitted by Hath; _____ les d. 17 April 1687 - Berkeley Parish Register), naming wife Elizabeth, daughter Jane, brother John Charles, and James Hogg (Grimes 70). Jane was born "First of October" 1685 (Hath. 3-212).

Elizabeth (Kent) Charles m. 2nd 11 Aug. 1687 to Giles Long (Hath. 3-203 "John (error, should be Giles) Long and Elizabeth Charles ware Married by Alex. Lillington Esq. ye 11th of Agust 1687.") Giles left a will dated 1691/2 (nuncupative) in which his wife and child are mentioned but not named (Grimes 220). The wife who survived Giles would be a second wife, since Elizabeth died in 1688: "Elizabeth Longe ye wife of Jelles Longe died ye 14th of Aprill 1688." (This item was omitted by Hathaway.) Giles & Elizabeth had a daughter who was born 10 April and died 12 April 1688 (Hath. 3-215, 364).

5. Mary Kent m. 30 July 16__ Thomas Pierce (Hath. 3-204 "Thomas Perre & Mary Kent ware Married the 30th July 16__"). They were married 30th of ye 5th Month (July) 1690, according to a Pierce Bible Record in the Library of the University of N. Carolina. (The original Berkeley Parish Register spelled the name Perce, rather than Perre, as given by Hathaway.) The aforementioned Bible gave death of Thomas Pierce as 19 of 12th Mo. 1731/2, and that of Mary ("Grandmother Peirce") as 2 of 1 Mo. 1749. Thomas left a will (Grimes 289) and named wife Mary and six children: John, Thomas, Ann, Mary, Sarah, and Joseph. Ther were Quakers, Perquimans Co., N.C.

6. Hannah Kent m. 1st(c 1690, since she was born in 1673) to John Smithwick. John died in 1696, testate (Grimes 349), and named wife Hannah and daughter Sarah. Lived Bath Co., N.C.

Hannah (Kent) Smithwick m. 2nd c 1697 to Farnifold Green, who is said to have been killed by Tuscarora Indians in 1711; he left a will dated 1711 (Hath. 1-46), Bath Co., N.C., in which he named wife Hannah, children: Thomas, John, Farnifold, James, Elizabeth, and Jane Green; also daughter-in-law (step-daughter) Ann Smithwick.

Perquimans Co. Deed Book A, #145 (Winslow, p. 49): "N.C. James Hogg, & Ann my wife, Thomas Pierce, & Mary my wife, Fornyfield Green, & Hannah my wife, for 40 Pounds 8 Shillings pd by Wm Long, 'do jointly lately dec'd' 250 a. on Indian Creek, & Yeopim River. Aug. 15, 1698. Test' James Long, Thomas Long Wm Keeter."

Is there a book which would list the complete family history of William Wiatt the grandson of Rev. Haute Wyatt. He was supposedly chased out of Virginia for his religious beliefs. He was born in 1652 perhaps in England his parents were John Wiatt and Mary Cocke. William married Rebecca Kent in Perquimans County North Carolina in 1675, he died in Perquimans in 1687. What book would have this information linking his ancestry to Rev. Haute Wyatt.

My Dear Grandson

Has much pleased to receive a letter from you and to learn you ha a nice Christmas and was enjoying yourself Am glad to learn you was getting a salary each week for delivering papers such habits learned early in life is never forgotten, John delivered papers untill this year but I suppose he thinks he is too large for it now. He is a very large boy you would hardly know him and David is still larger than John. He is 6 foot tall and very slim. Both boys are going to school and learning very fast you will be surprised when you see them, they are as large as men and getting quite wise.

We are having wonderful weather for Wyoming. no snow and it does not snow freeze at night. I expect it will change about March and we will pay for this warm weather by having a very stormy spring. I had several presents Christmas a nice shirt, a tie a shaving set, a reading table a box of fruit $5.00 in money also a load of coal I had my share of presents and they were just what I needed.

I am living up stairs now - A man, his wife and daughter are living down below, It is much nicer to have some one in the house, when it storms they can help feed the cattle.

Tell Junior and Marion Granddad expect to see them here on a visit next fall they must have grown much bigger since I last saw them. I hope they will be able to make me a good long visit.

I hope you are and make us a good long visit next Christmas but you will not be able to go ~~back~~ back through Wyoming, there would be too much danger of you being caught in a bad snow storm. You could go back through Arizona. It will be many a year before we will see another such a winter as this.
I will close for this time Tell your Mother. I shall write here before long

Love and good wishes to all Grandd

New Bern, the son of Maria Fredericka Devereaux and Christopher Lente, who was in East Indian trade. He was of Dutch descent on his father's side and of Huguenot descent on his mother's. Lente attended The University of North Carolina, receiving an A.B. degree in 1845 and an A.M. degree in 1848. Two undergraduate papers by him, "The Individual Influence of Studies in College" and "The Discovery of America and Its Influence upon the World," are preserved in the university archives at Chapel Hill. He received a medical degree from the University Medical College of New York in 1849. According to family tradition, he also studied in Paris.

Lente was house surgeon for the New York Hospital from 1848 to 1851, when he was appointed surgeon of the West Point Foundry at Cold Spring, N.Y. In 1870 he was named to the Chair of Gynecology and Diseases of Children at the University Medical College in New York City, where he was also consulting surgeon for the Women's Hospital, St. Mary's Hospital, and the Free Dispensary for Sick Children. Soon health considerations forced him to leave the city, and after 1875 he spent winters at Palatka, Fla., and summers at Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

Lente was a founder and first president of the American Academy of Medicine; a founder of the American Neurological Association; a vice-president of the New York Neurological Society; a member of the New York Medical Society, the American Public Health Association, and the New York Medico-Legal Society; and an honorary member of the North Carolina Medical Society. He contributed extensively to medical literature, including pioneer works on sunstroke, the danger of chloroform for anesthesia, the use of morphine to treat puerperal convulsions, and surgical procedures for broken bones. He invented several instruments for the use of gynecologists as well as an early method for blood transfusion.

Lente married Mary Kemble of New York City in 1852. He died of cerebro-spinal meningitis in Cold Spring, Putnam County, N.Y., and was buried there.

ROSAMOND PUTZEL

Lepper (or Leper), Thomas (d. ca. July 1718), Council member, marshal, and justice of the County Court of Albemarle, County Court of Bath, and Perquimans Precinct Court, was in the North Carolina colony by August 1679, when he was marshal of the Palatine's court in the government recently established by the Lords Proprietors following the uprising called Culpeper's Rebellion. He may have come to the colony from Virginia, to which a Thomas Lepper had immigrated by October 1669.

Lepper sympathized with the losing faction in the Culpeper uprising, although he apparently had taken no active part in it. In 1680 he signed a petition to the king alleging that the "rebels" still controlled the government and seeking the king's aid in suppressing them. Like many other opponents of the rebels, Lepper belonged to the Quaker faith.

Insofar as surviving records show, Lepper's chief political activities began in the late 1680s. From February 1689 through April 1690 he was a justice of the Perquimans Precinct Court. In 1690 and 1691 he was a member of the Council of the colony. From July 1692 through February 1694 he was a justice of the County Court of Albemarle, which was then the highest court of law in the colony. In 1701 and 1702 he was a justice of the recently created court for Bath County.

In or about the fall of 1679, Lepper married Ann Kent, widow of Thomas Kent. He lived many years on Yeopim Creek, in Perquimans Precinct, where he held 470 acres of land, part of which had been patented by Thomas Kent and had come to Lepper through his marriage. In 1697 he sold his Perquimans plantation and moved to Bath County. Lepper appears to have had no children of his own, although he had several stepdaughters.

At the time of his death, Lepper was living in Craven Precinct, Bath County, where his will was proved on 22 July 1719. With the exception of bequests to two unidentified women, Ann and Catherine Nuss, he left his estate to his wife Ann.

Leslie, James (ca. 1720-81), founder of the town of Halifax, was born in Northern Ireland. It may be significant that he first appeared in North Carolina not long after the arrival of Governor Arthur Dobbs, himself a native of Ulster. On 8 Feb. 1757 David Crawley sold to James Leslie, merchant, three hundred acres on Roanoke River near Quankey Creek in Edgecombe County. Later that year, the Assembly passed an act creating a town on one hundred acres of the land Leslie had so recently purchased. The commissioners of the new town, Thomas Barker, Alexander McCulloch, John Gibson, Richard Browning, and Robert Jones, the younger, were directed to lay off streets and alleys with a hundred lots of half an acre each. Four acres were to be reserved for a marketplace, and a public quay or landing was to be established on the Roanoke River. The act further provided that the ferry owned by James Leslie and already established by law over the river was to be the only ferry allowed at the new town. The proceeds from the sale of lots in the town were first to be applied to paying Leslie for the land and second towards building a bridge over Quankey Creek. The town a year later was named Halifax and became the seat of the new county of Halifax, created from the northern part of Edgecombe County in 1759.

There are few records pertaining to Leslie in his later

LONG GENEALOGY

One of the earliest families to settle in old Albemarle County, North Carolina was the Long family. James Long brought his wife Alice, and six children into Carolina in the early 1670's. It is probable that the family lived in Virginia prior to settling in Carolina, and James of Carolina may be identical with the James Longe who was granted 200 acres in Nansemond County, Virginia (Patent Book 6, page 311). The one and only James Long on the 1704 Rent Roll of Virginia was a James Longe of Accomack County, with 200 acres.

James Long and family settled in southern Perquimans County, on Yawpim (now spelled Yeopim) Creek, at a settlement called Yawpim. (From: "Albemarle - Book of Warrants & Surveys, 1681-1706" [Archives, File No. SS978.1], p. 173:) 1680 - To Survey for Mr. James Long, 450 acres, for the importation into Carolina of James Long Sr., Alice his wife, James Long Jr. his "sone," Thomas, Giles, William, & Robert Long - "Sones" - Elizabeth his daughter, Mary Burton. 1681 - Surveyed at Yawpim, for Mr. James Long, 450 acres. 1681 - Granted to James Longe, 450 acres, Berkely Precinct, for James Long Sr., Alice his wife, James Long Jr. his son, Tho., Giles, Wm, & Robert Long, sons, Eliz. his daughter, Mary Burton (for the importation thereof).

Original will of James Long (Archives, File No. SS856, page 63). Dated 24 --ember 1678; probated --- --- 1682. "James Longe of Albemarle Co." Wife (not named) & son James, Executors. Legatee: Ellizabeth Kinked. "All my children." Sons: James, Thomas, Gilles. Signed by mark. Wits.: John Wilson, William Stanard. (The will of James Longe was probated in September 1682 [The Colonial Records of North Carolina, Higher-Court Records, 1670-1696, Vol. II, p. lviii].)

Shortly after James Long died, his widow remarried. Berkeley Parish Register (Hathaway, NORTH CAROLINA HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL REGISTER, Vol. 3, p. 202): "----- Willson & Ales Long ye Relicke of James Longe ware Married ye first of June 1682." (Page 220:) "Alis Wilson (wife of James Wilson) Departed this Life Aug. 27, 1692." (Page 363:) "John Wilson, son of James Wilson & Alis his wife departed this Life ye 17th of July 1691."

There was a Thomas Long, with wife Alice, who was an early settler in Perquimans, but what relation, if any, to James, with wife Alice, is not known. Land Grant Office, Raleigh, N. C.: Book 1, p. 93 - Thomas Long - Precinct of Piquemons - File No. 71 - 168 acres, on the West side of Piquemons River, beginning at a marked White Oak standing upon a small Creaque or Gut called Tank's Creaque, adj. Laurence Noggel. 1684.

The known facts regarding Thomas Long and wife Alice are as follows: Perquimans Deed Book A: No. 29: Thomas Long a witness to a deed, 1687. No. 30: 1687 - Tabitha Gray binds two children, Thomas & Elizabeth, to Thomas Long. No. 34: Grant from Lords Proprietors to Thomas Long, planter, 168 acres English Measure, on west side of Perquimans River, adj. lands of Lawrence Noggins, due sd Long for Transportation of three persons into sd County. At Mr. George Durants House, 6 Feb. 1668 (the year is surely wrong - WPJ). No. 35: Thomas Long, & Alce my wife, for 60 Pounds Sterling paid by Edward Mayo, have assigned sd Patent. 18 Feb. 1689. Wits.: Em Nixon, Sarah Mayo. No. 36: Grant from Lords Proprietors to Richard Bavans, of Carolina, planter, 240 acres on west side of Perquimans River, "by a small Swamp, & the River Side," adj. Thomas Long, due sd Bavans for Transportation of five persons. 5 Feb. 1678. No. 64: Thomas Attoway of Perquimans, in County of Albemarle, for a consideration paid by Patrick Kenedy, of same, sold plantation "bequeathed to me by Thomas Long, Dec'd." 2 Oct. 1690. Thomas & Elizabeth Attoway. Wits.: Stephen Manoring, Jos. Hollford. (The foregoing six deeds taken from Winslow's HISTORY OF PERQUIMANS COUNTY, pages 40 & 42.) Berkeley Parish Register (Hathaway, 3-364): "Ales Long ye wife of Thomas Longe, died March 21, 1687-8. Thomas Longe died Apr. 4, 1688." No record of children of Thomas and Alice Long has been found. All the Longs of Perquimans, Chowan, and Tyrrell Counties, North Carolina, appear to be descendants of James and Alice Long. It should be noted that in North Carolina in the 1600's & early 1700's that any person who transported or imported other persons into North Carolina was issued 50 acres of land per person. Thus, "proving rights," or headrights, consisted of officially listing the names of all persons brought into North Carolina by an individual, and allowing that individual 50 acres of land per person - this included not only the whites, but Negroes and Indians brought in as slaves, and often the individual, himself. These "rights" were valuable, and were used as money, to pay debts, and often passed through several hands before the land was actually granted to the final owner of the rights.

(Hath. 2-468:) "Miscellaneous Items (Original in Court House at Edenton, N. C.)" "Thomas Leary and Joshua Worley, Exrs. of John Worley, dec'd., suit with Thomas and Joseph Blount, 1742." "Joshua Worley's grand-father and grand-mother were James Long and wife Elizabeth Long, the latter left sons Thomas and John, a daughter who md. Jacob Blount. Grand-son James Long, Giles Long and John Long also descended from James." (Hath. 1-446:) "Miscellaneous Items From Court Records of Chowan Precinct at Edenton, N. C." "Division of the estate of Joshua Worley of Tyrrell. (No date). Heirs Lewis Worley, James Long and wife, Joshua Slade and wife, Esther Worley, William Worley, Joshua Worley, Richard Collins and wife." (Tyrrell Co. marriage bond - 1753 - James Long & Ann Worley - Editor.)

The following data pertain to Elizabeth Hawkins, wife of James Long (Jr.). From: "Albemarle - Book of Warrants & Surveys, 1681-1706" [SS978.1], p. 3a - Chowan - 1694 - Henderson Walker proved following rights: Timothy Turton, Leah Thomas, John Williams, (Leo?)nard Turton, 2 Negroes, Jno. Hawkins, Alice his mother, Tho. Hawkins, -----, Jno. Morgan, Margaret Drake, Tho. Hawkins, Elizabeth Hawkins her -----, & Sarah Hawkins, & possibly Henderson Walker, himself, was included. p. 149 - 1693 - To survey for Capt. Henderson Walker 1120 acres, due for transporting: Timothy Turton, Leah, Thomas, Jno. Williams, Leonard Turten, two negroes, Jno. Hawkins, Alice his mother, Jno. Hufty(?), Jno. Morgan, Margt. Drake, Tho., Eliz., Sarah Hawkins, Rich. Mitchell, Rich. Thompson, Wm Camell, Peter, An(?), Mary, Adam Bassett. 1697 - Surveyed for Capt. Henderson Walker 428 acres. 1697 - Granted to Capt. Henderson Walker 428 acres, Chowan Prct., for rights proved: Timothy, Leah, Thomas, Jno., Wm, Leonard Turton, two Negroes, & Jno. Hawkins. (Since Thomas Hawkins was given twice in the foregoing, it is possible that Thomas was the name of the husband of Alice Hawkins, the rest being her children - Editor.)

Thomas Hawkins, son of ----- & Alice, married (around 1680?) Elizabeth Blount, daughter of James & Ann Blount. The will of James Blount (N. C. Council Minutes, & Wills & Inventories, 1677-1701, page 120) - James Blounte, Esqr., of Chowan Precinct, Albemarle Co., Carolina, dated 9 July 1685; probated July 1686, named, among others: daughter Elizabeth Hawkins, & her son (James' grandson) John Hawkins, under age.

Elizabeth (Blount) Hawkins, after the death of Thomas Hawkins c1696, married Michael Smith. (Hath. 3-81 - 1689/90 - Bond payable in deer-skins, involving Mr. Thomas Hawkins and Mrs. Ailes [Alice] Davis of Chowan Precinct.) (Hath. 1-48:) "Abstract of Wills" (Taken from the Secretary of State's office, Raleigh, N. C.....) "Thomas Hawkins. Is dead in 1696 without a will; his widow, Elizabeth, wife of Nicholas [should be Michael - Editor] Smith, administratrix." (from: N. C. Council Minutes, & Wills & Inventories, 1677-1701, page 100 - dated 169.. - Thomas Hawkins - admin. granted to nearest of kin, Elizabeth, now wife of Michael Smith.)

(From: THE COLONIAL RECORDS OF NORTH CAROLINA [Second Series] - Higher-Court Records, 1670-1696, p. 265:) Oct. 1696 - "Upon Petition of John Hawkins son of Tho. Hawkins deceased shewing that when he was under the age of fourteen yeares he made Choice of Alice Waad his Grandmother for his Guardian at Court of Chowan precinct but now being at the full age of fourteen yeares and desiring to live with his Father in law Michael Linch and his Mother Chuseth his said Father in law [step-father - Ed.] his Guardian. Ordered that the said Michael Linch take into his possession all the estate of the said John Hawkins he having Given security by William Duckenfeild and William Gaskin who undertake on the behalfe of the said Linch that he shall render his just account of the same. [There is some discrepancy as to whether Michael's surname was Smith or Linch. Further research needs to be done on this point. Editor.] (Same, pp. 285-86:) "Court Held by The Council, September-October 1696" John Hawkins' petition: "To the Honorable the debuty Governor and Councell John Hawkins humbly Sheweth: That your petitioner did formerly make Choyce of his Grandmother Mrs. Alice Wade as his Gardian, being thereunto Earnestly perswaded by his said Grandmother and other his relations the which your petitioner is much discontented in minde for his soe doeing: and humbly prays that this Honorable Court will permitt him to mak Choyce of his Father in Law Micaell Linch for his Gardian with whom and his mother your petitioner Earnestly prays to Live And your petitioner shall pray etc. /S/ John Hawkins."

Thus we know that the last marriage for Alice, mother of Elizabeth (Hawkins) Long, was to Edward Wade. (Age of Edward Wade was given in 1679 as "34 or thereabouts" - COLONIAL RECORDS OF NORTH CAROLINA (1st Series), 1-249; from Hath. 3-46 - Edward Waad aged 38 in 1680/81; thus Edward Wade was born c1642/3-45.) (Hath. 3-51:) Edw. Wade among those who signed a petition 30 June 1680 as an inhabitant of Albemarle County. Original will of Edward Waad (given in Grimes as WOOD!), of Chowan, dated 9 Aug. 1691; probated 5 Nov. 1691, p(er) Richard Plater, Clerk of Court. Wife Alice - "all that Estate She was possessed with before I marryed her, exceptinge what is already spent." To wife, my plantation & land on west side of Yauapim River. Exr.: friend Mr. Francis Hartley. Signed: Edw. Waad. Wits.: Anna her X mark Sothell, Saml. Pricklove, John Sloucumb, Robert Mellyne.

From: N. C. Council Minutes, and Wills and Inventories, 1677-1701, page 172 - Will of Alice Waide, widow - dated 25 April 1701. Grandson Jno. Hawkins. Grandsons Tho. & James Hawkins. Granddaughter Eliz. Hawkins. Daughter Elizabeth Long, son James Long (she no doubt refers to her son-in-law James Long, husband of her daughter Eliz. - Editor). Grandson James Long. Grandson Thos. Long. Granddaughter Mary Long. To Elizabeth "ye youngest Daughter of my Daughter Long." Exr.: grandson Jno. Hawkins (his two brothers mentioned, namely: Thomas & James, under 21). Signed by mark. Wits.: Geo. Slaide, Geo. Swaine, Vines Croply.

The foregoing items give us the names of all the children of Thomas Hawkins (d. 1696), and of his sister, Elizabeth (Hawkins) Long. It is likely that the Hawkins family lived in Virginia prior to settling in N. C.

Apparently Sarah had no children by any of her three husbands; if she did, they obviously died young & unmarried. (Her son Thomas died young - see below.)

Sarah Kent married (1st) (before 1684), as his second wife, to Lawrence Gonsolvo (various spellings - see above), Sr. He died 27 Dec. 1687 (Hath. 3-364), testate, mentioning but not naming his wife and children (Grimes 137). Lawrence Sr. had a son Lawrence Jr. by a previous marriage, and a son Thomas by his marriage to Sarah Kent (Thomas Gonsolvo was born 17 Oct. 1684 (Hath. 3-212), who erroneously gave the name as James, and died the day after his father, on 28 Dec. 1687 (Hath. 3-364)). Lawrence Jr. died in 1698, testate (Grimes 137 - who also lists a will for Thomas in 1698, but this latter is actually a second will for Lawrence), leaving
